Travelers Invade Yankee Territory

Several A.H.S. students have been taking interesting trips during the last month.

Gene Starnes, Lindsay Harwood, Sara Henderson, Nancy Jo Ivester, Martha Huckabee, Virginia Huckabee, and Sue Winn went on a World Peace Seminar as representatives from the Central Methodist Church, of which they are all members. Methodist young people from all over Western North Carolina took the trip.

The group went to Washington, to New York, and on the trip home they stopped in Philadelphia.

Pat Starnes left from Charlotte airport on April 11 for Washington, where she represented the local chapter of the D.A.R. as a page at the national convention.

Chorus Members Attend Festival

Eight chorus students participated in a concert last Friday night, climaxing the State Choral Festival in Greensboro.

Students who rehearsed Thursday and Friday for the program were Gay Crowell, Becky Coble, Judy Redfern, Shelby Thomas, George Harwood, Richard Kimrey, Sammy Holshouser, and Charles Brown.

Two choruses of five hundred voices each combined for the televised concert, which took place in Aycock Auditorium on the Woman's College campus. Directors for these choruses were Mr. Robert Fountain, conductor of the Oberlin College Conservatory Choir, Oberlin, Ohio, and Dr. George Howerton, dean of the School of Music at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Mr. Paul Fry was in charge of organizing the festival.
