

National Bible Week Being Observed At High School

National Bible Week was observed in the high school this week under the auspices of the newly organized Bible club.

Prominent Albemarle ministers and citizens spoke to the student body each morning thirty minutes prior to school on the general theme "The Bible in the Christian Life." Rev. John Jordan of the First Street Methodist church spoke on "Christian Witness"; Mr. Frank Patterson from the First Lutheran church spoke on "Christian Citizenship"; Rev. Boyce Brooks of the First Baptist church spoke on "Christian Fellowship"; and Attorney Warren Coble spoke on "The Bible in the Business World." In addition to these addresses the following students spoke briefly on "What the Bible Means to Me": Jo Ellen Brooks, Gene Burris, Bettie Jean Burris, and Margaret Brunson. Special music was rendered and group singing was directed by Susie Swaringen with Amorelle Tucker at the piano.

Displayed in the lobby was the open Bible, designating the Bible verse used in the address for that particular morning. Behind the Bible on the table, covered with a white cloth, was a gold cross, a candle, and flowers. To further emphasize Bible Week, numerous posters and pictures were utilized throughout the lobby.

Miss Abrahamsen is sponsor of the club and Jimmy Griffin is the club president.

Hold That Pose!

"Chin up—hold still now—that's good!" It was the "picture-taking man" at A.H.S. again, struggling, joking, posing the students for the 1954 Crossroads. This year Jim Small was selected to represent the Delmar Studios in Albemarle.

On hand to see that everything went according to schedule, or at least reasonably so, were Larry Tucker, annual photographer, Mrs. Carter, annual advisor, and Wayne Morris, member of the photography staff.

Around the popular mirror you found study hall girls busy with make-up. Assisting throughout the day were Peggy Davis, Jeanette Howard, Georgia Beaver, Sue Swaringen, and Louise Cooper.

The idea is not to kill time, but to make time live; not to serve time, but to make time serve you.

LAST SEEN WEARING

By JO and BOB

Has anyone noticed all the "lil" fur collars being worn by oodles of gals this fall? Barbara Copley has a cute tie-on that really makes those sweaters look sharp!

As fall came rushing in, it brought a bevy of attractive new colors to the fashion-conscious students. Red, brown, olive green, mauve, and oxford grey seem to be the colors highlighting the season.

In the skirt line, tweeds and a nubby fabric, closely resembling poodle, are taking the show. The red skirt worn by Dottie Walker caused many envious stares from all the gals and a good many whistles from members of the opposite sex!!

Linda Moose, Sally Crook, Margaret Brunson, and Pat Atkins have been seen sporting some mighty pretty blouses which seem to be knocking sweaters out of the picture. Females seem to go for dad's shirts in plaid, stripes and figures.

By the way, have "yawl" got a glimpse of that gorgeous red sweater of Wayne Palmer's?

We dedicate this little verse That cannot last an age To the great and noble purpose Of filling up this page.

Sophomores Plan To Organize Club

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Hayes, the sophomore class is obtaining membership in a national book club. Any member of the sophomore class who is interested in reading is eligible to join.

Each month the national headquarters will send the club a list from which books can be bought for twenty-five cents. Each member may pick the book he wishes to read.

At the monthly meeting, the business will consist of discussing and criticizing books read during the past month.
