

Teen Book Club Is Formed By County Public Library

The Public Library is sponsoring a Teen Book Club June 10-August 15. Weekly meetings will be held on Tuesday mornings at 10 a. m. at the Public Library.

Members of the planning committee include Myra Carpenter, chairman, Bryan Fox, Miss McDaniel, Suzanne Mauldin, and Ellen Rogers.

The plan they have set up is to elect from their group a chairman to serve three weeks in a row and also a parent-sponsor to serve three weeks. Suzanne Mauldin has been chosen as the first chairman.

Programs will be arranged including book talks and other interesting information.

Prizes are to be given for the largest total number of subjects (best all-around) and for the largest total of any kind.

Recognition will be given for the best book talk during each three weeks period.

Refreshments will be served at the meetings.

Sociology Classes Tour Industries

Touring Stanly County industries was a project of the first and second periods of Coach Webb's sociology classes.

Traveling by bus, the group spent the morning visiting the following industries: Badin Aluminum Company, where the pupils actually saw the aluminum being molded into shape; Isenhour Brick Yards; and Wiscasset Cotton Mills, where they saw the different stages cotton is process-

Nine To Attend Debate Workshop

The Debating Club has been invited to participate in the Annual High School Forensic Workshop at Wake Forest College on July 7-11.

The following students and Mrs. Little, the debating coach, will attend the summer study of public speaking and debate: Jo Parks, Georgette Lampsi, Lane Brown, Mike Fusonie, Bryan Fox, Edith Smith, Bill Burbage, Margaret Furr, and Mary Hill Hatley. Of this number, only the first three have had any debating experience.

Featured on the Workshop agenda will be classes in debating and public speaking, including the mechanics of voice control and emphatic delivery, and contests in debate and extemporaneous speaking.

The 1957-58 high school debate topic dealing with the question of increasing United States foreign aid will be studied. The Wake Forest Library will be open for research to all high school students and coaches.

Periods of planned recreation are being provided. The entire recreational facilities of Wake Forest, including the college pool, ed through in order to make thread.

After lunch in the school cafeteria the group concluded their trip with a visit to the Young Manufacturing Company in Norwood. The students saw how all the furniture one uses is made and how efficiently it is done.

Sixteen Singers Will Attend Summer Choral Workshop

Cashwell, Hatley, Fry Are Honored

Three AHS teachers, Mr. J. L. Cashwell, Mr. R. C. Hatley, and Mr. P. B. Fry, have been honored recently.

Mr. Cashwell has been appointed for a two-year term on the advisory committee to study curricular in North Carolina's schools under the supervision of the State Board of Education. He is also a member of the executive committee dealing with the study of TV courses in the schools.

Mr. Hatley has been named an outstanding teacher of high school physics by the Awards Committee of the Physics Section of the North Carolina Academy of Science. This award carries with it a year of honorary membership in the N.C.A.S.

Mr. Fry was inducted into the Phi Delta Kappa, a national honor fraternity for men engaged in the field of education.

"Every time I find something it belongs to someone."—Jennings Burris.

"I don't want to be a millionaire; I just want to live like one."—Norris Jeffrey.

Sixteen AHS students will travel to East Carolina College, Greenville, N. C., June 8, to participate in the five-day Summer Choral Workshop.

Those planning to attend are Ronnie Herrin, Ann Bell, Pam Treece, Steve Isenhour, Eddie Wilson, Karen Davis, Pam Sells, Bill Burbage, Paul Welch, Ronald Russell, Betsy Holbrook, James Renger, Karen Herndon, Harry Whitley, and Steve Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fry will also be present at the Workshop, as he is a member of the committee in charge of this project.

Dr. Larra Hoggard, who will conduct the singing, is well-known and loved by N. C. high school students.

In previous years civic clubs have provided scholarships for needy and worthy students wishing to attend the Workshop. This year's scholarship recipients have not been announced yet.

The Albemarle group will travel to and from Greenville in a bus with the Hickory choral group.

"Flattery will get you somewhere, so start talking."—Frankie Hatley.

"That radiator's giving off cold heat."—Ruby Vanhoy.
