

Trivette Chosen To Attend West Point

Bill Trivette will attend the United States Military Academy at West Point for the next four years. Congressman James T. Broyhill made the announcement Saturday, April 30.

Bill's four year study will begin in July and he will graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree and a commission in the Regular Army as Second Lieutenant.

Five other boys competed with Bill for one of the two vacancies from the Ninth District at the Academy in 1966. Competition through the 11 counties in the district was conducted by Mr. Broyhill.

Bill has served as Junior Class president, Senior Class treasurer, homeroom president and treasurer, Student Rotarian, and a member of the Crossroads business staff, the Science Club, the Monogram Club, the tennis and basketball teams, and the Student Council.

A member of Central Methodist Church and the MYF, he is an Eagle Scout, a member of the Order of the Arrow, and a past president of the Explorer Post. Bill also acts as vice-president of his Hi-Y.

Two Study Leadership

Edwin Sides and Keith Wolf attended a leadership conference for high school students at Wake Forest College, April 22-23.

Following a buffet dinner Friday evening, Mr. Russell Brantley, Director of Communications, spoke to conference participants. Later that night, everyone attended "The Glass Menagerie" which was performed by the Wake Forest College Theater Group.

Saturday morning, the boys took a tour of the Army ROTC Department and attended a publications seminar at 10:30.

The students had luncheon at 11:30, and Dr. L. H. Hollingsworth, Chaplain of Wake Forest, was the speaker. The remainder of the afternoon was spent attending various leadership conference seminars. A pro-con panel discussion on the Value of Extracurricular Activities concluded the conference, with the boys returning late Saturday afternoon.

The purpose of the conference was to increase the leadership abilities of high school students and to share experience and ideas under the guidance of college student leaders and faculty members. Approximately 75 students from North Carolina schools attended.

MOONBEAMS

Crossroads Heads

Beth Eddins and Joe Crumpler have been appointed heads of the 1967 Crossroads. Beth will serve as editor; Joe, as business manager.

Lion, Rotarian

Congratulations to Steve Kendrick and Lanny Lowder who have been named Student Lion and Student Rotarian, respectively, for the month of May.

Perfect Attendance

Perfect attendance results for the month of May are seniors second with 68; juniors falling behind with 63; and sophomores in the lead with 71 to give a 202 total. Good work, sophomores!

Diplomas Go To 163 Seniors

Harris, Perry Are '66 Class Top Scholars

Allison Harris and Dane Perry have been named Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively, of the Senior Class. Allison ranks first and Dane ranks second scholastically in a class of 166.

Allison has distinguished herself in many areas during her school career. She is presently serving as editor of the Full Moon. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Modern Music Masters, Student Council, Boosters Club, and various other organizations. She attended the Governor's School at Salem College in the field of English, and she is a National Merit Scholarship finalist. Allison will attend Duke University and study in the area of humanities.

Dane also holds a very good record for his school years. He was elected vice president and president of the Student Council in two consecutive years. He is a member of National Honor Society, Modern Music Masters, the Full Moon editorial editor, and the wrestling team, lettering in this sport for the past three years. He attended the National Science Foundation Summer School at UNC-CH. Dane was honored recently by being selected Stanly County "Boy of the Year." He is a recipient of the Morehead Scholarship of the John Motley Morehead Foundation and will study at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill for the next four years. Dane was also a National Merit finalist.

Icelandic Girl To Stay Here

Asta Hrolfsdottir of Reykjavik, Iceland will be next year's American Field Service foreign exchange student to Albemarle.

Asta will stay in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Moose, whose daughter, Beth, is a rising senior. She will arrive in the United States in August, study at ASHS during the 1966-67 school year, and graduate with the Senior Class of 1967.

Seniors Plan Varied Features

In the fall, a large number of ASHS seniors will move to a variety of colleges throughout the eastern United States.

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will be the home of Reed Furr, Tom Webb, David Smith, Robert Overcash, William Sherrill, Lynn Burleson, Mark Cook, Dane Perry, Mike Waller, Roger Lowder, and Nancy Walker.

Emalynn Helms, Gahlon James, Janis Clarke, Billy Tucker, Barbara A. Smith, Charles Daniel, Cynthia Freeman, Rodney Medlin, Wendy Barry, and Charles McSwain will journey to Greenville to study at East Carolina College.

Attending State College in Raleigh will be Charles Lefler, Bob Hall, Don Terry, Steve Kendrick, and Buck Snuggs.

David Almond, Lowell Cook, and Barbara J. Smith will travel to the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Travelling to Boone will be Nancy Ussery and Carolyn Eury who will study at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Eddie Mauldin, Bill Burney, and Carl Hicks have enrolled at

Would you believe? Allison Harris and Dane Perry refuse to wait for graduation exercises.

Many Students Honored At Annual Awards Day

Many students were honored at the annual Awards Day program May 18. Mr. Webb began the program by recognizing David Cranford, Jimmy McBryde, Doris Dorsey, Sheila Phifer, FHA, and FBLA.

Dr. Dera Parkinson presented the DAR Good Citizenship Awards to Bill Hartsell and Debbie Weemhoff. Cheerleader Awards were presented to the senior cheerleaders, Barbara Smith, Cynthia Freeman, Kathy Fretina, and Barbara Peck by Sandy Kelley. She also presented the Booster of the Year Award to Emalynn Helms.

Students Receive Science Awards
Tommy McSwain and Bill Trivette received Physics Awards from Mr. Hatley. Linda Long received the chemistry Award. Mr. Hatley also recognized Linda Long, Jim DeTore, Bill Hartsell, and Oron Palmer for their acceptance in the NSF Summer Programs. Mr. Tyson presented Marlene Whitley and Alice Hinson Biology Awards. Jean Ray received the Advanced Biology Award.

Elaine Solomon received the Choral Award presented by Mr. Fry. Mr. Ted Furr, representing the Albemarle Optimist Club, presented for the first time the Optimist Club Chorus Award to Mike Waller.

Miss Brooks recognized Sheri Talbert, who is ASHS's winner in the Betty Crocker Search for the Homemaker of Tomorrow. The awards for the highest average in Home Economics II and III were given to Nancy Kusche and Sylvia Huneycutt. The Crisco Award presented by the Proctor and Gamble Company went to Catherine Kelley. A special service award which is not presented annually was given to Sarah Cox.

Athletes Receive Honors
The Physical Fitness Award was presented by Mr. Cain to Rip Furr. The Dr. John Gaskin Athletic Award was presented to Tom Webb and Bobby Overcash by Mr. Frazier. Linda Lucas received the Dr. Madge Gaskin Athletic Award. Mr. Tyson recognized the Athletic Award Winner.
(Continued on Page 8)

Diplomas will be awarded to 163 seniors in combined Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises in the Junior High School football stadium Friday, June 3, at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. T. L. Cashwell, pastor of Hayes-Barton Baptist Church of Raleigh and former pastor of First Baptist Church of Albemarle, will deliver the main address.

Mr. Charles Pickler, chairman of the Albemarle Board of Education, assisted by Mr. Webb, will present the diplomas to the graduating seniors.

Marshals for the event are as follows: Louise Harrington, chief; Bill Hartsell, Linda Long, Edwin Sides, Mark Mabry, Jane Lowder, Jimmy Harwood, and David Mills.

Long Will Edit '66-'67 Full Moon

Linda Long, presently serving as news editor for the Full Moon staff, has been appointed editor-in-chief for the next school year.

Others leading the Full Moon staff for the 1966-67 school term are Edwin Sides, business manager; Randy Burton, promotion manager; Keith Wolf, editorial editor; Joe Beaman, advertising manager; Debbie Weemhoff, art editor; Elicia Harwood, news editor; Faye Vanhoy, assistant news editor; Betsy Patterson, feature editor; Michal Medling, assistant feature editor; Bill Hartsell, sports editor; Cindy Hamilton, assistant sports editor; Oron Palmer, columnist; and Marian Cranford, typist.

The following sophomores will be assigned their positions on the staff next fall: Patricia Burleson, Ronnie Burris, Kitty Fisher, Alice Hinson, Sherry Lefler, Jane Lowder, David Mills, Jane Nicholds, Kay Waddell, and Marlene Whitley.

Two Will Attend S. O. Workshop

Louise Harrington and Edwin Sides have been chosen to attend the annual North Carolina Student Council Workshop at Mars Hills College, July 18-22.

The workshop theme will be "The Prismatic Perspective of Leadership." Supervision will be by Mr. Earl Reum, Director of Camp Cheley, the National Leadership Workshop in Denver, Colorado.

During the week of activity, Edwin and Louise will serve on make-believe councils which will provide them with the opportunity of improving their leadership abilities.

AFS Students To Visit Here

Foreign exchange students who have spent the last year in various parts of Texas will be in Albemarle July 8-10.

These students, sponsored by the American Field Service, will stop here as a part of a bus tour they will be taking through the southern part of the United States.

The 40 students and two chaperones will begin their trip from Houston, Texas, and will end in Washington, D. C. While in Albemarle, they will stay in local homes, and their entertainment will be handled by the Albemarle-Stanly County Chamber of Commerce.
(Continued on Page 8)

Alexander, and Jean Ray.

Four to Study at Lees-McRae
Ned Hammond, Cecelia Shankle, Linwood Harwood, and Susan Hopkins will study at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk.

Salem College will claim Sandy Kelley and Ginny Rogers.

David Earnhardt and John Brooks will enter Gaston Tech. Studying in Charlotte will be Sheila Phifer and Barbara Peck at Alverson-Draughton, and Danny Wood and Judy Hinson at Charlotte Business College.

Doris Dorsey and Celia Mauldin will enter Florida Technical College.

Sheri Talbert, Linda Ritchie, and Linda Lucas will study at Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Charlotte.

Kings College will receive Billy Whitley and Jan Deane.

Fredia Plyler has been accepted at Lenoir Rhyne.

Duke University will receive Allison Harris this fall.

Entering Davidson College will be Whit Morrow.

Bill Trivette will become a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy.
(Continued on Page 8)

Western Carolina.

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro will claim Gwen Boyd and Grey Gamewell.

Wingate Accepts Many

Twenty-one seniors will enter Wingate Junior College: David Ritchie, Leon Helms, Dwight Russell, Carolyn Burris, Cathy Fretina, Ronney Swanner, Robin Love, Judy Lewis, Martha Garrison, Billy Wilhelm, Gerald Safrit, Bobby Tucker, Danny Lisk, Sid Smith, Bob Townsend, Debbie Arey, Sidney Fields, George Burleson, Steve Hathcock, Joyce Bailey, and Nancy Laton.

Central Piedmont will claim Gary Furr, Allan Blake, David Mullis, Winnie Dry, Dianne Sandoval, Linda Fesperman, Terry Dennis, Buddy Holt, Mike Smith, Sarah Cox, Wade Hatley, Barbara Lowder, Sylvia Huneycutt, Carolyn Parker, David Long, Joe Smith, James Redwine, Jerry Myers, and Dickie Talbert.

Five seniors will study at Pfeiffer College this fall: Joyce Story, Robbie Vick, Teresa Yow, Lanny Lowder, and Chuck Smith.

Meredith College in Raleigh will receive Charlotte Gant, Vickie