

AHS Science Fair Was Big Success

Large crowds of interested spectators attended the 17th annual Science Fair, titled Science & Progress, held recently in the gymnasium. The fair was constituted by projects constructed and exhibited by science students.

A representative crowd of adults from the city and county attended the opening session of the fair on Sunday. All eighth grade classes, including Kingville, in the city attended the fair on Thursday.

Outstanding physics projects and their exhibitors were Slide Projection, Mickey Dry; Radiation, Convection & Conduction, George McManus; Cloud Chamber, John White Iddings; and Permanent & Electro-Magnets, David Grigg.

Excellent chemistry projects and their exhibitors were Matches, Janis Westerlund; Detergent & Soaps, Martha Ann Setzler; Cosmetics, Linda Moose; and Stains, Evelyn Underwood.

The biology display was highlighted by Nicotene Experiments, Sherrill Lowder; Blood Demonstration, Ed Floyd; Rocks and Minerals, Lane Brown; Genetics, Brenda Huneycutt; and Unusual Biological Facts, Millie Hatley.

General science provided the following excellent projects: water

Hatley To Serve As Club President

Libby Hatley has been elected as the Bible Club president for next year's first semester. Other officers chosen were Nancy Swarngen, vice president; Martha Ann Smith, secretary; E. J. Whitley, treasurer; Gene Starnes, historian; Lindsay Harwood, general representative; and Becky Coble, newspaper editor.

These officers were installed at the last Bible Club meeting held on May 20. At this meeting Mrs. Jim Ivey, who will replace Miss Abrahamsen as Bible teacher and Bible Club sponsor, was introduced to the club.

Senior members of the club were presented gifts at this meeting as were Miss Michael, Kitty Almond, Brenda Huneycutt, Ivan Sibley, Lindsay Harwood, and Harry Whitley.

Hearne, Langley, Winn Are Chosen

Majorettes and Letter Girls for the 1957-58 school year were chosen on May 2 by the Majorette and Letter Girls squad. Mary Jo Winn will be the new Majorette. Nancy Langley and Lydia Hearne will be Letter Girls.

From this year's Majorette squad a chief will be chosen by Mr. Hauss at a later date. Graduating chief is Linda Moose.

Martha Huckabee will be the Letter Girl from the 1956-57 season, since Jeanette Hinson and Elizabeth Tucker are to graduate.

wheel Rotisserie, Mike Ross; Atomic Structure, Paul Welch; Transistor Radio, Homer Blalock; and Fire Warning System, Don Martin.

Many hours of consistent study and work were exemplified by the exhibits. "This year's fair was one of the biggest and best ever held", stated Mr. Hatley.

Seniors Head For College

lis Efird, Ronald Cole, Roger Morris, Clyde Hill, Jimmy Deese, Libby McLeod, Clara Bost, Darrell Earnhardt, Gene Simmons, Diane Tucker, Sylvia Davis, Bobby Kimrey, Sylvia Annette Mauldin, David Beaver, John Solomon, Jerry Morris, and Bobby Morton.

Those who will be hearing wedding bells ringing for them soon are Sylvia Russell, Toby Ragsdale, Carol James, Frances Little, Carolyn Glover, and Sue Hatley. Carolyn Efird Mabry, Barbara Dennis Furr, and Joe Morton have already taken their vows and will spend their coming years housekeeping and working.

Despite the fact that the seniors will be spread far and wide next year, happy memories of their high school days will remain with them forever.

Play Presented By Black Masque

"The Barrier," a one-act play, was presented by the Black Masque Club to the student body in assembly on May 10.

The play was the story of a doctor and his wife whose lives were endangered by a man seeking revenge on the doctor whom he held responsible for the death of his wife.

Cary McSwain played the part of the doctor, while Gail Morris played the part of the doctor's wife. Ronnie Millican was the unbalanced man seeking revenge, and Winfred Ford and Wade McSwain acted as members of the police force.

Miss Bankett, advisor of the Black Masque, directed the play.

Pat Starnes and Kitty Almond were prompters. Backstage helpers were Jimmy Duke, Larry Freeman and Winfred Ford.

"YOU SHOULD HAVE given me some warning about this dedication," said Mr. Cashwell.

"Well," said Larry Freeman, "you don't give us any warning when you're coming in the bathroom!"
