

School Pictures For Annual Are Made By Photographer

School pictures for the annual were made in the Full Moon office October 14 by a photographer from Delmar Studios in Charlotte.

During their English classes the students reported to the upstairs lobby and filed into the studio set up in the publications office to be posed for their pictures. Senior class members had two different poses made. When the proofs come back they will choose the one they would like to have printed in the yearbook. This is a privilege granted to seniors only.

Individual photographs of the faculty were made also.

Doug Eury set up a makeshift studio in the audio-visual room, where he took action shots of each of the faculty members.

The prints are to be used in the 1959 "Crossroads" and for this reason all girls and boys were asked to dress as much alike as possible. The girls were asked to wear dark sweaters and white collars. The boys wore dark coats, white dress shirts and dark ties.

Members of the Crossroads' photography staff and Mrs. Carter aided the photographer in making the pictures. Those helping were Doug Eury, Ed Bivens, Priscilla Burris, O. J. Sikes, Pat Saunders, and Sue Tucker.

Modern Music Masters Club Receives 13 Members

Thirteen new members were formally initiated into the Modern Music Masters on October 21 in the club's annual initiation.

Josh Morton, Peggy Jordan, Ann Whitley, Ann Smith, Pam Treece, Mary Sikes, Barbara Hinson, Gary Whitley, Jerry McSwain, Pam Truette, Susan Ausband, Shelby Thomas, and Judy Redfern were the new members. Each gave a good initiation performance.

The officers of the club were in charge of the program and after the introduction of the new candidates, Pam Truette and O. J. Sikes explained the meaning of the "M" which stands for Modern; Hunter Hearne and Jimmy Miller explained the "M" which stands for Music and James Renger explained the last "M", which stands for Masters.

Mr. Fry, sponsor of the club, administered the oath and James Renger, president, presented each new member his membership card and club pin.

O. J. Sikes then took charge of the program and introduced Mary Jo Winn, who gave a short devotional, after which each candidate presented his initiation performance.

Debate Club Has Chosen Officers

This year's question for the Debate Club is: "Resolved That The United States Should Adopt The Essential Features Of The British, French Or Russian System Of Education."

Mrs. Mary Little, club adviser, has assigned the fifteen members work on the three different systems. Each member is to have a three-minute talk prepared by the next meeting on his particular country, telling the essential features of its educational plan.

Officers are Lane Brown, president; Mary Hill Hatley, secretary; Edith Smith, treasurer. Dues have been set for one dollar.

Meetings are held each Tuesday night at 7:30 in Mrs. Little's home.
