

69 Girls, 51 Boys Receive Long-Awaited Diplomas June 2

Contract Signed, Staffs Chosen For '59 Crossroads

Frank Fleming met with the new editor and business manager of the Crossroads on Friday, to sign a contract for next year.

Sue Tucker, editor; Jimmy Klutz, business manager; and Mrs. Carter, faculty advisor, have announced the annual staff for 1958-59.

Nancy Jo Ivester has been selected as assistant editor and Sherrill Williams, assistant business manager.

There are 20 members on the business staff. They are Janice Harris, Tom Fatkins, Gaylene Clark, Nancy Coggins, Ruby Morton, Jane Chandler, Richard Kimrey, Nelson Kirk, Joyce Pickler, Lewis Lowder, Gail Vanderburg, Linda Barnes, Lane Brown, James Renger, Jerry Kimrey, Eddie Crutchfield, Brenda Honeycutt, George Harwood, Sara Henderson and Linda Doby.

Janice Morris is the new literary editor. The staff consists of Josh Morton, Roger Smith, Rebecca Thompson, Don Montgomery, Hunter Hearne, Loretta Nowling, Ann Smith, Woody Durham, Linda Curlee, Shelby Thomas, Glenda Sue Honey, and Sandy Lefler.

Heading the photography staff as editor is O. J. Sikes. Paul Carpenter, Pat Saunders, Genoal Talbert, Myra Carpenter, Doug Eury, Pat Little, Jo Parks, Martha Smith, Millie Hatley, Lana Byrd, Priscilla Burris, and Judy Klutz make up the staff.

Art editor is Georgette Lampsi. This staff consists of Cynthia Efrid, Billie Rae Atkins, Jane Cotton, Wayne Spivey, Max Morgan, Oaksie Eudy, Sylvia Tucker, Linda Efrid, Brenda Tucker, Billie Jo Barrier, Lois Shaver, Barbara Hinson, Nancy Boger, Bettie McManus, Jimmy Miller and Judy Redfern.

Jane Story is the typing editor with a staff composed of Ellen Rogers, Paula Hathcock, Judy Fesperman, Joyce Lowder, Aldena Harrington, Kay Pennington and Suzanne Mauldin.

Marshals Chosen For Graduation

Marshals who will serve at the commencement exercises have been chosen from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes.

The marshals were chosen by their respective classes from the list of students in the semester honor roll.

Martha Ann Smith will serve as chief. Others from the junior class are Jo Parks, Sue Tucker, Linda Efrid, and Ann Smith. Marshals from the sophomore class are Mary Jo Winn, Neil Efrid, Jimmy Stonestreet, Bonnie Lowder. Freshman marshals are Suzanne Swindell, Margaret Ann Furr, and Nancy Smith.

Summer School To Begin June 5

Summer school will be held this year June 5 through June 27. All required subjects will be taught by Mrs. Frank Westerlund and Mrs. Jim McLain.

School will run six days a week from 7 a. m. until 1 p. m. Three hours will be spent per subject each day.

In order to enroll, the student must have a recommendation from the teacher whose subject he failed. The cost will be $10 for each subject.

Band Presented In Annual Concert

The AHS band, under the direction of Mr. Tommy Hauss, held its spring concert last Friday in the high school auditorium.

The selections played by the members fell into four categories. Classical numbers were "The Crusaders Overture", "American Folk Rhapsody", and "Panis Angelicus".

Semi-Classical numbers were "Four Episodes for Band", "Night Beat", and "Vincent Youman's Fantasy".

Marches were "March of Youth", "La Hora Pan Americana", and "Air and March".

Popular numbers were "I Could Have Danced All Night", "Ma! He's Making Eyes at Me", "Blue Tail Fly", and "The Glow Worm".

Girls were appared in evening dresses and boys wore regular suits.

Marshals for the concert were Martha Huckabee, Jo Parks, and Katherine Montgomery.

Old Full Moons Will Be On Sale

Would you like to have an "antique" Full Moon? Is there just one issue that you need to make your files complete?

Then you will be interested in the sale sponsored by the Full Moon class of 1958.

Copies of Full Moons dating back to 1937 will be sold in the lobby of the Albemarle High School June 3, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

You can purchase separate issues or a file for a whole school year.

Prices are as follows: 1937-1942 issues at 50 cents each 1943-1949 issues at 25 cents each 1950-1958 issues at 10 cents each

A two-year file will cost $1.50 and a four-year file, $3.00.

The new high school building does not have facilities to store the old issues, and rather than discard them, the class decided to give former AHS students an opportunity to buy them.

Seniors Will Be Exploring New Worlds

The 1958 graduates of AHS will be doing various things next year. Some plan to attend college, some will go to business school, some will work or go in service, and some are undecided.

The different branches of the University have attracted many students. Those planning to attend Carolina are Ronnie Milligan, Carnald Efrid, Reggie Crocan, Wade McSwain, and James Norton. Those sure of their majors are Barbara Smith, Dental Hygiene; Cary McSwain, Science; Richard Peck, Pharmacy; Tommy Murrell, Pharmacy; and Norris Jeffrey, Pre-Medicine.

Roger Whitley, Billy Hartsell and Kenneth Hunneycutt plan to attend State. Roger and Kenneth are undecided as to majors, but Billy is planning to study architecture.

Woman's College will be the home of Peggy Smith, Barbara Hoey, Becky Coble, Joyce Burris, Betty Holt, Kay Swindell, and Kitty Almond.

Emma Lynn Morton, Larry Mullis, James Johnson, and Roy Wilhoit are going to Wake Forest. Roy and James plan to study, re-

PEGGY SMITH

LIBBIE HATLEY

Talented Co-Valedictorians Present Graduation Recitals

Libbie Hatley and Peggy Smith, co-valedictorians of 1958, have both presented graduation recitals proving that they have talent in more than one field.

Both girls will receive high school diplomas in music as well as a regular diploma during the graduation exercises Monday night.

Libbie and Peggy have identical high school records, both making 11.5 out of a possible 12 points.

In her recital Libbie played Beethoven's Sonata Op. 10 No. 1, Bach's Prelude and Fugue No. XII, Chopin's Waltz No. II, The Eagle by MacDowell, Sibelius'

Romance in D-flat Major, and Chopin's Polonaise in C-sharp Minor.

The Pathetique Sonata by Beethoven was one of the highlights of Peggy's program. Also included were the Warsaw Concerto, Chopin's Waltz in E Minor, Chopin's Etude Op. 10 No. 3, Paderewski's Cracovienne Fantastique, and Sabre Dance.

Co-salutatorians, Kitty Almond, Joyce Burris, Yvonne Chandler, and Becky Coble had high school records less than a full point behind the valedictorians, theirs varying less than one-tenth of a point.

Collie To Conduct Sunday Service; Phillips, Monday's

One hundred and twenty seniors, sixty-nine girls and fifty-one boys, will receive diplomas during the graduation exercises to be held on Monday evening, June 2.

Dr. Guy B. Phillips, director of the summer session at the University of North Carolina and also a member of the State Board of Education, will be the principal speaker for the commencement exercises on Monday night.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Eric D. Collie, pastor of the Christ Episcopal Church, on Sunday evening, June 1.

Music for the exercises will be given by the senior class under the direction of Mr. Paul B. Fry.

Wade McSwain is president of the class. Other officers are Graham Harwood, vice-president; Sue Winn, secretary; Richard Peck, treasurer. Miss Chicora Caughman is the sponsor of the class.

The class flower is the red rose. Mascots are Kathie Leonard and Dickie Eller.

Concert Features Choruses, Solos, Small Ensembles

Two Perry Como favorites, "Catch a Falling Star" and "Round and Round", received enthusiastic applause from a very appreciative audience several weeks ago, as Senior Mixed Chorus members presented these numbers for the first time in Albemarle at their annual Spring Concert.

Featured in the concert was the Senior Mixed Chorus, which was assisted by the Ninth Grade and Junior Mixed Choruses. All groups were directed by Mr. Paul Fry and accompanied on the piano by Peggy Smith. O. J. Sikes accompanied on the drums "Tea for Two" and "Night and Day", sung by the ninth graders.

Variety was added to the program by soloists, Lynda Jordan, Sammie Holshouser, Peggie Lisk, and Eddie Burleson; a duet by the latter two; and special groups, the Ninth Grade Girls' Ensemble, the Senior Girls' Ensemble, the Senior Boys' Quartet and the Boys' Double Quartet.

Ushers for the program were Linda Efrid, Mary Jo Winn, Neil Efrid, Susanne Swindell, Margaret Ann Furr, Sue Tucker, Jimmy Miller, and Jimmy Klutz.

After the concert a party was held for Senior Mixed Chorus members and their dates at Kenneth Helderman's home.

BY THEIR WORDS

"I've got more troubles than Carter's got liver pills."—Coach Webb.

"I'll never forget—now what in the world was his name?"—Kathryn Morton.

"If the price of eggs keeps going up, it will be cheaper to buy a chicken and raise them."—Tim Drye.

ton, Sadie Miller, and Glenn Sides.

Those still undecided are Glenda Keever, Judy Montgomery, Ellen Starnes, Mike Langford, Charles Delk, Alex Furr, Diane Morton, Jerry Harrington, Karen Granville, Eddie Doby, Gary Pinion, Martha Barbee, and Tim Drye.