

Lydia Hearne Represents ASHS In Carrousel Parade

Lydia Hearne will spend her Thanksgiving holidays in Charlotte, where she will be representing ASHS in the annual Carolinas' Carrousel celebration.

She was officially crowned as the 1960 Albemarle Senior High School Carrousel Princess during a schoolwide assembly program on October 23. The Rev. Edwin Carter, a member of the Saturday Morning Toastmaster's Club of Charlotte and a representative of the Carolinas' Carrousel committee, did the honors.

During her two-day stay in Charlotte, Lydia will be very busy. She will arrive in Charlotte at 3:00 November 23, and will register at Hotel Charlotte. The princesses will get acquainted and will attend a tea during the afternoon.

Wednesday night Lydia will attend a banquet attired in a becoming yellow dress. After the banquet she will travel to the Coliseum, where all the Carrousel Princesses will be presented at a big ball. This will end Lydia's first day at the Carrousel.

Lydia will be up early Thursday morning to have breakfast with the judges. All the princesses will then go to church services and be entertained at a luncheon.

At 3:30 Lydia will leave the

Four Girls Apply For AFS Program

Jane Crutchfield, Becky Basinger, Nancy Russell, and Elizabeth Guthrie have applied to the AFS for participation in next summer's foreign exchange program.

If selected, the candidates will be placed in a home in one of the participating countries and live as a member of the family for the summer.

So far ASHS has had two students selected for this program. Last summer Robert Iddings was sent to Germany. The year before, Charles Brown was in Sweden.

Robert stated that it will probably be late spring before a selection has been made.

One of the requirements is that an applicant must complete two years of French by the end of this school year.

Lydia will participate in the annual Carrousel parade. During the parade she will be wearing a beautiful baby-blue evening dress.

3. What firm was organized in 1847?
4. Who has "Clothing for Men and Boys"?
5. What was "Formerly Sossamon's"?
6. Who features styles especially for teens?
7. Who says, "Dress Well and Succeed"?
8. What is the fresher refresher?
9. Who is "Your Home County Dairy"?
10. Who has a capital of $100,000?

Martha Burleson Wins In Contest

Martha Burleson, an ASHS Senior, brought home the bacon for the newly-formed De Ca Club in the form of a first place prize in the speech contest at the District Convention of Distributive Education Clubs.

Attending the convention along with Martha were Miss Thomas and 21 other D. E. students. It was held November 2 at Pleasant Garden High School.

Highlighting the day's events for the local De Ca Club was Martha's speech on "The Art of Being a Star Salesman." She won over 12 other students. Martha is automatically eligible for the state contest on March 9 at Women's College.

Piedmont District Meeting Attended By Library Club
