

School Leaders Win New Honors

DANE PERRY

TOM WEBB

Perry, Webb Are Morehead Winners

Dane Perry and Tom Webb have been awarded Morehead Scholarships to study at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The announcement was made March 3 by Norman A. Cocke of Charlotte, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the John Motley Morehead Foundation. A total of 102 North Carolina boys were recipients of the $5800 awards for four years of study.

Dane, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Perry, Jr., is a National Merit Finalist, president of the Student Council, and a member of the National Honor Society, the Full Moon staff, and the varsity wrestling team.

Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Webb, Jr. He is the business manager of the Crossroads yearbook, president of the National Honor Society, and a member of the varsity football, basketball, and golf teams.

The Morehead Foundation, founded in 1945, first presented awards in 1951. Other Morehead Scholars from ASHS include Richard Gordon Cashwell, 1955; Wade Marvin Smith, 1956; David Lee Grigg and Robert Lawrence Smith, 1957; Roger William Smith, 1959; and Charles Palmer Brown, 1960.

H. T. WEBB, JR.

Mr. Webb To Become Superintendent

H. T. "Toby" Webb, presently principal of Albemarle Senior High School, will be promoted to the position of Albemarle School Superintendent at the end of the current school year. The promotion was announced March 10 at the City Board Meeting as Claud Grigg, current Albemarle School Superintendent, stated his decision of retirement after 47 years of activity in public education.

Mr. Webb came to Albemarle in 1947 and was teacher and coach of the football team for 12 years. He was principal of Central Elementary School during 1954-55 and of Albemarle Junior High during 1958-60. In 1960 he advanced to the principalship of Albemarle Senior High.

Moonbeams

Perfect Attendance

Perfect attendance results for the previous six weeks grading period are seniors, bringing up the rear with 63; juniors, heading the list with 88; and the sophomores, with 69, bringing the total to 220. Congratulations, juniors!

Lion And Rotarian

Congratulations to Bob Hall and Billy Wilhelm who have been serving as Student Lion and Rotarian for the month of March.

Election Plans

March 7 and 8 were chosen as registration days for sophomores, new students, and any other students who had not previously registered. Petitions circulated March 9-15. Six rising seniors petitioned the offices of President and Treasurer, and 8 rising juniors petitioned the offices of Vice-President and Secretary. Nominating conventions took place March 28, and campaign speeches were presented by the candidates March 31. Elections will be held April 5.

Graduation

For the first time, this year baccalaureate and graduation exercises will be combined into one ceremony. Commencement is scheduled for Friday night, June 3, in the Junior High School stadium.

Plans are that religious hymns will be used in the program, and the invocation and benediction of the baccalaureate service will be retained. The combined service was decided upon after discussion and voting on the proposal by the Senior Class.

Two Students Enter District Science Fair

Two students in Mr. Hatley's physics class entered projects in the South Piedmont Science Fair conducted Saturday, March 26, in the Charlotte Coliseum. Tommy McSwain entered a project on sound waves and demonstration of an oscilloscope. Bill Trivette prepared a project on light bulbs in a series and parallel. The projects were judged in the afternoon and displayed to the public until 5:30 p. m.

The physics class has just completed a series of twelve experiments on the properties of music and sound. It was from this study that Tommy McSwain got the idea for his science project.

Six Achieve High Honor Roll

Teresa Yow, Allison Harris, Joy Vanderburg, Linda Long, Marian Cranford, and Marlene Whitley achieved the highest honor roll for the fourth six weeks.

Seniors making honor roll are Buck Snuggs, Mike Waller, Wendy Barry, Alberta Doby, Grey Game-well, Nancy Ussery, Gwen Boyd, Bobby Overcash, William Sherrill, Cynthia Freeman, Sandy Kelley, Jean Ray, Barbara Ann Smith, Charles Daniel, Mark Cook, David Smith, Jimmy Stockton, Tom Webb, Vickie Alexander, Janis Clarke, Charlotte Gant, Fredia Plyler, Pat Snipes, Joyce Story, Robbie Vick, Ellen Wilson, Paul Carder, Ned Hammond, Steve Kendrick, Dane Perry, Carolyn Eury, Barbara Lowder, Ginny Rogers, Nancy Walker, Cecilia Corne, Lorraine Davis, and Barbara Shaver.

Juniors attaining honor include Merle Britt, Charleen Huneycutt, Bill Hartsell, Elicia Harwood, Debbie Weemhoff, Catherine Kelley, Betsy Miller, Jane Sanges, Beverly Tarlton, Ann Underwood, James DeTorre, Oron Palmer, Betsy Patterson, Joe Crumpler, Mark Mabry, Paulette Balfrey, Joy Schreyer, Ricky Burleson, Gerald Hatley, Bruce Smith, Steve Brown, Edwin Sides, Linda Biles, Beth Eddins, Linda Laton, and Gail Lowder.

Sophomores gaining honor are David Hall, Alice Hinson, Cam West, David Mills, Jane Nicholds, Cynthia Noah, Jimmy Harwood, Kitty Fisher, Sherry Lefler, and Elaine Thompson.

Honor Society Gives Tea For Honor Rollers

The National Honor Society gave a tea March 11 from 2:00-3:05 p. m. in the Student Lounge for those students who made the semester honor roll.

Each student attending the tea had previously received a written invitation which allowed entrance into the lounge. Students and teachers were served cokes, cookies and Spanish peanuts. Decorations in the Student Lounge followed the theme of St. Patrick's Day. The bulletin board displayed a Lucky Irishman surrounded with shamrocks. Names of each student at the tea were written in white ink on a paper shamrock and attached to the windows of the lounge. Music for the Tea was provided by records.

The Honor Society Tea is an annual event sponsored by the National Honor Society under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Westlund.

Juniors Honor Seniors Tonight At Annual Prom

The 1965-66 Junior-Senior Prom will be conducted tonight in the gymnasium. Members of both the Junior and Senior Classes have received engraved invitations to the annual event which will begin at 8 p.m. and end at 12 midnight.

The name of the combo as well as the theme has been kept a secret this year to add to the excitement. The combo that has been secured consists of a trumpet, a saxophone, drums, an electric guitar, and a piano.

Juniors began planning in February in order to complete the theme in time. Actual work in the gymnasium has been going on for approximately a week. The theme this year is one that has never been attempted here.

Richard Cashwell is now with the Dept. of Admissions at UNC-CH. Wade Smith, who received his LLB degree at Chapel Hill, is now in Raleigh, and David Grigg, who received his LLB degree at Duke, is practicing in Charlotte.

Robert Smith received a Fellowship to study at the University of Maine and earned his PH.D. in chemistry. He is now doing research in chemistry at UNC-CH. Both Roger Smith and Charles Brown are still in law school at Chapel Hill.

Morehead Scholarships are presented on the basis of outstanding merit as reflected in academic ability, character and leadership, without consideration of need.

Choirs Rate High In District Meet

The Senior Choir, the Varsity Singers, and the Sophomore Chorus participated in the District Choral Concert in Owens Auditorium, Charlotte, March 10. The Varsity Singers received a superior rating, one of thirteen given in the contest; the Senior Choir received an excellent plus rating; the Sophomore Chorus, an excellent rating.

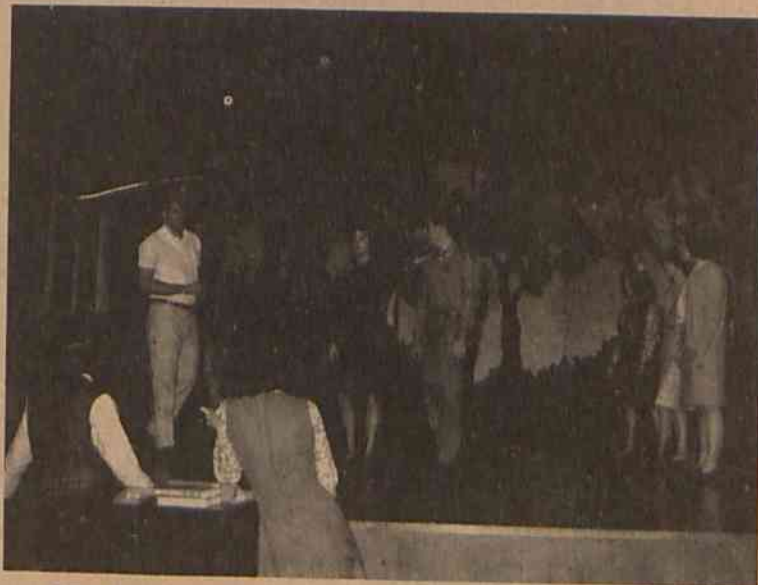

Forty-three choirs representing thirteen different counties participated in the contest. Judges were Miss Eula Tuttle, Grimsley High School, Greensboro; Mr. Richard Cox, UNC-G; and Mr. Thane McDonald, Wake Forest College.

Students Combine Talents For 'Annie Get Your Gun'

The musical Broadway production, "Annie Get Your Gun," featuring talents of the Dramatics Club, chorus members, and the Senior High Band was presented March 24, 25 and 26 in the Albemarle Senior High School auditorium with the performances beginning at 8 p.m.

This sensational play, under the direction of Miss Gaye Holshouser, drama coach; Mr. Paul B. Fry, chorus director; and Mr. George T. Hauss, band director, was the first major Broadway play ever to be presented in the high school auditorium.

Those who led the cast include Jane Lowder as Annie Oakley; Charles Daniel as Frank Butler; David Smith, Charlie Davenport; Tom Webb, Buffalo Bill; Tommy Smith, Pawnee Bill; Bill Burney, Chief Sitting Bull; Cynthia Freeman, Dolly Tate; Nancy Almond, Winnie Tate; Reed Furr, Tommy Keeler; Danny Lisk, Foster Wilson; and Johnny Helms, Fossie (Continued on Page 6)

Miss Holshouser directs the cast of "Annie Get Your Gun" during a fourth period rehearsal for the production, which was given March 24, 25 and 26.