WHO'S WHO

JEANNETTE HINSON

Spectators at the Homecoming game were privileged to see Jeanette Hinson crowned Homecoming Queen. This lovely brunette can certainly be rated as one of the most outstanding in the senior class.

From the first, Jeanette has shown her ability to lead. In the tenth grade she was elected vice-president of the Junior Red Cross and treasurer of her class. She was also seen on the football field as one of the letter girls.

The Junior-Senior Prom and Junior play were more of a success with her helping on one of the committees of each project. She was also secretary of the Junior Tri-Hi-Y.

Jeanette is Feature Editor of the Full Moon this year and is on the literary staff of the Crossroads. This year also marks her third on the basketball team, where she has made a very good showing. She is also serving as president of the Booster's Club and treasurer of the Black Masque.

This versatile girl is active in

State competition in science is nothing new to our Who's Who for this month, Robert L. Smith. Robert has been an Academy of Science winner for the past three years. He received honorable mention during his freshman and sophomore years and third prize last year. Robert has also belonged to the Fisher Body Craftman's Guild for three years.

Last year Robert L. served as treasurer of the junior class. He was also tapped into the National Honor Society, and he now serves as president of this organization. Last summer Robert L. was a delegate to Boys' State, where he held the position of county commissioner.

This year Robert L. is business manager of the Crossroads, and he serves on the news staff of the Full Moon. Robert L. works on the assembly committee for senior her church, where she sings in the choir and is president of her Sunday School class.

When Jeanette isn't busy with school or church work, she may be found at a movie starring either William Holden or Jane Wyman, or eating steak and French fries.

She is still undecided about which college to attend, but hopes to become a nurse. Wherever the school may be, it is certainly a lucky one to have a girl like Jeanette.

Class Rings Mean Santa To Juniors

Class rings for the members of the Junior class has been ordered and were supposed to arrive sometime before the holidays.

The ring is still the traditional A.H.S. design, and the members of the class voted to have a red inset.

This is one of the special events of the year, as all Juniors look forward to the day the rings arrive.

The Junior class has done very well with their money-raising projects this year. To date they have made $320 on the sale of pencils and potato chips. Totals of the profit made on the Junior play are not available at this time, but they should be in the neighborhood of $200. This will give the class a total of roughly $500.

This will be more than an adequate sum to put on the Junior-Senior Prom and they should have at least $100 to carry up with them.

class programs. AHS is very proud that Robert L. has been nominated as a candidate from Stanly County for a Morehead Scholarship.

Robert L.'s hobbies are painting and making models. This accounts for his being chosen as the most original boy in the senior class. He also enjoys hunting and fishing.

Country-style steak with French fries, strawberry shortcake, and a gallon of tea makes a perfect meal for Robert L. His day would be complete if he could see a movie starring his favorite stars, June Allyson and Gregory Peck.

Robert L. served as the first president of the Junior Optimist Club. He is now chairman of the board of directors for this club.

He participates in the church activities at the First Baptist Church, where he is a member.

Future plans for Robert L. are for a pre-med course at Carolina. Seniors are confident that Robert's future will be outstanding, because they have chosen him as the boy in the class most likely to succeed.
