

THE FULL MOON

Vol. 30 — No. 2

Albemarle Senior High School, Albemarle, N. C.

October 31, 1963

Officers And Members Of Student Council Are Installed

66 Achieve Honor Rolls

A total of sixty-six students made the honor roll for the first grading period. Senior, junior, and sophomore classes were tied with twenty-one each on the honor roll. One sophomore and two seniors were listed on the highest honor roll.

A student is listed on the honor roll when he has no grade below a "B" on any subject during a grading period. Those making highest honor roll have maintained an "A" average in all subjects.

Sharron Holt, Betty Herlocker, and Robbie Vick attained the highest honor roll.

Regular honor roll was attained by the following seniors: Monty Montgomery, Katrina Lefler, Mary Napier, Tish Stockton, Anita Wall, Connie Buxton, Sharron Gibson, Bobbie Hall, Mary Montgomery, Beverly Shue, Anita Taylor, Ibba Wilson, Bill Harwood, Jimmy Vanhoy, Linda Morton, Frances Trivette, Leon Burleson, Paul Mullis, Terry Stillier.

Juniors included: Sue Pivler, Jimmy Lowder, Joanne Lisk, Joe McManus, Mark Stambaugh, Kay Carpenter, Sally Efrid, Terry Morris, Bobby Gene Lowder, Chuck Morehead, Jane Hartley, Edith Johnson, Shelia

(Continued on Page 8, Col 3 & 4)

Crossroads Photos Taken

Individual student pictures to be used in the Crossroads are currently being taken by a representative of the Delmar Studios.

Pictures of the junior and sophomore students were taken October 30. Underclassmen girls wore white blouses with dark cardigan sweaters. Boys wore dark suits with dark ties.

Seniors pictures were to be taken October 31. Vignettes of the senior girls were made to distinguish them from the underclassmen.

Barbara Furr, photography editor, is directing these activities.

Moonbeams

RADIO PROGRAM

Albemarle Senior High School's radio program is presented every Saturday at 1:30 P. M. This fifteen minute program relates high school news and club activities. The news is compiled and presented by the school radio staff, supervised by Miss Becky Stasavich.

ATTENDANCE

Sophomores led the attendance record during the first grading period with a total of 172. The Junior Class had 140 and the seniors had 92 with perfect attendance.

CALLING CARDS

Calling Cards have been ordered by the senior class from the Printcraft Card Company, Inc. Seniors made their selections from twenty-five designs ranging up to $2.95 in price.

LION AND ROTARIAN

Andy Cook and Benny Atkins represented the school during the month of October as "Student Lion" and "Student Rotarian," respectively.

PSAT

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test, familiarly known as the PSAT was given to a number of Albemarle Senior High School students Tuesday, October 15, in the cafeteria.

Taking the test were one hundred sixty-two juniors. All students who are planning to enter college were strongly advised to take this test.

THE ABOVE SENIORS were tapped into the National Honor Society October 4. They are, from left to right: Andy Cook, Wanda Holt, Joe Frick, Carol Lefler, and Richard Summerlin.

Five Tapped For Honor Society

Five seniors, Andy Cook, Wanda Holt, Joe Frick, Carol Jean Lefler, and Richard Summerlin, were tapped into the Albemarle Chapter of the National Honor Society in an impressive ceremony before the student body in the school auditorium October 4.

Tony Almond, chapter president presided.

Bonnie Benton, chaplain, conducted the devotional.

Karen Hatley sang "You'll Never Walk Alone." She was accompanied by Mr. Paul Fry, who also served as pianist for the processional and the recessional.

Rev. Harold Austin, pastor of First Street Methodist Church, made the address for the occasion. He emphasized the necessity for students to set a goal for themselves and then to work to reach this goal.

In the formal tapping exercises, new members signed the register in the order tapped. Mr. H. T. Webb, principal, administered the oath to the new members.

Andy Cook's school and community activities include: Chief Marshal, president of the Senior class, Boys' State, Order of DeMolay, and Key Club International. Andy has also served as a page in the U. S. House of Representatives, Eighty-Seventh Congress.

Wanda Holt has actively participated in school activities including the basketball team, Future Teachers of America, Science

Club, and Crossroads typing staff. She has also served in various capacities in the Tri-Hi-Y and in youth organizations of the Congregational Christian Church.

Serving as homeroom president and Marshal, Joe Frick has also participated as a member of the basketball and baseball teams and is a member of the Monogram Club. Math Club and Baptist Training Union at Grace Baptist Church are also included in his activities.

Carol Lefler, who is presently serving as art editor of the Crossroads, is active in Science Club, Math Club, FTA, and Junior Red Cross. Her community activities include Senior Girl Scouts and various organizations of the First Lutheran Church.

A member of the Modern Music Masters, Richard Summerlin participates in Math club and Science Club. He also has served on the Junior-Senior Prom committee and the Sophomore Hop committee.

Following the induction exercise, Ibba Wilson, chapter secretary, called the roll of the entire membership.

Mrs. Frank Westerlund is the faculty sponsor for the local National Honor Society Chapter.

Students Hold DE Jobs

Participating in the 1963-64 Distributive Education program are thirty-six students. The major fields in which these students are working are grocery stores, department stores, and commercial firms.

Employed by the Winn-Dixie grocery stores are Edward Hedrick, Freddie Swink, Dolan Tucker, Ronnie Faggett, and Ronald Lowder. David Maurice, Ted Swaringen, William Russell, and Wayne Litaker are working at the A&P. Barry Troutman is employed by Holt & Troutman Grocery Store; and Dickie Currie, by Morris Super Market.

Working in the area of department stores are Ronald Hathcock, Setzler-Hinson Furniture Company; Whit Herrin, Discount House; Elaine Hudson, McLellan's; Alvin Boles, Albemarle Shoe Center; Annette Cagle, Belk's Department Store; Diane Mabe, Penny's Department Store; Mary Montgomery, the Glamor Shop; and Brenda Morgan, the Chic Shop.

Students working in commercial firms are Bobbie Hall, Credit Bureau; Faye Mabe, Cabarrus Bank; Pat Russell, First National Bank; and Judy Herrin, Home Savings and Loan Association.

Working in other fields are Connie Buxton and Beverly Shoe who are employed by Collins and Aikman, Jahala Holt and Buddy Melton who are employed by the Stanly County Hospital, and Bill Mauney and Terry Morris who are working at the Do-Nut Dinerette.

Wayne Harwood is employed by Sunoco Service Station; Gene Blackwell, by Firestone Home and Auto Supply Company; Penny Lawhorn, by Starnes Jewelry Store; Sharon Gibson, by Purcell's Drug Store; and Peggy Hinson, by Mae's Beauty Salon. Sandra Hathcock is tentatively employed at the office of Dr. Overcash.

Webb Studies History At UNC

Mr. Webb is currently attending classes at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

This is a course offered on Federal Administrative Law which pertains to the administrative agencies of the government.

Dr. Monroe of the Political Science Department of the University is the course instructor. Classes are held every Wednesday night and are to continue through January 15.

Mr. Webb is taking this course for his own benefit and has made no plans to teach. He will speak to Mrs. Westerlund's United States History television class October 25.

Class Officers Given Oath; Grigg Speaks

Student Council officers, representatives, and class officers for the 1963-64 term were formally installed as officers of the Student Organization during an assembly October 16.

Mr. H. T. Webb, principal, administered the oath of office to the new officers. David Still will serve as S. C. President; Lynn Calder, vice-president; Tony Almond, treasurer; and Nancy Butler, secretary.

Student Council representatives then received the oath and were installed under the direction of David Still. Student representatives include: Dane Perry, Cynthia Freeman, Tom Webb, Vickie Alexander, Nancy Walker, Bobby Overcash, Eddie Lane, Pam Lowder, Joe Earnhardt, Brookie Smith, Inez Furr, Jan Claywell, Brown Bivens, Pat Russell, Benny Atkins, Anita Wall, Terry Morgan, and Sue Underwood.

Class officers were next to be installed. They are as follows; Senior Class: Andy Cook, president; Laura Henderson, vice-president; Evelyn Morton, secretary; Tommy Smith, treasurer. Junior Class: David Miller, president; Johnny Morris, vice-president; Cindy Stone, secretary; and J. W. Lisk, treasurer. Sophomore Class: Dane Perry, president; Danny Lisk, vice-president; Ginny Rogers, secretary; and Whit Morrow, treasurer.

Pledging to support and uphold the standards and ideals of the Student Council, the student body then renewed their pledge of loyalty.

Mr. David Grigg, a former student of Albemarle High School who is now a senior at the Duke University Law School, presented the address for the occasion. He stated that an active student government which has the support of its students can accomplish much for the school and students.

Preceding the installation service, Diane McLester presented the devotional, and Jan Claywell sang "For the Beauty of the Earth." The National Anthem was played by several members of the band.

The processional and recessional were led by the Marshals. Frances Anne Trivette was pianist for the occasion.

Almond, Cook, Still Compete For Morehead

Tony Almond, Andy Cook, and David Still have been nominated to enter the competition for the Morehead Awards which are given each year to outstanding boys who study at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Sponsored by the John Motley Morehead Foundations, these awards are presented to students from selected high schools and preparatory schools. Selection for these awards is based on scholastic ability and attainment, qualities of manhood, evidence of moral force of character and of capacity to lead, and physical vigor.

These boys were selected by a faculty committee and will go before the county selection committee with other nominees from the Stanly County schools. Two boys will be selected to represent Stanly County at the district selection in Charlotte. Candidates selected at the district level will be interviewed by the central committee at Chapel Hill which will later present the awards to the finalists.

English Classics To Be On The Air

Shakespearean plays will be broadcast over Radio Station WBT-FM every Sunday evening at seven o'clock.

These presentations by the Marlowe Society of England and the Professional Players of Cambridge University began October 6 and will continue through January 19. Among some of the plays to be presented are "Macbeth", "Hamlet", "Anthony and Cleopatra", and "Twelfth Night".

The English Department is strongly urging all students to take advantage of these programs.