THE FULL MOON

Vol. — No. 3

Albemarle High School, Albemarle, N. C.

November 21, 1956

play practice the other night when Barbara Hathcock misread her lines and said, "He has two speeds, slow and stop."

Presented Soon

STAG LINE, a three-act, comedy has been chosen by

THIS CONVERSATION WAS overheard between Carol Little and Mark Moose, senior mas-

"Will you start to school next year?" Carol asked. "Yes," Mark replied.

"What grade will you be in?" asked Carol.

ting on makeup for the photographer when he accidentally got a whiff of the potent mixture. "Whew, this mess stinks!"

he exclaimed.
"It smells bad, too," Charles Brown added.

BUDDY STOKER AND Winfred Ford were discussing the draft. "I'm safe. I won't be eighteen until next May," said Winfred.

ONE DAY IN physics, Mr. Hat-ley asked, "What's the answer to the third question, Speight?" "Well, I know," Tom replied, "but I just can't tell you."

"ARE YOU ON the Full Moon staff?" Mr. Lippard asked Jackie

Biddle.

"No," answered Jackie. "Why?"

"I thought maybe you were since you had made the trip there," said Mr. Lippard.

JANET WOOD ASKED Brenda Casper, "Casper, do you have a safety pin?"

"Heavens no!" Brenda indignantly replied. "I've outgrown the diaper stage."

"They caught that ball—on the third bounce."—Mr. Hatley, announcing the football game.

a Baptist."

COACH WEBB ASKED his second period economics class what the most important thing in life

"Food," said 'Punk' Gantt.
"Nope," replied Coach Webb.
"Women," guessed Burnie Miller. "Nope, it's Coach Webb. it's cars," answered

"THERE'S A BOY with a good tics." head on his shoulders," remarked Barbara to Shelia."

"Yeah," Shelia replied, "a different one every night.'

"WHAT MAKES YOU think that solid geometry is an easy course?" asked Miss Caughman. Garrieth "Polio" Pendergraft replied, "Because Larry Joe Burleson is taking the course."

HERE AND THERE Juniors Choose THE JUNIORS WERE having Class Play; To Be

STAG LINE, a three-act, light comedy, has been chosen by the junior class play committee for presentation in the near future.

Miss Carolyn Holt, director of the play, says, "No definite date has been set as yet, but it should be sometime about the last of November."

"What grade will you be in?"
sked Carol.
TOMMY WATKINS WAS putTOMMY WAS PU rell, Jerry; Ronnie Millican, Ronald; Graham Harwood, Davie; Charles Delk, Mac; Pat Starnes, mother; Sue Winn, Alice; Janet Wood, Julie; Saundra Burleson, Lysbeth; Glenda Keever, Margaret; James Norton, Dad; Peggy Lisk, Ting; Molly Holbrook, Carole; Barbara Hathcock, Smitty; Mickey Lawhon, Chi; Larry Mullis, Snoots, and Martha Huckabee, Mrs. Harrington Smith. This is one of the largest casts to be seen in a junior play.

The junior play is the largest money raising effort of the juniors all year. All money made on the play will go into the class treasury to help pay for the Junior-Senior Prom in the spring.

Various things are sold by the class to raise money for the prom. Pencils were sold at the first of the year. Later, the class sold potato chips. Both sales were very successful.

Brinn Knotts and Mark Moose will be class mascots when the seniors graduate in June.

Troutman.
Seniors have ordered their call-

AHS HOMECOMING QUEEN

Miss Jo Parks, vice-president of the Albemarle High School Boosters' Club, places the crown of AHS Homecoming Queen upon the head of Miss Jeanette Hinson during half-time ceremonies of the Bulldogs-Concord game Friday night. Miss Hinson sponsored Co-Captain David Grigg, and was selected by secret ballot of the football players.

Tucker Will Ride In Local Parade

Diane Tucker has been chosen by the seniors to represent Albemarle High School as Miss Merry Christmas in Albemarle's by the Bible Club last Friday.

* * * *

"HOW LONG HAVE you been teaching here?" Winfred asked.
"Oh, I was born here," Miss Caughman replied.

* * *

WHILE DISCUSSING marriage in sociology, Jimmy Cochran made a statement to think about: "She quits watching her figure, and he quits watching his manners—and that's it."

* * *

WINTED INSCUSSING marriage in sociology, Jimmy Cochran made a statement to think about: "She quits watching her figure, and he quits watching his manners—and that's it."

WINTED INSCUSSING marriage in seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors graduate in June.

These two were chosen by the seniors during homeroom period. Any senior give the along during homeroom period do so brought a little poy or girl between the ages of 3 and 6 to compete for the honor.

Brinn, four-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne figure, and he quits watching his brought by Anne Rogers.

Mark, four years old also, and the senior state in June.

A senior this year, Diane has been active in school affairs all during her high school career.

This year she is typing editor of the CROSSROADS and is a member of the Full watcher.

The seniors graduate in June.

Seniors statement of odo so brought a little por the senior give persenting their towns in Stan-law

Bible Club Gives Special Program

The program began with the group's singing "Come, Ye Thankful People." Sue Winn, president, led the group in responsive reading and prayer.

In "Thanksgiving For Our Homes," Rona Jane Mauldin made a brief speech, and a trio made up of Kitty Almond, Peggy Smith, and Lulabelle Smith sang "God Give Us Christian Homes".

Way Is Now Clear For Construction Of New Building

Property has now been acquired, and the building of a new senior high school will soon be begun by the city of Albemarle.

This is now possible because the Supreme Court of North Caro-lina ruled that it found no error in the Superior Court action which gave title to the Doby property to the school board for a figure of $40,000.

The Albemarle City School Board now holds title to 26.92 acres of land in the northern portion of the city, on which the new school will be built.

R. L. Brown, Jr., chairman of the school board, said that as soon as the remainder of the bonds are sold, providing further legal questions have not arisen, the board will be ready to proceed with the construction work.

Freshmen at AHS have a lot to look forward to, since the school will probably be completed before they graduate.

Students Enter Speaking Contest

The "I Speak For Democracy" contest, sponsored each year at A.H.S. by the Jaycees, is again being held this year.

This contest is open to every-one in the school. This year the contestants are Woody Durham, Josh Morton, Pat Starnes, Glenda Keever, and Peggy Smith.

School eliminations were held November 19, and county eliminations will be held November 26. The county awards are first prize $25, second prize $15, and third prize $5.

Miss Hassell is helping the contestants with their work.

book marks with Bible reading E. J. Whitley gave a part of the Thanksgiving Proclamation after which the group sang "God Bless America". received one as he went from the auditorium. "Break Thou the Bread of Life" was sung by the trio.

"Glass Eyes That See", a movie presenting God as "The Light of the World" was shown in "Thanksgiving for God".

Lulabelle Smith was chairman for the assembly program.

Peggy Sue Lisk, chairman, Ivan Sibley, and Aldena Harrington were on the committee to decorate the stage.

Miss Jean Abrahamsen is Bible Club advisor.

Student Poll Showed Ike Favorite

G. C. AND BUDDY were arguing about the election when John Solomon walked up.

"By the way, John," Buddy inquired, "are you a Democrat or a Republican?"

"Neither," John answered, "I'm a Baptist."

Students at AHS were typical of the nation, according to a poll of the student body conducted by Mr. Knotts' history class just before elections. President Eisenhower won over Adlai Stevenson hower won over Adlai Stevenson this way, "I think he is good at speaking and making decisions. Also, I think that he would be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him world stevenson because if his health fails that they are also should be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him because if his health fails that before elections. President Eisenhower won over Adlai Stevenson by 379 votes to 242. Vice President Nixon received 373 votes, while Estes Kefauver polled 249.

The sophomores got in the swing with a panel discussion presenting the major issues of the political parties.

Also, I think that he would be good in foreign policies and public relations."

Also, I think that he would be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him because if his health fails they don't think Nixon is qualified to be president.

Agnes Lawhon, Charles Delk, mon.

The sophomores got in the swing with a panel discussion presenting the major issues of the political parties.

Also, I think that he would be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him because if his health fails they don't think Nixon is qualified to be president.

Agnes Lawhon, Charles Delk, mon.

President Eisenhower would be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him because if his health fails they don't think Nixon is qualified to be president.

Also, I think that he would be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him because if his health fails they don't think Nixon is qualified to be president.

Also, I think that he would be a big factor in the re-election of Ike.

Others said that they favored like but would not vote for him because if his health fails they don't think Nixon is qualified to be president.

Agnes Lawhon, Charles Delk, mon.

the political parties.

Woody Durham discussed "Our Present World Problems;" Ed-die Crutchfield, "Some Facts Every Voter Should Remember;"
Josh Morton, "What the Republican Party Stands For;" and Lane
Brown, "Common Sense In Poli-

The climax of the program was a presidential election, with Eisenhower winning by 85 votes to 76. Chip Cain presided over these events.

A survey conducted in one of Miss Hassell's, Mrs. Hayes', Miss Misenheimer's, and Mrs. Fry's English classes revealed that these classes supported Ike by 49

* * *

In this survey students were delected President of the United asked three questions: If you were old enough to vote, who what's the difference between a dash and a hyphen on a type-writer?"

Writer?"

Luiabelle Smith and Ronnie Haire said that their votes would go to Eisenhower, not because of the Republican party, but because of the Republican party, but because of the Republican party, but because of the man he is.

"People are always making remarks about Ike's health," said hink will win the election?"

"My second period class sounds like a because of the man he is.

"People are always making remarks about Ike's health," said hink will win the election?"

"My second period class sounds like a because of the man he is.

"He's a dreamboat of the United go to Eisenhower, not because of the Republican party, but because of the man he is.

"People are always making remarks about Ike's health," said Nancy Boger, "but for all they time?"

"My second period class sounds like a because of the man he is.

"He's a dreamboat of the United go to Eisenhower was reelected President of the United States.

Voters undoubtedly felt as Webb.

"He's a dreamboat of the United go to Eisenhower, not because of the Republican party, but because of the man he is.

"People are always making remarks about Ike's health," said Nancy Boger, "but for all they time?"

President Eisenhower would get the votes of Ronnie Smith, Marlene Price, Genell Whitley, Alex Furr, Sammie Holshouser, Roger Eudy, and Brenda Casper simply because they think that he's the man best qualified for the office of president.

"Rather than voting for the man, I would vote for the Demo-cratic party. The president can be no better than the organiza-tion behind him." This was the opinion of David Grigg, explaining his support for Stevenson.

Toby Ragsdale likes Ike because, "He tries to do the best for the welfare of our country,

Students at AHS were typical Susan Cashwell expressed the know, Stevenson might kick-off

Agnes Lawhon, Charles Delk, Marcia Moses, Jeanette Chance, and Joe Madren said that Ike's military career gave him a chance to be a great leader, which is just what the U.S. needs.

When asked who would win the election, Jeanette Hinson re-plied, "I think Stevenson will win because the people want the Democrats back in office."

Tommy Murrell's favorite candidate was President Eisenhow-er, but he thought Stevenson would win because of the farm issue and President Eisenhower's and there will be four more years of prosperity if he is re-elected."

Jan Caudle's answer was, "The decision will be left up to the voters.

Lulabelle Smith and Ronnie Haire said that their votes would elected President of the United the issue on November 6, when Dwight D. Eisenhower was re- "My seco

BY THEIR WORDS

"The book I read was Kidnapped by Robert Louis Stevenson."
—Larry Smith. "Here yesterday, sick today, and dead tomorrow."—Mr. Hatley.

"Today's teenagers are suffering from all kind of diseases.

Boys have high blond pressure.
Girls are suffering from hefever."—Rev. Brooks.
"I've never played a typewriter."—Glenn Talbert.
"This book is 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' by Harriet Boscher Snow."

in' by Harriet Beecher Snow." -

Gene Langley. "Is Burnie still absent?"—AHS teachers.

"How should I know about girls? I've never dated."—Win-

"My second period economics class sounds like a bunch of saviges on the warpath." - Coach

"He's a dreamboat without the "Ain't she a gentleman?"-Bar-