Why Be A Litterbug? Help Keep AHS Clean! THE FULL MOON

Vol. 23 — 3

Albemarle High School, Albemarle, N. C.

November, 1957

Permanent Staff Appointed

Full Moon Class Is Organized For Publishing Paper

Members of the "Full Moon" English class have been organ-ized into a permanent staff to Ized into a permanent stan to edit the paper this year. Kitty Almond, editor, and Wade McSwain, business manager, were elected last year. Joyce Burris is managing editor; Lynda Jordan, news editor; Judy Efird, feature editor; Larry Mullis, sports editor; and Kenneth Held-erman, assistant business man-ager. ager.

News writers are Ronnie Milli-can, Peggy Smith, Libbie Hatley, Sue Winn, Becky Coble, Kay Swindell, Rita Morris, and Pat

HERE AND THERE

MRS. FRY WAS helping Jimmy

Working Seniors Lead Honor Roll

The twelfth graders justified The twelfth graders justified their stature as mighty seniors by leading the six weeks honor roll. Their class had 29 mem-bers maintaining an A average in at least three academic subjects. Twelfth Grade Libbie Hatley, Martha Huck-abee, Rita Morris, Barbara Smith, Peggy Smith, Gail Buck, Barbara Hoey, Linda Jordan, Glenda Kee-ver, Wade McSwain, Evelyn Un-derwood, Diane Watkins, Kaye Almond, Yvonne Chandler, Nancy Swaringen, Nancy Eagle, Linda Hudson, Betsy Kluttz, Cecelia Lambert, Sylvia McDuffie, Mar-lene Price, Janice Rogers, Norris Jeffrey, Cary McSwain, Joyce Burris, Becky Coble, Judy Efird, Peggie Lisk, Carolyn Nicholds. Eleventh Grade

Sur vinit, beery cone, hay Starnes. Feature writers are Barbara Smith, Diane Watkins, Henry Efird, Alex Furr, Molly Holbrook, Pat Smith, and Betty Holt. Eddie Burleson and Charles Delk are the sports writers. Edditorial writer is Ronnie Milli can, photographer is Gene Starnes, and circulation manager is Norris Jeffrey. Mrs. Paul B. Fry is faculty advisor. The department editors and their staffs stay very busy in or-der to publish a paper each month. The news writers are as-signed to certain "beats" for the school news that is to be printed. All of the features are the re-sult of much work and original-ity on the part of the feature writers. Football games and other ath-letic events are covered by the sports staff. Copies of the paper are mailed to college students and other high schools by the circulation manager. Pictures for "Who's Who" are taken by the photographer. Edi-torials for each issue of the pap-er are the responsibility of the editorial writers. ILEDE AND TITEDE Hudson, Betsy Kluttz, Cecelia Lambert, Sylvia McDuffie, Mar-lene Price, Janice Rogers, Norris Jeffrey, Cary McSwain, Joyce Burris, Becky Coble, Judy Efird, Peggie Lisk, Carolyn Nicholds. Eleventh Grade Lane Brown, Billie Jo Barrier, Brenda Honeycutt, Nancy Trimber, Jane Chandler, Tom Fatkin, Linda Efird, Millie Hatley, Georgette Lampsi, Sue Tucker. Tenth Grade E. J. Whitley, Eddie Bowers, Homer Blalock, Charles Brown, Mike Ross, Lary Shelton, Mary Jo Winn, Suzanne Finch, Jerry Jo Winn, Suzanne Finch, Jerry Jo Winn, Suzanne Finch, Jerry Jo Winn, Suzanne Finch, Jimmy Stonestreet, Neil Efird, Jammy Stonestreet, Neil Efird, Jimmy Stonestreet, Neil Efird, AHS CHEERLEADERS have been instrumental in cheering the Bulldogs on to victory this season. They are, front row, Pam Truett, Betty Holt, Gail Vanderburg; back row, Susie Napier, Bon-nie Lowder, Janice Harris, Diane Watkins, Kat Morton, Sara Henderson, chief.

Princess Crowned Top Students Try During Assembly

Sue Winn, recently elected to represent Albemarle in the Carolinas' Carrousel, was crowned princess during the junior-senior assembly October 15. Captain Stan Shrader, a representative of Ann Furr, Nancy Smith, Jackie Panklin, Judy Harris. Debaters' Plans Are Progressing Plans are progressing for the spring high school debates, with the Debating Club meeting every Tuesday afternoon in room 48. The general topic for debate ter of ceremonies was Cary Mc Swain. The famous panel con-sisted of Larry "Toe" Mullis, Jo "Majorette" Parks, Chip "Foot-ball" Cain, and Carolyn "Wig-gles" Nicholds. This test is a high-level schol-astic aptitude test designed to figh verbal and quantitative sumped the panel. Disguised as "Mr. Hollywood" was Ronnie Millican, president of the Black Masque Club. There to repre-sent the famous Duke Blue Devils was Coach Knotts, dressed as a devil. Martha Huckabee, president of the F. T. A. Club, was "Miss Pencil-Pusher". She Duke pronounce a word. She asked "Does it have a long or Short 'a', Jimmy?" "They look the same size to me", replied Jimmy quite inno-cently. * * * JEFF: "DO YOU know the two kinds of cold germs?" Jeff: "Boy cold germs and girl cold germs." * * * ROGER SMITH, BRAGGING to Chip Cain, said, "I can look into a girl's eyes and tell what she thinks of me." Duke pronounce a word. She the Debating Club meeting every Tuesday afternoon in room 48. The general topic for debate this year is "The Nature of the Debating Club meeting every Tuesday afternoon in room 48. The general topic for debate this year is "The Nature of the Debating Club are as to the spe-cific question for study. Those students who have in-dicated interest in oratorical ac-trown, Brenda Thompson, Mir-iam Wilhoit, Martha Burleson, iam Nancy Coggins. Mrs. Little, one interested to join. Sping Tigh School debates, with The general topic for debate this year is "The Nature of the Senter of the Black Masque Club. There to repre-sent the famous Duke Blue Devils was Coach Knotts, dressed as a devil. Martha Huckabee, as a devil. Martha Huckabee, as an old maid school teacher. With the panel blind-tolded, Wade McSwain, president of the senior class, was brought from the audience as a famous guest. Kitty Almond and Kenall boys who are interested in the National Reserve Officers Train-ing Course Scholarships must file an application by November 16 of this year. MOST INFLUENTIAL: Pat Starnes and Tommy Murrell; MOST DEPENDABLE: Kitty Almond and Cary McSwain; MOST POPULAR: Peggy Smith and Graham Harwood; MOST ORIGINAL: Pat Smith and Samall boys who are interested in the mie Holshouser. BEST LOOKING: Judy Efird neth Helderman represented Kathguest. Kitty Almond and Ken- rine and Arthur Murray. a girl's eyes and tell what she thinks of me." "Isn't that embarrassing?" and Al Fusonie; CUTEST: Betty Local Hangouts Hung Up And Forgotten "There's nothing to do in Al-Isponsor dances after the homeithe summer Chip wanted to know. * * * "There's nothing to do in Al-bemarle." This is the cry of restless teenagers who never instruction to restless teenagers who never instruction terms and denote the terms of terms of the terms of the terms of BARBARA: "BRENDA, DO you the summer. Golfing must be a lot of fun or Mr. Cashwell, Neil Efird, and Glenda Honey wouldn't spend their time at the country club in Badin Kay Swindell Carol Mil: know what yam is?" Brenda: "I think it's a sweet lot of fun if everybody would just come and dance. Many of the churches in Albe-marle have planned recreation programs. The First Baptist Church has a social hour after Church has a social hour after take the time to review the varpotato." Barbara: "Nope, it's what a Swede puts on his toast." ious recreation programs in Albemarle. Chip Cain, Jeff Hartsell, Ronnie * * * THE OTHER DAY Eddie Crutchfield approached Chip Cain and said, "Hey Chip, let's cut French L today." Smith, Gary Pinion, Cary Mc-Swain, Charles Delk, and Charles Swain, Charles Derk, and Charles and the home games and on Sun-Richardson enjoy going to Har-manco's, What-A-Burger, Star-light, or other eating places every night to have a snack and every night to have a snack and the home games and on Sun-day afternoons. This is an ex-cellent way to meet with friends and have a good time. The local YMCA has eight dif-Putt Putt. By Their Words Some energetic teenagers think skating is fun. Gail Whitfield, Ronnell Holt, Karen Davis, and Billy Hartsell make good use of the skating rink on the Badin Road French I today." French I today." Chip said, "I can't today, Crutch. I need the sleep." * * * every night to have a snack and to catch up on the latest. On weekends they take their dates by for something to eat. The two drive-ins and the two theatres attract large crowds of teenagers. Jane Chandler, Frank-ie Hatley, Wade McSwain, Gene Starnes, and Martha Setzler like to go there on dates. Everybody goes to the football "WHAT KIND OF soap do you use, Barbara?" asked Coach Road. "You can do that while we pass up the chairs."—Mr. Fry. Webb one day in economics. "I use hard water soap that I bought in Pennsylvania," replied There's usually a private party to go to or a dance to attend if "He has more dates than most single people."—Reggie Crowell. none of these appeal to you. Students really do have some Barbara. "You mean to tell me as long things to do in Albemarle and must be taking advantage of them because grades say that "I'm giving a test tomorrow. It won't be hard if you know the answers."—Mr. Webb. as you have been living here you haven't used up the soap yet?" questioned Webb. "When we buy soap, we buy to go there on dates. Everybody goes to the football games on Friday nights. Some school organizations usually good use of the courts during time studying. "I'd even go South for Northern bread." Coach Webb. soap," Barbara answered.

The Scholarship Qualifying Test for the preliminary selection of candidates seeking to qualify for the National Merit Scholarship Program and other sponsor-

For Scholarships

College Day Plans Are Announced By Honor Society

College Day plans have been announced by members of the National Honor Society, who are in charge of the annual event. Each year representatives from Each year representatives from different colleges and different branches of the armed forces come to Albemarle and talk to high school juniors and seniors from all over the county. The representatives answer any ques-tions students have concerning college rates, scholarships and college entrance requirements. This year around forty five dif.

This year around forty-five different representatives will be at ferent representatives will be at the Albemarle Armory, October 30, to answer any questions stu-dents from throughout the coun-ty will have to ask. An assembly was held by the National Honor Society for jun-iors and seniors, October 22, to prepare them for College Day. Several talks were made on the importance of one's furthering his education. his education.

The following committees were chosen to work on plans for College Day: pennant, table cards, lege Day: pennant, table cards, and flowers. The members of the Honor Society who are to get college pennants are Rita Morris, Pat Starnes, and Wade McSwain. Kitty Almond, Gail Buck, Tommy Murrell, and Cary McSwain are in charge of cards for the tables where the different for the tables where the different representatives will be seated. Flower arrangements are to be

Superlatives Are Chosen By Seniors

Superlatives for the senior class have been elected by se-cret ballots. Each member of the class was given a list of the superlatives to be chosen; then