

S. O. Elections Set For April 14

Following the circulation of student petitions during the past weeks, the S. O. convention concerning the election of officers for the 1964-65 school year will be held tomorrow.

At the convention, candidates will be eliminated to two students for each office. Andy Cook, president of the Senior Class, will serve as chairman, and Student Council representatives will count votes of those in their homerooms. Business students will tabulate the votes.

Campaign speeches will be held April 7 and registered students will vote in the student lounge April 4.

Registration for all sophomores and those who had not previously registered was held March 16-18.

All students who wished to run for an office obtained petitions March 18 and circulated them until March 24. The major qualification for candidates is that they have attained a scholastic average of 85 or better.

The offices of president and treasurer will be filled by rising seniors, and the vice president and secretary by rising juniors.

Mr. Fry Visits Philadelphia

Mr. Paul B. Fry, choral director at Albemarle Senior and Junior High Schools, attended a convention of choral directors March 9 through 16 in Philadelphia.

Mr. Fry attended meetings on two days of the convention as a southeastern director in the American Choral Directors Association.

As president-elect of the North Carolina Music Educators he spent four days participating in the conference of music educators.

Juniors Extend Prom Invitation

Juniors and seniors and their dates are invited to the annual Junior-Senior Prom which is to be held April 10 in the ASHS gymnasium from 8:30 until 12:00 p.m.

After giving consideration to the possibility of an open prom this year, Mr. H. T. Webb presented the idea to the junior class, host for the event, during a class assembly, March 23. The decision was to allow outside dates to attend.

The prom will be carried out in a manner similar to that of the Spring Dance. Guests must be registered. Stags must be members of either the ASHS junior or senior class.

Spring Dance Termed Success

Students who entered the transformed cafeteria the night of March 13 were greeted with the spring theme of "A Park in New York City." The Student Council, which sponsored the Spring Dance, termed the event as one of the most successful in recent years.

Two murals painted with park scenes and flowers created a delightful atmosphere for the dance. Wrought-iron lawn furniture, a wishing well, and dogwood trees added color and imagination to the decorations.

Cookies, made by the Student Council girls under the direction of Miss Betty Brooks, potato chips, and punch were served. The music was supplied by a juke box from Watkins Music Company.

These outstanding students were tapped for membership into the National Honor Society during ceremonies March 26. Front row, left to right, are: Sue Plyler, Brenda Peeler, Edith Johnson, and Joanne Lisk. Back row: Robbie Bost, Sally Efird, Eugene Coley, Terry Lorch, and Jimmy Lowder.

Nine Inducted Into N.H.S.

Nine outstanding juniors were tapped into the Albemarle Chapter of the National Honor Society during impressive ceremonies March 26.

Selected to receive this high honor were Eugene Coley, Sue Plyler, Jimmy Lowder, Joanne Lisk, Edith Johnson, Brenda Peeler, Sally Efird, Robbie Bost, and Terry Lorch.

Tony Almond, president of the local chapter, presided over the installation ceremony. After the student body sang "Holy, Holy, Holy," Bonnie Benton, society chaplain, read "The Threads You Use" as a devotional. Emalyne Helms then sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," accompanied by Mr. Paul Fry.

Andy Cook, Anita Wall, Sharron Holt, and Wanda Holt presented short speeches on the topics of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, respectively.

After the tapping exercises, Mr. H. T. Webb, principal, administered the oath to the new members. Ibba Wilson, secretary, then called the roll.

Mrs. Frank Westerlund, sponsor of the society, directed the ceremony.

Eugene Coley, who is presently the Sports Editor of the Full Moon, has participated on the football, basketball, and track teams. In church activities he is president of Sunday School and a member of the B.T.U.

An active member of her church, "Y" club, and Rainbow Girls, Sue Plyler is also on the Theme Committee for the Prom. She is a homeroom officer and a

French Prof. Awarded Honor

Miss Diane Thompson, French teacher at ASHS, has been notified of her acceptance into the Graduate School English Department, University of Tennessee, located in Knoxville, Tennessee.

She will receive a Fellowship which will finance her attendance at classes she has selected.

A Fellowship is a high honor for any graduate student, especially a woman. Few women are even considered for these awards.

Miss Thompson's nine months' course will begin in September, 1964. Because of this, she will not be a member of the ASHS faculty next school year. An honor student at Pfeiffer College, Miss Thompson is presently in her first year of teaching.

member of the Science, Black Masque, and Boosters Clubs.

Jimmy Lowder is serving as vice-president of his homeroom and secretary-treasurer of the Debate Club. He is a member of the Assembly Committee, the Math Club, and M.M.M., and has served on the debate team two years.

Serving as co-chairman of the entertainment committee for the prom is Joanne Lisk, who is also a physical education assistant and manager of the girls' basketball team. Joanne is a member of the student committee for the foreign exchange student.

Edith Johnson is currently the

Students Enter Science Fair

Alan Rothwell, ASHS junior, entered a project on the effects of centrifugal force on matter in the physical science division of the South Piedmont Science Fair held in Charlotte, March 21. Young scientists from ten surrounding counties entered projects in the contest.

Three students from AJHS also entered the fair. They were as follows: Linda Long, who received third place in the physical science division for junior high students; Randy Burton, who received honorable mention in the biological science division; and Joe Harwood. Linda also received the prize offered by the American Chemical Society for the award they considered best in the junior high division.

Test Battery To Be Given

Scholarship tests will be given to interested, capable students of ASHS in six academic fields during the month of April.

The University of North Carolina sponsors these scholarships and will provide a Merit Scholarship covering the cost of tuition, renewable annually for four years to the winners.

Tests will be given in biology April 13, in chemistry April 14, in mathematics April 15, in French April 20, in physics April 21, and in American History April 22.

Three students will be selected from each field as winners. Students who are finalists will receive a certificate of merit for their achievements. 553 schools and 15,655 students participated in last year's academic contests.

co-feature editor of the Full Moon, nominee to Governor's School, and a member of the M.M.M. She is vice-president of the Senior Girl Scouts and a member of the "Y."

Serving as chaplain of F.T.A., Brenda Peeler is also a cheerleader, a member of Black Masque and Math clubs, and secretary of her homeroom. Brenda is active in her MYF and church choir.

Chairman of the student committee for the foreign exchange student, Sally Efird is also a member of the Math and Boosters clubs and homeroom vice-president. She is secretary of her youth fellowship at First Presbyterian Church.

Among Robbie Bost's activities are Science, F.T.A., and Boosters clubs. Robbie also serves as vice-president of the Math Club and holds various offices in church groups.

Terry Lorch is a member of the Science Club, Modern Music Masters, and the Math Club. He has served as a member of the pep band and the debate team. He is presently working with the Junior-Senior Prom Committee.

Playmakers Laud 'Star Of Poets'

In honor of Shakespeare's 400th birthday the Pfeiffer Playmakers will present two of his plays, Twelfth Night, a comedy, and Richard II, an historical account, to the general public on alternating nights starting April 16.

Twelfth Night will be given April 16, 18 (matinee), 22, 24, and 25. Richard II will be presented April 17, 18, 23, and 25 (matinee). The curtain time for the evening performance is 8:15 p. m. and for the matinee 3:00 p. m. Prices for admission will be $.75 for students and $1.50 for adults.

Try-outs for positions on the cast were open to the public as well as to students attending Pfeiffer.

Coming Events

- April 2—"S. O." Convention.
- April 7—Campaign Speeches.
- April 10—Junior-Senior Prom.
- April 14—"S. O." Election.
- April 17—MMM Induction.
- April 24—Senior Banquet.
- May 8—Spring Choral Concert.
- May 13-14—Science Fair.

Delegates Plan For Convention; Webb Competes For V.P. Office

Official delegates from ASHS, Tom Webb, Dane Perry, and Bobby Overcash, will be accompanied by Mrs. T. D. Young, advisor, to the Western District of North Carolina Student Council Congress to be held at Lee H. Edwards High School in Asheville, Friday and Saturday.

The group will leave Albemarle early Friday morning in order to arrive in Asheville for the first general meeting. Registration will be held between 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. in the main rotunda of the school. A banquet followed by a dance from 8:30 until 11:30 will be held Friday night. During the Congress, the visiting students will be guests in the homes of several Asheville students. They will return to Albemarle after election of officers for 1965 at the last meeting late Saturday afternoon.

ASHS's candidate for a district office is Tom Webb, outstanding sophomore, who will compete for the position of vice-president. Tom has been active in S. O. work this year by serving as chairman of the Fire Drill committee, serving as a hall monitor, and serving on various other special committees needed to carry out the work of the local organization. Along with being a Student Council member this year, Tom is a past president of Central Elementary and Junior High schools. He is active in athletics and has been nominated as a candidate for this summer's Governor's School.

The theme for this year's Congress is "Student Council: The Torch."

"It is hoped that the meeting will serve the delegates and the leaders of the various member schools as a torch in their plans and activities next year," Mrs. Young stated.

Special guests at the Congress will be the foreign exchange students from various schools in the district.

72 Achieve Honor Rolls

Achieving the highest honor roll for the fourth grading period were three seniors; Sharron Holt, Betty Herlocker, and Frances Ann Trivette; two juniors, Sally Efird and Robbie Bost; and one sophomore, Allison Harris.

The junior class led with twenty-six members making the honor roll and the sophomore class followed with twenty-four. The senior class had seventeen members making the honor roll.

Those seniors making the honor roll include Bill Harwood, Linda Morton, Paulette Braswell, Carol Jean Lefler, Pat Mullis, Monty Montgomery, Pam Cooper, Wanda Holt, Mary Napier, Tish Stockton, Anita Wall, Marie Williams, Judy Herrin, Mary Montgomery, Doris Morton, Anita Taylor, and Bonnie Benton.

Juniors making honor roll were Darrell Newton, Mark Stambaugh, Kay Carpenter, Emily Lowder, Bobby Gene Lowder, Pearlina Rae Burris, Eugene Coley, Jack Deese, David Boyer, Peggy Dick, Jimmy Lowder, Laura Doby, Sherry Fretina, Sue Plyler, Alana Russell, Eddie Mauldin, Henry Fox, Steve Pinkston, Brenda Peeler, Janie Ragsdale, Brookie Smith, Terry Lorch, Joanne Lisk, Jane Hartley, Edith Johnson, and Gwen Easser.

Sophomores making honor roll include Jimmy Stockton, Buck Snuggs, Mark Cook, Gahlon James, David Smith, Charlotte Gantt, Sandy Kelley, Sara Mabry, Lowell Cook, Bob Hall, Dane Perry, Patricia Snipes, Joyce Story, Sheri Talbert, Ginny Rogers, Whit Morrow, Steve Hinson, Billy Tucker, Vickie Alexander, Lorraine Davis, Robbie Vick, Teresa Yow, Tom Webb, and Gwen Boyd.