Here and There

A NEW DEFINITION for love, as told by Larry Holt after going to Kannapolis. "Love is the funny feeling that you have when you feel that you have a feeling that you never felt before."

MARILYN GREENE WAS studying in French II the other day and was deeply absorbed in her work. All of a sudden Bill Huckabee shouted, "Marilyn, you've got garments all over you!"

Marilyn, not realizing what he'd said, screamed, "Oh! Get them off. Quick!"

JULIE USSERY WAS talking about things that had been written in her annual that she didn't like. Suddenly this was heard: "My mouth isn't any bigger than anyone else's—much."

EVERYONE KNOWS HOW Shirley Boone drives around school; and the other day she ran smack into another car. Shirley jumped out of her car and said to the poor soul in the other car: "Why don't you look where you're going? You're the fifth person I've hit this morning."

A GROUP OF senior girls were discussing their dreams when Mona Crotts asked, "Bettie, what did you dream about last night?"

Bettie's quick reply was, "I don't remember; I was asleep."

IF YOU'RE WONDERING how they decided to build the North Albemarle school building where it is, here's the reason. Mr. Grigg explained in this sentence: "It was the only place, the best place, and it was donated to us."

MARILYN GREENE (TRANSLATING a French story)—"There she stood with the same row of teeth."

Miss Vendrick, "I can see that you haven't studied, Marilyn. The sentence says 'She was standing there in a dress of lace.'"

MARTHA RAE HARRIS, who was an entrant in the Radio Queen contest, was being interviewed by Lee Kinard. She was wearing her celebrated red flannel nightgown. Lee was examining the nightgown closely and after looking at the back he exclaimed, "No, this one doesn't have a trap door."

THIS LITTLE CONVERSATION will prove how boys notice a girl when she changes her hair style. Sometimes they even ask questions—such as in the case when Jerry Traywick asked Judy, "Did you cut your hair, Judy?"

"No, it just shrank when I washed it. It's not sanforized," said Judy.

WE ALL KNOW that graduation time for the Seniors is just about here. Day before yesterday we heard "Jungle" Jim Page make this statement with a worried look on his face, "Well, I ought to finish school about 1960 if Coach is still around."

MARTHA RAE: "Robert, when you go to Duke you'll have to join the 'Hoof and Horn club.'"

Robert, "I can't hoof."

Martha, "You can horn, though."

Robert, "How can you tell?"

Martha, "Oh, I don't know. You just look like you could horn."

THIS WAS HEARD at the Senior banquet. Patsy Page, "Mother told me to hold up my shoulders and Daddy said to hold up my dress."

Frank Burrell, interested in the subject, made this suggestion, "Well, Patsy, all I can say is you better get busy then!"

Courses will be offered in all required subjects for which there is a demand. Pupils who have failed a required subject are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity to make up the work and keep their records straight.

On Monday individual schedules will be arranged and books distributed. Beginning Tuesday, school will be in session from 7:00 a.m. until 12:00.

Officers Chosen For Class Of '54

The rising senior class elected their officers for next year at a recent meeting. Myron Snoterly was chosen president of the class of '54, and Claud Grigg was elected vice-president. Serving as secretary will be Patty Almond. Preston Burr will act as treasurer.

Due to the rush at the beginning of each school year, these officers were elected this year to eliminate the many class meetings held in the fall.

Mrs. Bob Deese, who will continue her job as French teacher next year, was chosen as the class sponsor.

Dr. Warner Hall Is Guest Speaker At Commencement

Diplomas will be given to 96 seniors at commencement exercises on Monday, June 1, at 8 p.m.

The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Warner Hall, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian Church of Charlotte. Dr. Hall is one of the outstanding ministers and speakers of North Carolina.

On Sunday, May 3, at 8 p.m., Rev. J. Boyce Brooks, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in the high school auditorium.

This year, as in past years, the seniors will furnish their own graduation music. At the baccalaureate sermon they will sing "Day Is Dying in the West," "Thanks Be to God," and the "Sevenfold Amen." Their commencement music will be "Born to Be Free" and the traditional "Auld Lang Syne."

Mr. Richard L. Brown, Jr., chairman of the Albemarle school board, will present the diplomas to the graduating seniors.
