

Clubs Are Active

FHA Hears Panel

"Teen-age Problems" was the topic discussed by a panel for the members of the F.H.A. on October 14 at the Junior High. Members of the panel were Mrs. Hargrave, Mrs. Gamewell, Mr. Clemmer, Torger Hetland, Bryan Fox, Jack Lowder, Dianne Lefler, Larry Shelton, Linda Wilhoit, Brenda Tucker, and Julie Butler.

Delegates Attend Bible Club Retreat

Delegates elected to attend the State Bible Club Retreat at Camp Vade Mecum in Winston-Salem were Oaksie Eudy, Peggy Jordan, Annette Lowder, Harry Whitley, Nancy Coggins, Sue Stone, Gene Starnes and Elaine Morris.

The five delegates that attended gave reports at the following Bible Club meeting. Elaine Morris, Oaksie Eudy, Harry Whitley, Sue Stone, and Annette Lowder spoke on different phases of the retreat.

Miss Evelyn Taylor, secretary at the YMCA, was chaperone for the Albemarle group since Mrs. Ivey was unable to attend because of a State teachers meeting on the same date.

Miss Jean Abrahamsen, a former AHS teacher, taught the Sunday School lesson.

This year small gold crosses are being ordered by the club instead of the regular Bible Club pins.

Prayer meetings are being held each Thursday morning in Mrs. Ivey's room at 8 a. m. A short devotional is given by a member and then a period of silent meditation follows. The program is closed by sentence prayer.

Red Cross Adopts Several Projects

Distributing posters, decorating bulletin boards, and attending a banquet are three projects the Red Cross has undertaken.

Jane Chandler, Mary Francis Reynolds, Don Burgess, Oaksie Eudy, and Brenda Honeycutt placed Red Cross posters in the windows of the merchants in town.

Oaksie Eudy was elected to have charge of the bulletin board which is located on the first floor of the North wing.

Craig Morgan, Ronnie Arey, Don Burgess, Oaksie Eudy, Jane Chandler and Elaine Morris were elected to attend the County Red Cross banquet at the hotel October 28.

Cards Ordered

The first of several orders was sent off for calling cards by the seniors last week.

Miss Chicora Caughman, senior class adviser, urges all seniors to order their cards as soon as possible. Every order must be in by the month of January.

ASHS Shutterbugs Win Certificates

Harry Whitley and Randy Roache, two Albemarle Senior High School students, won State Certificates of Merit in the 1958 Kodak High School Photo Contest.

The 1959 contest, which is being announced this month, gives all camera fans a chance to prepare entries for submission starting January 1. All pictures taken since April 1, 1958, are eligible.

The 1959 contest is open to all Senior High students, and will offer a list of 328 cash awards, totaling $10,400.

Fight For Mirrors Ends With Smiles

The theory that men are the real slaves of fashion was proven when school pictures for the annual were made recently.

Cool, calm, and collected girls stood around talking casually while the frantic "stronger sex" battled valiantly for mirror space.

"Quick! Give me some make-up!", one petrified male cried. "Is my head combed, I mean my hair?", another wailed. Boys were literally climbing all over one another for a chance to see how they will look when they flash their pearly whites for the photographer's camera.

Combs were provided by the "Crossroads" staff and word came from a reliable source that the boys swamped the comb box so fast that the poor "femme fatales" were left begging.

Don't panic boys, your masculinity is still intact. The girls just loved you in your primitive state. You were all positively captivating while admiring your crowning glories.

HERE and THERE

Eligible, But Not For NHS

THE STUDENTS WERE waiting for the Honor Society tapping. "John Wayne", asked Janice Harris, "are you eligible?"

"Yes," he replied, "I'm eligible, but not for this."

SUE TUCKER HAD just made the statement that it costs seven dollars to take the College Board Entrance Exams.

Pat Saunders snorted, "Humph, I'm not paying anybody seven dollars to tell me how dumb I am!"

DURING FRENCH II one day Mrs. Deese asked, "Roger, do you know what 'gleaners' are?"

"Yeah," remarked Roger, "that's where I take my dirty clothes."

"I CAN'T FIGURE out what Ed Bivens does with all of his money. He's broke again today," remarked Eddie Crutchfield.

Johnny Almond asked, "Is he trying to borrow some money from you?"

"No," said Eddie, "I'm trying to borrow it from him!"

WHILE GRADING TEST papers, Mrs. Westerlund asked, "Here's a paper without a name on it. Whose is it?"

"I'm afraid to admit it," piped up Joe Copley.

LINDA CURLEE WAS sitting at her desk tapping her pencil on the cast on her broken shoulder one day during solid geometry.

Shelby Thomas turned around and asked, "What's the matter, Linda? Got a chip on your shoulder?"

MYRA CARPENTER, WHILE studying for a test, asked Billie Rae Atkins to list three things that need a reformer.

Billie Rae wisecracked, "Sara Henderson, Sue Tucker, and Myra Carpenter."

WHILE ADMIRING JANE Murrell's sweater, Bonnie Lowder asked, "Jane, is that sweater cashmere?"

"No," replied Jane, "it's Mother's."

MRS. CARTER CAME into Miss Caughman's classroom and asked for a knife.

Sherrill Williams asked, "Will a fingernail file do?"

"Yes," replied Mrs. Carter.

"Well," promptly answered Sherrill, "you could use mine, but I left it at home."

"I'VE GOT AN awful sinus condition today," wailed Linda Haynes.

"Don't worry, Linda, it's all in your head," soothed Kennie Beaver.

DURING FULL MOON English class Mrs. Fry sneezed.

"God bless you, Mrs. Fry," said Eddie Davis.

"Thank you, Eddie. I didn't know there were many blessings in hayfever," answered Mrs. Fry.

HUNTER HEARNE, WHEN admiring Billie Jo Barrier's diamond ring, asked Billie if James got down on his knees to give it to her.

"No," she said jokingly, "he handed it to me and said, 'This is what you've been begging for.'"

WHILE ORDERING CALLING cards, Chip Cain wailed, "Everybody is making fun of my name; I'm not coming to school any more."

His name is Love DeWitt Cain.

ANN BELL, IN an astonished tone, admitted to Janice Morris that she didn't know Mr. Morris, the teacher, is Janice's father.

"Oh, yes, he is," quipped Janice; "he has been for the past seventeen years."
