THE FULL MOON Senior Banquet Tonight

15 More School Days

May 7, 1965

Vol. 31 — No. 8

Albemarle Senior High School, Albemarle, N. C.

Honor Society Inducts 15 Members In Spring Tapping

Graduation To Be Staged In AJHS Stadium

An outdoor graduation for the Senior Class of 1965 will be held Monday evening, May 31, in the stadium of the junior high, an-nounced by Mr. H. T. Webb, prin-cipal cipal. Dr. J. Lem Stokes, II, president of Pfeiffer College, will be the fea-tured speaker for the graduation exercises.

If all seniors complete their work successfully, a record number of around 220 students will receive diplomas from Albemarle Senior High. Due to this record number of graduates, the Senior High au-ditorium could not accommodate all parents and others who would all parents and others who would be interested in attending. In past years, it has been necessary to issue tickets so that the avail-able seats would be filled by close relatives of the graduates. Now, the exercises will be open to all who wish to attend.

Who wish to attend. Graduates will be seated on the south side of the stadium, while the spectators fill the stands on north side, which will seat approxi-mately 1000 persons. A stage and appropriate setting is scheduled to be arranged. In the event of rain the gradu-ation exercises will be held in the school auditorium as usual, and school auditorium as usual, and the necessary arrangements will be made to avoid as much incon-venience as possible.

Perry To Study Science At UNC

The National Science Foundation has selected Dane Perry as a par-ticipant in the special science and math program to be held at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill June 13-July 23. The six weeks' course is de-signed to acquaint the student with research in progress and to stim-ulate original thinking on the part of the student. The National Science Foundation of the student. Dane has been placed in the mathematical and biological sci-ence courses. In mathematics he will study some of the important concepts of modern mathematics which will include number the which will include number the-ory, modern algebra, theory of sets, analysis, and geometry. The biology course will deal with the physiology and molecular biology of living organisms. In addition to studying, the program will also provide for recreational and cul-tural activities.

Senior Banquet Slated Tonight

THESE STUDENTS WERE TAPPED INTO NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

These 15 ASHS students were tapped Wednesday into the local chapter of the National Honor So-ciety. They are, left to right, front row: Teresa Yow, Charlotte Gantt, Gwen Boyd, Allison Harris and Sandy Kelley; second row: Joyce Story, Reed Furr, Mike Waller, Dane Perry and Grey Gamewell; third row: Whit Morrow, Tony Senter, David Smith, Tom Webb, and Bobby Overcash.

Activities Are Varied, Wide-Ranging For National Honor Society Members

Fifteen juniors were tapped into the National Honor Society into the National Honor Society in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the auditorium, April 21. Mrs. Frank Wester-lund, sponsor for the organiza-tion and speaker for the occa-sion, discussed the eligibility re-nuisements for membership. quirements for membership.

New members in the order in which they were tapped and their activities are as follows:

Dane Perry, who is presently vice-president of the Student Council, a marshal, historian of the Modern Music Masters, as-sistant feature editor of the Full Moon a member of the wrest. Moon, a member of the wrest-ling team and Monogram Club, and a member of the Senior Choir; Tom Webb, who is a member of the football, basketball and golf teams, a former vice-presi-dent of the WDNCSCC, a mem-ber of the Modern Music Mas-ters, a Student Council repre-sentative, and a 1964 Governor's School student: School student;

Whit Morrow, who is vice-president of the Junior Class, a member of the football and track teams, vice-president of the Math Club. a Student Council repre-sentative, and a Governor's School nominee;

School nominee; Tony Senter, editor of Bull-dog Speaks, pianist for the Spe-cial Choir and the Sophomore Chorne copy editor for the Chorus, copy editor for the Full Moon, a Governor's School nominee, and a member of the Student Council Social Commit-Sandy Kelley, Boosters Club president, Full Moon financial manager, a member of Modern Music Masters, chairman of the coordinating committee for the Junior-Senior prom, and an AFS semi-finalist;

David Smith, a homeroom president, a member of the basketball and tennis teams, of the Math Club, Modern Music Masters, Crossroads staff, and the Senior Choir. the Senior Choir;

Allison Harris, who is acting news editor of the Full Moon, a member of the Modern Music Masters and of FTA, ASHS mem-ber of the Community Concerts Association board of directors, and a 1964 Governor's School student: student;

Bobby Overcash, a student Council representative, a mem-ber of football, basketball, and track teams, of the Modern Music Masters, vice-president of the Senior Choir, and a homeroom officer;

Charlotte Gantt, a member of the Modern Music Masters, Science Club, FTA, Special Choir, and a Community Con-certs Association representative;

Grey Gamewell, a member of the tennis team and Black Mas-que of which she was an officer and make-up supervisor, and a member of the Junior - Senior prom art committee;

Reed Furr, who is president of his homeroom, a member of the track team, and of Modern Music Masters and the Senior Choir; Joyce Story, who is a mem-team; Gwen Boyd, who is a member of Modern Music Masters, ASHS band, FTA, Boosters Club, and homeroom treasurer; Teresa Yow, who is president of the Junior Red Cross, a mem-ber of the Boosters Club, Mod-ern Music Masters, Senior Choir, and the Full Moon staff. and the Full Moon staff.

Mr. Paul Fry played the pro-(Continued on Page 3, Col. 4)

Betsy Patterson Is Chosen For Govn's School

Betsy Patterson, sophomore, will attend Governor's School of North Carolina at Salem Col-lege, Winston-Salem, June 12-August 1, to study in the area of English.

Betsy, an outstanding student, has participated in several literary endeavors which include staff member of the lit-erary magazine in junior high, and co-editor of her church and co-editor of her church youth group's newspaper. She is presently training for a Full Moon staff position. Students attending the Gov-ernor's School study general sub-jects plus the subject in which they are specificiate. They also they are specializing. They also have free time in which they attend lectures and other planned events.

Mrs. Westerlund Explains New Requirements

New regulations concerning Na-tional Honor Society eligibility and faculty election procedures were carefully explained by Mrs. Nell Westerlund, NHS adviser, during the spring tapping ceremony held April 21 in the Senior High audi-torium. torium.

"This spring a situation arose in connection with determining scholarship eligibility for National Honor Society," Mrs. Westerlund began, "a situation that had been participated situation that time that anticipated since the time that members of the present Junior Class enrolled in advanced En-glish classes their sophomore year."

year." Continuing, Mrs. Westerlund pointed out that many juniors al-ready have three semesters grades in several advanced fields. If the former rules regarding scholar-ship had been maintained, stu-dents with a B- in a regular course would be eligible, while at the same time a student taking an advanced course could average a C+ and not be eligible, even though there could be only one point's difference. To remedy this unjust situation, the local NHS chapter adopted slightly different system by using the Grade Value Scale in the 1964-65 Teacher's Man-ual, which still maintains high standards for scholarship and meets basic national requirements. meets basic national requirements.

Relating to the new eligibility requirements, Mrs. Westerlund outlined the following as the policy now in use: (1) all semester grades are used. This includes both academic and non-academic subjects; (2) a failing grade, or a withdrew failing, will eliminate a student from eligibility. (3) a composite grade of 8, or a B, on the grade scale will be the lowest considered eligibility. This will be an average of all grades made. made.

To conform with national re-quirements concerning member-ship, our chapter of NHS now pership, our chapter of NHS now per-mits not more than 10 percent of the Junior Class to be members during the junior year, and not more than 15 percent of the Sen-ior Class to be enrolled during their senior year. Our faculty may now choose 10 percent of the Jun-ior Class, however, they are not required to do so. "Although scholarship is import-

"Although scholarship is import-ant for National Honor Society membership, leadership and ser-vice are also very important," Mrs. Westerlund remarked. To strengthen these areas, the NHS Faculty Committee was perma-nently enlarged to include the (Continued on Page 6, Col. 3)

Bajour will be the theme for the 1965 Senior Banquet which will be held in the cafeteria tonight. The gypsy theme will be carried throughout the banquet in the decorations, music, and favors. Members of the Junior Class will provide the entertain-ment and junior girls will serve as waitresses. The traditional epeakers of this year's banquet will be Debbie Sweet, prophet; Joanne Lisk, historian; Steve Pinkston, testator; Sally Efird, siftorian; Fran Way, superla-tives; and Carlton Hager, poet. Members of the Senior Class worked with Miss Caughman on various committees to make this banquet possible. The committee carried throughout the banquet anduet possible. The committee members were: Brookie Smith and Pearlie Rae Burris, theme; Joe Earnhardt, menu; Nancy Butter invitations; Johnny Mor-Butler, invitations; Johnny Mor-ria, property; Brenda Peeler and Annette Thomas, program; Lar-ry Thomas, Pearlie Rae Burris, and Joyce Russell, art. A large number of seniors assisted in the decorptions decorations.

ber of the Science Club, Boosters Club, Modern Music Masters, Junior Red Cross and Special Choir, and a homeroom officer; Mike Waller who is a member of the Modern Music Masters, Special Choir, Student Council, and of the wrestling All facilities, including books and other materials, laundry, room, and board are paid for by the state and foundations sup-porting the school.

Eugene Coley Chosen 'Boy of the Year' For 1965 By Albemarle Optimists

Marvin Eugene Coley, an out-standing senior at Albemarle Senior High School and editor-in-chief of the Full Moon was selected as the Albemarle Opti-mist Club's "Boy of the Year" at its regular dinner meeting Tues-day night, April 20, at the Cen-tral Methodist Church fellowship hall.

Eugene, selected from a field hall. six candidates representing each of the county's high schools was presented with a trophy and an engraved wrist watch.

The presentation was made by James C. Barker of Hickory, Governor of the North Carolina District of Optimist Internation-

Some of Eugene's accomplish-Some of Eugene's accomplish-ments, scholastically and other-wise, are as follows: eighth in his class of 220 with an average of A- for his 2½ years at senior high; football, basketball, track, and tennis; Monogram Club, Na-tional Honor Society Modern Mutional Honor Society, Modern Mu-sic Masters; Student Lion, Boy's State, Morehead Scholarship nominee, scholarship winner at N. C. State, city official during Youth Appreciation Week, and senior superlative, "Most Likely to Succeed." He is also a part-time radio announcer at WABZ, and plans to work with the State Highway Department this sum Highway Department this summer. He is also active at Grace Baptist Church where he is a member.

Bob Morgan served as chair-man of the committee arrang-ing the Boy of the Year presentation.

Full Moon Rates National Honor

The Full Moon has been notified that it is the recipient of a first place rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in annual nation-wide competition by receiving perfect scores in approximately half of the categories.

The results of the examination of the paper were printed in the Official Newspaper Scorebook. The Full Moon received 853 out of a possible 1000 points in Con-tent, Writing and Editing, Makeup, and General Considerations. The scorebook summarizes the fundamentals of journalism as they apply to student publica-tions and outlines established practices and techniques essential in the production of a good publication. The Full Moon was given special praise in the area of editorial matter and make-up.