

THE FULL MOON

Vol. 28 — No. 6

Albemarle Senior High School, Albemarle, N. C.

Friday, March 30, 1962

Five Seniors, Two Sophs Rate High Honor Roll Berths

Seven students — five Seniors and two Sophomores — made the Highest Honor Roll for the fourth term of school.

The Seniors are Rowena Kluttz, Sherry Pegram, Nancy Russell, Gay Snuggs and Barbara Doby; and the Sophomores, Betty Herlocker and Frances Trivette.

Senior Honor Roll: Edward Lowder, Judy Almond, Loretta Holt, Rebecca Moss, Frances Sides, Brenda Smith, Sylvia Wall, Dan Huneycutt, Mickey Mauldin, Margaret Allred, Shelia Harris, Jane Morton, Wanda Williams, Rebekah Swaringen, Joe Franklin, Iris Burris, Judy Wilson, Bobbie Atkins, Janet Koontz, Joyce Williams, Charles Stockton, George Efir, Sylvia Fesperman, Gary McGalliard, and Lana Turner.

Junior Honor Roll: Beverly Freeman, Peggy Smith, Jimmy Barrier, Doris Eudy, Neville Patterson, Jane Boaz, John Boaz, Diane Greene, Nancy Burleson, Judy Starnes, James Lowder, Carleeta Redfern, Paul Allred, Raymond Earnhardt, Larry Lisk, Larry Mabry, Steve Smith, Edith Harwood, Jane Herlocker, Susan Kayler, Joan Lambert, Rachel Lefler, Betty Morton, and DeLores Morton.

Sophomore Honor Roll: Elizabeth Wilson, Anita Wall, Anita Taylor, Tony Almond, Mary Napier, Joe Frick, Richard Summerlin, Evelyn Morton, Tommy Smith, Sharon Holt, and Carol Lefler.

Hearty Welcome Given Caughman

Students and faculty were glad to welcome back Miss Chicora Caughman on March 13.

Miss Caughman, trigonometry and algebra teacher, returned to school after a recent illness.

Appreciation is extended to Mrs. Jerry Bumgarner, who taught during Miss Caughman's absence. Mrs. Bumgarner also worked with the Senior Class and its officers, serving temporarily as advisor.

ASHS Affirmative Wins Unanimously

After having been postponed five days because of snow, the dual Albemarle-Lexington debate was held Wednesday, March 14 at 10:00 a.m.

Sarah Cranford and Betty Herlocker, members of the Albemarle affirmative team, were awarded the judges' unanimous decision over the Lexington negative, while the Lexington affirmative team won out over the Albemarle negative composed of Beverly Freeman and Jeff Underwood. The debaters' topic was "Resolved: That the federal government should equalize educational opportunity by means of grants to the states for public elementary and secondary schools."

Representing Albemarle at Lexington, Beverly and Jeff were told by the judge present that their good debating made it "difficult" for him to arrive at a decision. Mrs. Hayes went with the two debaters in the capacity of debate coach.

Judging the Albemarle affirmative-Lexington negative half of the debate held here were judges Mrs. Labe Little, Jr., Mr. Sam Behrends, lawyer and former Wake Forest College debater, and Mr. Fred Hollis, a teacher at Pfeiffer College. Harriet Reeves presided over the debate and Margaret Allred served as time-keeper.

MICKEY MAULDIN

EDWARD LOWDER

LORETTA HOLT

BARBARA DOBY

Mauldin, winner of Charles A. Cannon, Jr., Scholarship; Lowder, ASHS "Boy of the Year"; Loretta Holt, MMM Top-Notcher; and Barbara Doby, district winner in scholarship competition.

Seniors In News; Mauldin Honored

Several Seniors have been in the news lately as participants in various scholarship programs:

Mickey Mauldin, Senior class president, has been awarded the $4,000 Charles A. Cannon, Jr., scholarship for the next four years.

The scholarship is awarded to outstanding boys who plan to enter North Carolina State College and study textiles. The $4,000 is distributed over a four-year period.

Mickey, interviewed by Mr. Hearne Swink, a Cannon Mills official, on March 12, was notified of his award on March 20.

In addition to being Senior class president, Mickey is business manager of Crossroads, secretary-treasurer of Hi-Y, and treasurer of his Sunday School class.

Barbara Doby, outstanding member of the Senior class, was recently chosen district winner in competition for a scholarship offered by the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs.

The announcement that Barbara had won out over girls from six counties in the state was made March 14 by the Albemarle Junior Woman's Club, which is sponsoring her.

Barbara attended the state finals at W.C.U.N.C. in Greensboro on March 24. A guest of some W. C. students, she spent much of her visit being interviewed by four judges.

The judges awarded the scholarship, the amount of which has not been determined, to Nora Wilson of Greensboro. Ameila Gibson of Waynesville was the runner-up.

Although Barbara did not receive the scholarship, she "had a wonderful time," and "gained a lot of experience from having participated in the finals."

Seniors' Production Of 3-Act Comedy, 'A Date With Judy,' Termed Successful

"A Date With Judy," directed by Miss Sibyl Thomas, was given by a cast of 14 Seniors March 23 at 8:00 p.m. in the ASHS auditorium.

The cast of characters included: Judy, Vivian Smith; Melvin Foster, John Gore; Dora Roster, Jane Crutchfield; Randolph, Johnny Garrison; Hannah, Shelia Harris; Oogie Pringle, Hink Tucker; Mitz, Brenda Moris; Mr. Martindale, Bob Richards; Mrs. Hotchkiss, Gay Snuggs; Eloise, Julie Butler; Mrs. Schultzhamer, Ellen Hatley; Rexford, Lane Lowder, and Susie, Brenda York.

"A Date With Judy" is a 3-act comedy. Judy was determined to beat the slacks off Tootsie Whitemen by soliciting contributions to the Community Relief Fund — the winner to be Queen and lead the grand march at the club dance. Soliciting was too slow, so she entered a whole raft of contests as a means of raising some quick money — using her parents' names.

The results were disastrous. Judy's father won honorable mention in a nation-wide contest for the "most kissable lips."

But Judy didn't give up easily. She tried her hand at writing a "true confession" story entitled "I Am A Bigamist." Unfortunately the "true confession" script got mixed up with Mrs. Foster's speech to the PTA and when she was unable to give her speech, it was read for her.

Everything comes out all right at last, of course, and the story has a happy ending.

Four committees who worked to make this play successful were:

Tickets: Judy Hessley, chairman; Sue Byrd, Kathy Freeman, Harriet Reeves, Jane Morton and Linda Morton.

Publicity: Dink Morton, chairman; Rickie Furr, Ellen Hatley, Nancy Russell, Judy Starnes, Ellen Efir.

Props: Sylvia Wall, chairman; Neville Patterson, Steve Smith, Bill McKenzie, Julie Butler, and Loretta Holt.

Make-up: Janice Hearne, chairman; Linda Lefler and Barbara Doby.

Strange Things Found In Parking Lot; Secret Hiding Places Or Storage Bins?

Glove compartments are the nicest things. And how interesting they are! A letter to Bob from Marie, a wine necktie, a light bulb and holder, a dropcord and an object which could be a rain bonnet or a boot were found in the glove compartments of certain unsuspecting A.S.H.S. students.

In Ellen Hatley's glove compartment were found three packs of Wriggly's Spearmint chewing gum, one-third of a roll of paper towels, two cans of spray de-icer marked $1.95, and one book.

In Janice Hearne's glove compartment was one letter to Mrs. Hearne, one New Testament, one pack of Winstons, one empty pack of Marlboros, salt, two plastic spoons, three road maps, two big envelopes, one dirty napkin, one package of laundry detergent. "Bo" Burris's glove compartment held one old set of report cards, one can of lighter fluid, four clothespins, one empty Winston package, thirteen pennies, one church key, a dozen service distributing tickets, and one window scraper.

In Benny Atkin's glove compartment were cached one straw, one wine necktie, one green bow, three pencils (yellow, green, and blue), one Badin Road Drive-In paper, one clothes peg, chewing gum paper, screws, bolts, nuts, and an unidentifiable object.

Rowena Kluttz's glove compartment held one piece of paper with scribbling on it, two books about Oldsmobiles, twelve packages of salt with "Havana Cigar" written on them, one piece of clear, dirty paper, one glass, two unidentifiable objects with "U. S. O. Dill" written on them, one red plastic spoon, one pair of pliers, a light bulb and holder, a drop cord, one piece of paper with lips blotted on it, an old pair of sun glasses and case, two old gas receipts, one safety pin, and one toothpick. Boy! It was full!

Eddie McLester's glove compartment was locked!

In Bob Richard's glove compartment reporters found one empty jewelry box, two screws, one bolt, many many bills from Service Distributing, one plastic glass, one key to the playroom, one LONG note from Marie, one can of lighter fluid, one notebook, four books about Fords, one can of Medi-Quik, one pack of black pepper, one screw driver handle and stacks of letters.

Student Council Officers To Be Elected April 13

Next year's Student Council officers will be elected on April 13.

The Election Committee for some time has been preparing for the coming election.

Registration for the students and Sophomores was held March 14-16 in the student lounge.

Petitions have been circulated for the past week for candidates running for office. To be eligible, an applicant must have at least an 85 average. After receiving an application, one must have the petition signed by 100 other students.

Conventions will be held April 4. Students will assemble in the auditorium to eliminate all but two of the candidates.

After this the candidates will have campaign speeches on April 9. They will also begin campaigning by using posters and buttons on April 9-13.

On April 13 the final election will be held, determining the officers for A. S. H. S. next year.

Lowder Named 'Boy Of The Year'

Edward Lowder was selected by a faculty committee to represent ASHS as "The Boy of the Year."

He will compete with other boys in the county for the coveted award given annually by the Albemarle Optimist Club. On April 13 he will be interviewed, and on April 17 Edward will attend a banquet at the Hotel Albemarle. The "Boy of the Year" will be announced then.

The following list is used in choosing the recipient of the award: Scholarship 20%, athletics 20%, honors 20%, extra-curricular activities 10%, civic activities 10%, industrious 10%, and religious activities 10%.

BY THEIR WORDS

"He that keeps his mouth shut, keeps his foot out." . . . Diane Harris.

"Praise the Lord and pass journalism." . . . Jane Crutchfield.

"Every time I see a crazy hat I wonder how far Bill Crawley would chase the person for it." . . . Mr. Nye.

"All girls please wear blouses and skirts with no figures in them." . . . Mr. Fry.

"If you have any hand raise your questions." . . . Mr. Morris.

"I'd feel like selling my soul to the devil if he didn't already have it." . . . Robert Throneburg.

"Don't put off until tomorrow what you should have done yesterday." . . . Mrs. Deese.

"I've never been so glad to see a Democrat." . . . Mickey Lowder, as he welcomed Miss Caughman back to school.

"I come to school at 8:15 o'clock just to get recognition." . . . Mr. Hatley.

"Love is a temporary insanity curable by marriage." . . . Raymond Perry.

"I hope it snows so deep that they have to jack the cows up to milk them." . . . Tommy Little.

"Here comes Mrs. French." . . . Ellen Efir meaning to say Mrs. Deese.

"They're playing scotched-hop!" . . . Nancy Thompson.

"I'm deaf in one eye and can't see out of the other." . . . Ronald Sells.

"I don't know the date of your Junior-Senior hop." . . . Mrs. Gamewell.

"We wanted to play 'ring around the rosy' but no one could squat!" . . . Jackie Barbee.

"The Hawaiian hula is just the twist with shredded wheat on it." . . . Mr. Fry.