

Annual Heads Announce Crossroads Staff Members

The annual staff for 1957-58 has been announced by Pat Starnes, editor; Kay Swindell, business manager; and Mrs. Carter, faculty advisor.

Cary McSwain and Ronnie Milligan have been selected as assistant editor and assistant business manager respectively.

There are twelve members on the business staff: Martha Setzler, James Norton, Carolyn Nichols, Reggie Crowell, Nancy Swaringen, James Johnson, Yvonne Davis, Roy Wilhoit, Carol Milton, Richard Peck, Gail Morris, and Wade McSwain.

Working as literary editor is Sue Winn. The staff consists of Martha Huckabee, Libbie Hatley, Peggie Lisk, Pat Smith, Tommy Murrell, Peggy Smith, Joyce Burris, Molly Holbrook, Evelyn Underwood, Rita Morris, and Graham Harwood.

Becky Coble will be photography editor and Stanley Lawhon, Larry Mullis, Elaine Davidson, Sandra Bureson, Dwight Morgan, Gale Whitfield, and Kitty Almond will be helping her.

The new art editor is Sammie Holshouser. His staff is Diane Watkins, Betty Holt, Kathryn Morton, Barbara Hathcock, Judy Efid, Marney Lowder, Garnald Efid, and Kay Crowell.

A newcomer, Barbara Hoey, has been chosen to head the typing staff. This staff will consist of Janice Rogers, Kaye Almond, Judy Stoker, Glenda Keever, and Yvonne Chandler.

Old NHS Members Guests At Party

The new members of the National Honor Society feted the old members at a party held May 6 at Mr. W. H. Morrow's cabin at River Haven.

The party was well attended by the National Honor Society members and their dates. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cashwell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westerlund were chaperones for the party. The group was served hamburgers, cold drinks, potato chips, and home made cookies. The rest of the evening was spent dancing and talking informally.

Attending the party were Jo Ellen Brooks, Vicki Cranford, Linda Moose, Peggy Smith and Robert L. Smith, Jeanette Hinson and David Grigg, Peggie Sue Lisk and Johnny Renger, Becky Coble and Gene Langley, Carolyn Nichols and Wayne Eudy, Patsy Harris and Cary McSwain, Myrna Mills and Robert "Q" Smith, Anne Rogers and Gerry Currier, Rona Jane Mauldin and Glenn Talbert, Sue Winn and Jerry Reid, Pat Starnes and Lane Lowder, Libby Hatley and Mickey Dry, Janis Westerlund and Punk Gantt, and Lulabelle Smith and Eddie Fenters.

Students Assist In Office Work

Girls taking business courses were able to get some first-hand practice when they had the opportunity to help in the school office during the past several weeks.

Jewel Bunting, Sue Burris, Hilda Campbell, Sylvia Davis, Phyllis Harwood, Loretta Holt, Sylvia Jane Mauldin, Libby McLeod, Ann Presson, Jackie Richardson, Joyce Smith, and Peggy Troutman received ready practice in their business course, while two other students, Myrna Mills and Zelia Leonard, who are not business students, assisted during certain periods.

Sylvia Jane Mauldin was responsible for counting and checking cafeteria money every day and making receipts for it. Sylvia Davis worked every day during fourth period and did any typing that was necessary for Mr. Cashwell as well as filing papers and calling students to the office.

Hilda Campbell worked with some other girls during first period, when they had to make up the absentee list and telephone some of the homes.

Mrs. Westerlund served as faculty advisor and worked with these girls to keep the office in working order.

Members Compile Bible Club History

The entire history of the Bible Club has been compiled by Libby Hatley, Martha Smith, and Ann Stone in a six-page booklet.

Included in this booklet are a copy of the Bible Club's Constitution, the names of those students who served as president of the club, a yearly financial report from 1953-1957, and a summary of each year's activities.

Several highlights of 1956-1957 have been the fall state Bible Club Retreat at which Pat Starnes was elected State Vice-President; the district rally in Kannapolis; the Bible Club Thanksgiving program presented to the student body; the Initiation Party on January 13; and the spring Retreat.

The Bible Club History is made complete by an expression of gratitude to Miss Jean Abrahamson for her guidance and support throughout her five years of teaching at A. H. S. She will not be here next year.

Bunting Accepted At Dental School

Jewel Bunting is one of twenty girls from the entire state who has been accepted at the University of North Carolina Dental School in Chapel Hill for twelve weeks' training this summer.

This program is under the auspices of the U. S. Department of Public Health.

She was given the college entrance test and was also interviewed by a panel of doctors and women of the school.

She will leave June 6, and will live in the Nurses Dormitory while in training.

Jewel will be an employee of the U. S. Department of Public Health, and if her work is satisfactory she will be allowed to continue her training for another year. She will receive a salary, tuition and her books while in training.
