THE FULL MOON

Vol. 23 - No. 5

Albemarle High School, Albemarle, N. C.

February, 1958

Whitley Named On Three All-American Schoolboy Selections

Three-Act Comedy To Be Presented By Senior Class

The Senior Class will present a three-act comedy, "You Can't Take It With You," on March 7.

Pat Starnes, Ronnie Millican, Janice Rogers, Kay Swindell, and Cary McSwain served as the play committee. Mrs. Carolyn McLain, director, is conducting the play practices in the afternoons At first in this delightful com-At first in this delightful com-edy the Sycamore family seem mad, but it is not long before we realize that if they are mad, the rest of the world is madder. Certain members of the house-hold are engaged in the manu-facture of fireworks, while Grand-pa has refused to pay his income tax for twenty-four years.

"IS THIS A six weeks test, Coach Gantt?" Shirley Parker wanted to know while mimeographing some tests for him.
"No," he quipped, "just an hour

"No," he quipped, "just an hour one."

* * *

KAY SWINDELL, BEING very disgusted with the thoughts of exams, finally came up with the idea: "I'll get married and get out of this mess."

"Huh, you'd only be in a bigger mess then," Martha Huckabee replied.

"The following seniors are in the following senior

IN ECONOMICS CLASS the top-ic of discussion was the preced-ing night's basketball game and Coach Webb asked Joyce Burris, why Mooresville won. "Well, for one reason they were in better condition" replied

better condition," replied

Joyce.
"It's a good thing you said condition rather than shape," remarked Charles Delk.

"SHE MUST HAVE tired blood," Someone commented upon seeing Kitty leaning against the wall.

"No," Libbie quipped, "it's lazy bones."

Nineteen girls of the business department were awarded cer-tificates of junior membership in the OGA by Gregg Publishing Company in the month of Jan-

WHILE MR. FLEMING was talking to the annual staff he mentioned ice hockey games at the Coliseum.

"We'd like for the Albemarle High School band to play January 28th," said Mr. Fleming.
"Of what month?" Cary Mc-Swain asked.

"TOMMY, you have naturally curly hair," Judy said very dis-gustedly because hers wouldn't

"No, I haven't," Tommy exclaimed, "you can tell by the spring it's a Prom."

DURING AN ANNUAL staff meeting Mrs. Carter asked Kay how the finances were.
Kay informed her that they

Graduation Plans Made By Seniors

The 123 seniors who make up the senior class have already started making plans for commencement

Blue robes have been ordered for the boys and white for the girls. Also the order for announcements and diplomas has

At a recent class meeting the following seniors were elected to write papers for the Senion Banquet: Prophecy, Kay Swindell and Pat Smith; History, Libby Hatley and Pat Starnes; Last Will and Testament, Jeff Hartsell and Ronnie Millican; Giftorian, Kitty Almond and Alex Furr; Superlatives, Molly Holbrook and Larry Mullis.

Roger Whitley . . . All-American

Miss Co-Ed To Be Crowned At Queen-For-Night Dance ham Harwood, and Pat Starnes. The following seniors are in charge of the properties: Barbara Smith, Henry Efird, Rita Morris, Emma Lynn Morton, Peggie Sue Lisk, Becky Coble, Kitty Almond, Glenda Keever, Marcia Moses, Elaine Davidson, Wayne McSwain, Peggy Smith, Bartha Barbee, Joyce Burris, Brenda Casper, Gail Buck, and Barbara Hoey.

Math Quiz

(This month's math quiz was contributed by Sara Kay Talbert.)

A mechanic had eight steel bearings. Seven of the eight bearings were equal in size, but the eighth one was slightly heavier. How can the mechanic determine which steel bearing is the heaviest with only two weighings on a set of balance scales?

The first person handing in the the UGA by Gogs and State of the Gogs and the UGA by Gogs and State of the Gogs and State of the Gogs and State of the Gogs and the Gogs and State of the vote contest.

A girl elected in each homeroom is now competing for the title. The four girls who are highest in their respective classes next Wednesday will continue to total of 22 touchdowns for an average of amount of yardage he scored a next Wednesday will continue to total of 22 touchdowns for an average of almost 2 a game. tition against each other. The winner will be announced at the dance.

During his four years at AHS Roger has played three years at tackle and his senior year at correct answer to Mr. Braswell will be announced as the winner. The answer to the above quiz will be printed in the next issue of the "Full Moon".

Singers Present
Musical Program

dance.

The Student Council is sponsoring this project to raise funds for the student handbooks is sued to all students last fall. Various Council committee chairmen chosen for this work are publicity, O. J. Sikes; tickets, Mary Jo Winn; decorations, Jo Parks; and refreshments, Martha Huckabee.

Solviete Announced as the winner.

As a free varsity place to raise funds for the student handbooks is sued to all students last fall. Various Council committee chairmen chosen for this work are publicity, O. J. Sikes; tickets, Mary Jo Winn; decorations, Jo Parks; and refreshments, Martha Huckabee.

Former Lineman Now Top Fullback

Roger Whitley, Albemarle High's pile driving fullback, re-ceived his third nomination to an All-American High School team last week when he was named fullback on the World Week Magazine All-American Team.

To be named on an All-American Schoolboy Team is considered one of the top honors that a high school player can receive, but "Big Rog" was also named on two other All-American teams, first teams full-hall an the Allfirst team fullback on the All-American team put out by Scholastic Magazine and honorable mention on the team put out by the Sporting News.

Leading up to his All-American Leading up to his All-American status, Roger was named this fall, All-South-Piedmont-Conference first string fullback. Then to the next plateau and Roger was named on three All-State teams, those being the Charlotte Observer, the Charlotte News, and the Greensboro Daily News. Also Whitley was named to an All-Southern team. And finally he was named to the North Carolina squad in the annual Shrine Miss Co-ed will reign at the Queen-for-a-Night Dance to be held in the cafeteria February 28.

The dance will be the climax of a three weeks' campaign to elect Miss Co-ed in a penny-a AHS he gained the phenomenal total of over 2 200 yards during

During Roger's senior year at AHS he gained the phenomenal total of over 2,200 yards during the season for an average of

As a freshman Roger made the varsity playing at a tackle posi-tion. He broke into the first string when the doors and windows are open in a bank."—Molly Hol-

"Now here are some questions on your final exams that I'm going to give you at Mid-term. Mrs. Hayes.

"Mr. Braswell, will we need pencils for this exam?"—James Renger.

"I've got a section in my noteclasses book called 'Junk' where I keep my French."—Wade McSwain.

"Both times I went to a country church it was my uncle's fune ral."-Brenda Frick.

"I'm taking some needy clothes to a family."—Carolyn Nicholds. "This problem is very easy if you know how to work it."—Miss

Caughman. "I'm studying about rattle-heads and coppersnakes."—Peg-

Different Projects Tackled By Shop

Ever notice how hard the boys in the industrial arts class work? No matter when you visit the shop, you will find the whole class working hard on their pro-

Certificates Won

By Nineteen Girls

A recent issue of the Full Moon gave credit to Mr. Morris, teacher of the month, for build-ing the star used at the Homeing the star used at the Home-coming game. Being very mod-est, he wishes it understood that praise should be given to the many boys who so willingly as-sume responsibility for building such projects.

As in the case of the star, Mr.
Morris stated, "It is a source of satisfaction to assign a project to a competent student and see him
bring it to a satisfactory com-"Haven't we sold enough ads?"

asked Mrs. Carter.

"Oh, yes," replied Kay, "we've sold more than ever before—we just can't collect for them."

a competent student and see him bring it to a satisfactory completion." Two advanced boys, T. A. Griffin and Terry Ragsdale, drew the plan for the star and laid it out for building.

All beginning industrial arts all the other second year stu-students work on projects of their dents do this production work. chests, and bookcases. In the latter part of the year many boys complete the projects that interest them and then turn to some type of production projects on which a group of boys may work. Picnic tables have been the big item for the last few years. More than a hundred such tables have been built during the last three years. The sale of tables has brought in a little money for the duction of veneer and other products of the lumber business.

much-needed shop funds.
In the advanced class there are dividual. Such projects as chart stands for the elementary schools, speaker stands for churches, and an audio visual cabinet have been made. Garrett Honbarrier, Richard Morris, Don Russell, and stands for the elementary schools, shower rooms behind the lounge. This year Mr. Morris, with the help of Jerry Morgan, installed a new wash basin and piped hot water down into the shop.

"I'm studying about rattle-heads and coppersnakes."—Peggy Jordan.

"She stays busier than a one-armed paper-hanger." — Coach Webb.

own, such as end tables, cedar Tim Drye and Boyce Hartsell help with the beginning students' instruction. Jerry Harrington and Reggie Chance are working on their own projects, desks. Mr. their own projects, desks. Mr. Morris reports that they are all doing very good work.

ducts of the lumber business.

In the advanced class there are quite a few boys who will work last year to the shop when the on school projects or projects for old storage room was transformed some outside organization or inold storage room was transformed