

Senior Mixed Chorus Sings For N. C. Chapter Of NATS

Members of ASHS Senior Mixed Chorus helped demonstrate the subject "Guided Enthusiasm for the High School Singer" to 30 members of the North Carolina Chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing assembled here on November 4.

Serving as hosts to this group of musicians were Paul Fry, Mrs. Katherine Almond, and Dr. George Brewer.

Officers of the Senior Mixed Chorus as well as other members of the Student Body served in various capacities throughout the day. Pam Treece and Diane Butler, president and treasurer of the chorus respectively, were pages. Ronnie Herrin, vice-president, and Mike Fusonie made signs directing the N.A.T.S. members to the school.

Karen Herndon, secretary of the chorus, along with the social committee composed of Betsy Holbrook, chairman, Ann Bell and Florence Morton, presided over a coffee hour. Mrs. Coble and several homemaking students prepared the table and decorations in the Student Lounge. Mrs. Carter, Hazel Grose, and Lovell Burleson from the commercial department helped register the guests.

The entire chorus sang "Beautiful Saviour", "He Watches Over Israel", and "Showboat Medley". John Troublefield and Pam Treece presented solos.

Luncheon was served to the N. A. T. S. members from the school cafeteria. Immediately following the afternoon session, Mrs. Katherine Almond was hostess at a tea for them at her home.

BY THEIR WORDS

"Oh, if I didn't have this skirt on!"—Don Burgess.

"See that girl over there with the pony twist?"—Jo Lynn Pickler.

DeMolay Chooses 1961 Sweetheart

Pam Treece was crowned as the DeMolay Sweetheart at the annual Sweetheart Dance held October 22 at the Jaycee Hut.

Pam's qualifications were entered in the local contest by a member of the DeMolay, listing her various activities in church, school, and social functions. Every member voted on the Sweetheart of his choice, completely on her qualifications.

As the Stanly DeMolay Sweetheart, Pam will compete with girls throughout the state for the title of State DeMolay Sweetheart. This contest will be held in Charlotte at the State Conclave some time during the summer.

Seniors, Juniors Will Be Tested

Approximately seventy-five Seniors will be taking the Scholastic Aptitude test which will be given here December 3.

The Board of Higher Education in North Carolina has made it mandatory for all students who will attend state-supported schools to take this test.

All students who did not register for this test to be given December 3 are urged to register for the one which will be given March 18.

Eighty-six Juniors have registered to take the National Merit Qualifying Scholastic Test which will be given here March 7. The purpose of this test is to seek out students who qualify for scholarships.

Those Tests Will Do It Every Time

Roy Wilson, after being entirely engrossed in an algebra test, felt pangs of hunger so he followed his stomach to the cafeteria since he normally eats dinner immediately after his third period class.

As he entered the cafeteria, he turned cold and sweaty, for there was no one present. A quick glance at the clock was followed by his headlong exit. It was only third period and he was late for English.

Now what to do? Of course! Wheedle an excused slip from Mrs. Hall to get into Mrs. Fry's third period English class. Mrs. Hall is a very understanding person, however, and it didn't take much wheedling.

On returning to Mrs. Fry, Roy gave her the slip and returned to his seat. Mrs. Fry looked puzzled as she examined the slip. Finally she queried, "Roy, what does this mean? 'Walks in Sleep!'"

Bible Club Plans Will Help Family

The Bible Club is sponsoring a Thanksgiving project to help a needy family.

Jann Barrier, chairman of this project, has contacted the Welfare Department to locate such a family.

Members of the club were asked at the last meeting to bring canned goods and fruit to the November 22 meeting to be held at Bryan Fox's home. This food will be arranged in a decorated basket and will be taken to the family by various club members during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Junior Red Cross Enrolls Members

Junior Red Cross representatives will be enrolling members at ASHS from November 7-21.

Some of the money contributed will pay for enrollment fees and the rest will go to the American Red Cross Children's Fund and local service projects.

Officers have been elected and are as follows: president, Nancy Aldridge; vice-president, Steve Isenhour; secretary, Jane Crutchfield; and treasurer, Brenda Smith.

Nancy Aldridge and Joanne Herrin attended a countywide Red Cross meeting October 28.

Senior Boys Are Lions, Rotarians

Student Lions and Rotarians have been chosen from the boys of the Senior Class at ASHS through the month of December.

The boys receiving this honor for November are John Troublefield, Rotarian, and Kennie Furr, Lion; and for December are Bill Burbage, Lion, and Ronnie Herrin, Rotarian.

During the month of October, the co-captains of the football team were honored. Mike Wolfe was the student Lion and Jimmy Burris, the student Rotarian.

These boys were chosen by a faculty committee on the basis of outstanding citizenship.
