

Economics Class Visits Local Mill

An interesting tour was given Mrs. Lynn's economics class when they visited the American-Efird Mill on February 29.

The class visited the mill through the invitation of Mr. Conley Robinson, an overseer, and was shown and told some of the facts concerning the manufacture of cotton.

Mr. Wayne Mabry from the Badin Aluminum Company, visited the class earlier this year and spoke to them on labor unions. Through Mr. Mabry's invitation, the class made arrangements to visit the plant on March 20.

Later this year the class plans to visit Collins and Aikman in Norwood. Mr. McQuilkin of the Norwood plant has invited the class to come and learn more about the materials produced there.

MUSIC MASTERS SPONSOR TALENT SHOW FOR ASSEMBLY

Much hidden talent and a few new faces were discovered recently at the Modern Music Masters' talent show.

Bill Fisher served as master of ceremonies and official joke-teller for the program.

First prize of $4.00 was won by Bob Morton, who played on an autoharp and sang. Brenda Gantt tapped and sang her way to the second prize of $2.00, and Billy Lowder "crooned" the song "He" for the third prize, which was an angel food cake.

Those students competing for prizes were "The Starlighters", Kenneth Barbee, "Dirty Five" and Charlie "Red" Smith, Boys' Double Quartet, Billy Lowder, Mickey Doby, Delores Hopkins, Pat Waller, Bob Morton, Brenda Gantt, and Marie Lambert.

The talent show was planned and organized by Bill Fisher, Wade Smith, and Patsy Griggs. It was sponsored by the Modern Music Masters Society as one of their service projects for the year.

Attend Meeting Of Honor Group

Three new members of the National Honor Society attended a convention at Boyden High School on March 16, 17, and 18.

David Grigg and Linda Moose served as official delegates and Janis Westerlund served as the unofficial delegate. The three days in Salisbury were spent learning the functions of the Honor Society and their duties as members.

The senior members who attended the morning and afternoon sessions were Joe Klutz, Peggy Furr, Barbara Holt, and Susie Culp.

Several Students Get Scholarships

Bill Fisher, Luther Kimery, Johnny Richardson, and Linda Barnes are proving that studying does pay off.

Bill, an outstanding student in many fields, has accepted a scholarship from Duke University for four years.

Luther Kimery went to Sumter, South Carolina, last week to take a test for the Air Force Academy. He has also taken tests for the Baker Scholarship at Davidson College and the George Foster Hankins Scholarship at Wake Forest.

Catawba College is very lucky to get a fine girl like Linda Barnes for the next four years. Linda won an Academic Honor Scholarship.
