

ASHS To Graduate 221 Seniors May 31

Mark Stambaugh Leads 1965 Class; Lowder, Second

Mark Stambaugh, who has the highest scholastic record in the Senior Class for his three years at ASHS, is Valedictorian of the class, and Jimmy Lowder, who ranks second, is Salutatorian.

Mark is a National Merit finalist, a member of the National Honor Society and of the Math Club, and president of the Science Club. He was selected last summer for the Science Training Program for High-Ability Secondary School Students at UNC at Chapel Hill. Mark plans to attend UNC next year and probably specialize in science.

Jimmy is vice-president of the National Honor Society, vice-president of Modern Music Masters, a member of the debating team, the band, the Math Club, and is sports editor of the Full Moon. He has served as a marshal and was Student Rotarian. Jimmy plans to attend Duke University where he will major in either chemistry or math.

MARK STAMBAUGH
... Valedictorian

JIMMY LOWDER
... Salutatorian

Dr. Stokes To Deliver Address In Commencement Exercises

Diplomas will be awarded to 221 seniors in Commencement exercises which will be held in the Junior High Football stadium Monday, May 31, at 8 p.m. Dr. J. Lem Stokes, president of Pfeiffer College, will deliver the main address.

Mr. Charles Pickler, chairman of the Albemarle Board of Education, will present the diplomas. Other members of the Board will be platform guests. The Reverend Leroy A. Calder, pastor of North Albemarle Baptist Church, will give the invocation.

Dr. Elroy Lamb, pastor of First Baptist Church, will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday, May 30, at 8 p.m. in the Senior High auditorium. The Reverend Anthony York, of Second Street

Presbyterian Church, will give the invocation and benediction. Scripture will be read by the Reverend George Needham, pastor of Main Street Methodist.

Tickets for both events will be distributed to graduating seniors; however, the tickets for the graduation will be needed only in the event that the ceremony cannot be held outside due to unfavorable weather conditions.

Marshals for the two events are as follows: Dane Perry, Chief; Tom Webb, David Smith, Ronnie Swanner, Bill Tucker, Edwin Sides, Beth Moose, and Louise Harrington.

Chris To Tour United States

Christian Koepcke, German exchange student, will leave Albemarle June 29 to tour the United States. Chris will attend the World's Fair in New York and be a guest of the German Ambassador in Washington, D. C.

July 23, Chris will leave New York and be in Rotterdam, Holland, August 2. There he will attend a camp for all foreign exchange students. There will be approximately three thousand students present. The President of the United States will speak to these students in Washington.

Morrow, Kelley To Head Classes For Next Year

Whit Morrow and Catherine Kelley are the elected presidents of the Senior and Junior Classes, respectively, for the 1965-66 school year. The Senior Class officers are Bobby Overcash, vice-president; Teresa Yow, secretary; and Bill Trivette, treasurer. Junior Class officers are Mark Mabry, vice-president; Cindy Hamilton, secretary; and Faye Vanhoy, treasurer.

Petitions were issued to those rising seniors seeking office, Tuesday, April 20. Voting was carried out in homerooms the next week. Those running were Whit Morrow, president; Bobby Overcash, vice-president; Teresa Yow and Lorraine Davis, secretary; and Bill Trivette, treasurer.

Nominations for Junior Class officers were held Monday, April 26. Those running were Catherine Kelley and Bill Hartsell, president; Mark Mabry and Keith Wolf, vice-president; Cindy Hamilton and Betsy Miller, secretary; Faye Vanhoy, treasurer. Election in homerooms followed on Wednesday, April 28.

Students Receive Honors In Annual Awards Day

Many students were accorded honor at the annual Awards Day, May 18. Mr. Webb began the program with the recognition of Alana Russell, David Cranford, Jimmy McBryde, the Student Council, Cheerleaders, Boosters Club, Full Moon, Crossroads, and Radio staffs, Bulletin Board Committee, FBLA, FHA, Assembly Committee, and Dramatics Club.

Miss Stasavich presented the Radio Staff Award to Matilda Boone, and the cheerleader Awards to Gayle Byrd, Brenda Peeler, Fran Way, and Nancy Butler, the senior cheerleaders. Sandy Kelley presented the Booster of the Year Award to Roger Hartsell.

Linda Long received the Biology Award from Mr. Tyson. Mr. Smith presented the Chorus Awards to Mary Thompson, and J. W. Lisk, and Mr. Hauss presented the Band Award to Butch Lowder and Ronald Blalock, and the Senior Majorette Trophies to Sue Clark, Pam Lowder, Annette Thomas, Brenda Russell, Diane Saunders, Jahala Holt, Elaine Efird, and Kitty Purser.

The Home Economics Awards were presented to Anne Gaddy and Diane Barbee by Miss Brooks; and Barbara Caudle received the Crisco Award. Library Awards were given to Roger Crisco and Wynell Gardner by Mrs. Harrison. Mrs. Brown accorded the Dramatics Awards to Emalynn Helms, Joe Earnhardt, Fran Way, Rusty Vick, Pearlise Rae Burris, and Grey Gamewell. Pat Russell received the DECA Award.

Mrs. Carter presented the FBLA Award and the Shorthand Award to Betty Morton and Laura Doby, respectively. The Debating Awards were given to Terry Lorch, Sara Mabry, Charles Daniel, and Keith Wolf by Mr. Altman.

Mrs. Young presented the Student Council Awards to Charles Morton, Dane Perry, Joanne Lisk, Ginny Rogers, and Tom Webb an dthe Service Award to Bobby Gene Lowder. Mr. Webb gave the Attendance Award to Bobby G. Lowder.

Allison Harris received the

Senter, Vick Named Editors

Heading the staffs of next years publications will be Tony Senter as editor of the Full Moon and Robbie Vick as editor and Tom Webb as financial manager of the Crossroads.

Leading the staff of the Full Moon are Buck Snuggs, promotion manager; Sandy Kelley, business manager; Dane Perry, editorial editor; Allison Harris, news editor; Ginny Rogers, feature editor; Carolyn Eury, sports editor; Debbie Weemhoff, art editor; Randy Burton, photograph editor; and Teresa Yow as copy editor.

Other appointments are Billy Sikes, cartoonist; Edwin Sides, financial manager; Debbie Weemhoff, advertising manager; Keith Wolf, circulation manager; Joe Beaman, exchange editor; Bill Hartsell, assistant sports editor; Linda Long, assistant news editor; Cindy Hamilton, club editor; and Betsy Patterson assistant feature editor.

Other staff members will be Marian Cranford, Grey Gamewell Elicia Harwood, Dianne Hill, Michal Medling, Oron Palmer, and Faye Vanhoy.

'Bajour' Finishes Senior Week

Bajour, the '65 Senior Banquet staged in the senior high gymnasium climaxed the annual Senior Week, May 3-7.

Honoring the seniors on Monday was the faculty; Tuesday, the Sophomore Class, Wednesday, the Student Council; and Thursday, the Junior Class. On Friday, an assembly was held.

Johnny Morris, president of the Senior Class, presided over the Senior Banquet. Mr. Claud Grigg, superintendent of city schools, gave the invocation.

Featured on the program were Joanne Lisk, historian; Frances M. Way, superlatives; Debbie Sweet, prophesy; Carlton Hager, poet; and Steve Pinkston, testator; Sally Efird, giftorian.

Entertainment for the occasion was presented by the Junior Class.

Seniors Map Future Activities

Wingate Junior College, Central Piedmont College, Kings College, East Carolina College, Pfeiffer College, and many other schools and colleges will be the new homes of a large number of ASHS seniors next year.

Moving to Wingate Junior College in September will be Wayne Harkey, Johnny Burleson, Eddie Lane, Alan Rothwell, Joe McManus, Warren Simmons, Lee Youngblood, Tony Wolfe, Mickey Burleson, Gus Holbrook, Tommy Alley, Ann Hatley, Richard Olsen, Tim Clark, Heath Godfrey, Jim Wilhelm, Terry Leitch, Sue Cooper, Jerry Talbert, Diane Tyng, Jim Bivens, Priscilla Furr, and Vernell Townsend.

Central Piedmont will claim Matilda Boone, Curtis Pierce, Ronald Parks, Lane Taylor, Diane Saunders, Ronald Thompson, James Manning, Faye Holleman, Mike Davis, Diane Morton, Marcell Hatley, Richard Frick, Lionel Rushing, and Buddy Melton.

Kings College in Charlotte will welcome Carolyn Caudle, Linda Hatley, Janie Ragsdale, Linda Dennis, Buckie Rogers, Sue Callaway, Shelia Talbert, Sherry Hunsucker, Eddie Dixon, Jane Hartley, Darrell Harward, Harold Efird, Terry Morris, Gayle Byrd, Linda Griffin, John Morton, Laura Doby, Carlotta Taylor, Vicky Mesimer, Sue Culp, and Linda Sells.

Greenville will be the home of these new East Carolina students: Butch Lowder, Pam Lowder, Jan Claywell, Elaine Efird, Ralph Mann, David Miller, Jerry Beaver, Lynn Calder, Kay Carpenter, Mary Alice Lambeth, and Shelia Hall.

In attendance at Pfeiffer College next fall will be Roddy Drye, Steve Pinkston, Pearlise Rae Burris, Billy Cotton, Sherry Fretina, Sarah Anne Mann, Peggy Dick, and Kathy Gamewell.

Nine seniors will enter the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill: Terry Lorch, Johnny Morris, Darrell Newton, Charles Morton, Mark Stambaugh, Joe Earnhardt, Eugene Coley, Sally Efird, and Bobby G. Lowder.

Attending State College in Raleigh will be Eddie Mauldin, Bob Smith, Rusty Vick, J. W. Lisk, Daniel Blalock, Kelly Jones, Henry Fox, and David Boyer. Debbie Sweet, Joanne Lisk, and Edith Johnson will enter the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Linda Lewis and Jerry Ford plan to attend the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone will claim Emily Lowder, Gwen Sasser, Jayne Harris, Joyce Russell, Linda Lorch, Ronald Blalock, Robbie Bost, and Nancy Butler.

Norton Pease and Tommy Taylor will be in the mountains at Western Carolina College.

Brown Bivens and Brenda Peeler will study at Wake Forest College.

Sue Plyler will journey to Raleigh where she will attend Meredith College.

Jimmy Lowder will spend his next four years at Duke University.

Peace College in Raleigh will claim Annette Thomas, and Shelia Lowder will enter Sullins College.

Larry Thomas will be in Salisbury at Catawba College.

St. Mary's Junior College will receive Jane Austin, and Inez (Continued on Page 8)

History Award from Mrs. Westlund, and Diane Morgan and Gwen Sasser received the Girls Physical Education Awards from Mrs. Gamewell.

Mrs. Fry presented the Achievement Award to Nancy Butler, and the Danforth Foundation "I Dare You" Awards to Joanne Lisk and Joe Earnhardt. Mr. Frazier and Dr. John S. Gaskin, Jr. presented the Dr. John and Mrs. Madge Gaskin Athletic Awards to Tony Wolfe and Lynn Colder.

Jerry Wagoner delivered the Wildacres Award to Grey Gamewell, and the Civitan Club Citizenship Award to Charles Morton. Gene Dry and Sandy Kelly presented the Optimist Club Safe Driving Awards to Robbie Bost and Gus Holbrook.

Charlotte Gantt and David Smith received the DAR Good Citizenship Awards. Dr. Keith Wolf recognized the students who will attend Boys' State. Mrs. Fry recognized the students who will attend Governor's School and the Science Symposium, Betsy Patterson, Gwen Boyd, and Dane Perry.

Mr. Webb presented the Salutatorian and Valedictorian Awards to Jimmy Lowder and Mark Stambaugh, respectively.

(Continued on Page Six)

Spring Concert Goes 'Showboat'

'Showboat' was the central theme of the annual Spring Concert which was presented Friday evening, May 14 in the ASHS auditorium.

Four choral groups: the Senior Choir, the Varsity Singers, the Sophomore Chorus, and the Ninth Grade Chorus, a total of more than 200 students, sang in concert under the direction of Mr. Paul Fry.

A variety of numbers for this presentation featured selections from "The Sound of Music," "My Fair Lady," "Show Boat," and Mary Poppins." A number of selected soloists were also featured on the program.