

Teresa, David, Neesie, and Beth gather in the office for a trial run of future duties.

Student Body Elects Leaders

David Hall, Teresa Wagoner, Neesie Huneycutt, and Beth Burris will serve as student council officers for the 1967-68 school year.

David, who participates on the football, tennis, and track teams, has been serving as Junior Class Treasurer. He is a member of various clubs in the school and church.

A cheerleader and an active member of the Boosters' Club, Teresa is president of her home-room. She will be a member of the journalism staff next year.

Neesie, a member of the basketball team, is secretary of the Sophomore Class. She, too, has been chosen for The Full Moon staff.

An AFS candidate, Beth is acting as co-chairman for the prom decorations committee. She serves in the Senior Choir, Boosters' Club, and S. O. Social Committee.

The Friday elections were preceded by campaign speeches Wednesday, March 29.

David Hall and Fossie Webb, whose campaign managers were Beth Eddins and Elicia Harwood, respectively, sought the office of president.

Running for vice-president were Billy Freeman, whose campaign manager was Randy Burton; and Teresa Wagoner, whose manager was Bill Har-sell.

Linda Carpenter, managed by Banks Garrison, and Neesie Huneycutt, managed by Steve Hicks, sought the position of secretary.

Beth Burris and Marlene Whitley were opponents for the office of treasurer. Beth Moose and Joy Schreyer were their campaign managers.

These students were selected to run at the nominating conventions Tuesday, March 21.

Jane Lowder also sought the office of president, and Betty Fesperman ran for the treasurer's nomination.

Edwin Sides, S. O. president, and Ann Underwood, chairman of the elections committee, presided over the assemblies.

Hartsell Wins Cannon Mills Scholarship

Bill Hartsell, senior, has been named as a recipient of the Cannon Mills Scholarship.

The scholarship is one of four awarded each year by Cannon Mills to high school seniors who plan to study in the area of textiles at North Carolina State University in Raleigh.

It is given in the amount of $1,000 per year for four years. No obligations are placed on the recipients of the scholarship.

Other applicants from the school were Joe Crumpler, Gerald Hatley, and Steve Brown. All of these were selected as finalists among the forty-eight applicants.

The sixteen finalists were given a tour of the mills March 27 and final interviews before the scholarship committee April 4 and 5.

Whitley To Edit 'The Full Moon'

Marlene Whitley will serve as editor-in-chief of the Full Moon for the 1967-68 school year. She is serving on the news staff this year.

Other major appointments are as follows: David Mills, business manager; Kitty Fisher, advertising manager; Pat Burleson, promotion manager; Jane Lowder, editorial editor; Alice Hinson, news editor; Sherry Lefler, assistant news editor; Kay Waddell and Jane Nicholds, co-feature editors; Ronnie Burris, sports editor; and David Hall, assistant sports editor.

The announcement of staff positions was made by Mrs. Nancy I. Gamewell Monday, April 3.

Lowder Runs For District Council Office

Jane Lowder, an outstanding junior, ran for the office of president of the Western District of North Carolina Student Council Congress Friday and Saturday, April 14 and 15. Shelby High School served as host for the delegates.

Other delegates to the convention were Pam Medling and Fossie Webb, and unofficial delegates were Edwin Sides and David Hall.

Jane's campaign manager for the election was Mike Hewat from Hickory.

Jane served as leader of discussion groups concerning foreign exchange programs Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Campaign speeches for the elections took place Friday afternoon and voting, Saturday morning. The students were honored with a banquet and dance Friday night.

Accompanying the group of WDNCSCC delegates was Miss Gay Holshouser.

Senior Banquet Tomorrow Night

MOONBEAMS

SAT

College-bound juniors will take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) Saturday morning, May 6.

The Achievement Tests and the Writing Sample will be administered that afternoon.

Lion And Rotarian

Student Lion and Rotarian for the month of April are Gerald Whitley and Oron Palmer, respectively.

Congratulations, boys!

Mark shows awards to Mrs. Fry.

Mark Mabry Chosen 'Boy Of The Year'

Mark Mabry was selected as the Albemarle Optimist Club's "Boy of the Year" at the regular Tuesday night dinner meeting, April 18, at the Central Methodist Church fellowship hall.

Mabry was chosen for the honor from a group of young men representing each of the different schools in Stanly County. The boys were judged in the areas of athletics, scholarship, civic activities, and religious activities, and were interviewed by a committee headed by Mr. Bob Morgan.

Dr. Charles M. Johnston of Charlotte, Optimist Governor of North Carolina, presented Mark with a trophy and a wrist watch.

Mark has led an outstanding career while at Senior High. He has served as president of the Junior Class, Senior Class president, marshal, Boy's State delegate, member of the National Honor Society, member of the Youth for Democracy Club, and Varsity Singers.

Much of Mark's time is occupied with sports as a member of the baseball and basketball teams. This year he was selected All Conference in basketball and was selected to play in the Marion Civitan Classic.

As an active member of the First Presbyterian Church, Mark served this year as chairman of the city-wide Youth Breakfasts.

Vol. 33, No. 8 Albemarle Senior High School, Albemarle, N. C. April 28, 1967

THE FULL MOON

National Honor Society Taps 14

Fourteen juniors were tapped into the local chapter of the National Honor Society in a candlelight ceremony, April 13.

Mr. Brett Fenwick, assistant Pastor of First Presbyterian Church spoke to the student body. He stressed the importance of non-conformity in high school years concluding that "when men forsake their private conscience for public opinion, they lead their country to chaos."

New members in the order in which they were tapped and their activities are as follows:

Marlene Whitley: homeroom president, Biology Award, Governor's School Nominee, junior class talent show committee, Junior-Senior Prom committee, 1967-1968 Full Moon Editor, MYF treasurer, MYF Subdistrict Outreach chairman, Stanly Subdistrict chair, and MYF Subdistrict president;

Jane E. Lowder: Student Council Western District North Carolina Student Council Congress secretary, North Carolina Student Council Congress secretary, discussion leader at National Student Council delegate and junior counselor, Inter-Club Council Committee chairman, Student Council Executive Board, Dramatics Club, Boosters' Club, Homecoming Decorations Committee, Assistant Promotions Manager of Full Moon, senior Banquet waitress, Junior-Senior Prom committee, marshal, "World Peace" contest winner and tour to New York, American Field Service finalist, MYF treasurer, MYF Subdistrict corresponding secretary, MYF Subdistrict Newsletter secretary-editor, United Nations Seminar to New York, day camp for retarded children, and Tri-Hi-Y;

David Hall: 1967-1968 student body president, Boosters' Club, Modern Music Masters, homeroom president, vice president, Junior Class treasurer, football letterman, tennis, track, weight lifting, Black Masque Club, Monogram Club, Junior-Senior Prom committee, Church Youth Council, Sunday school class president, secretary, Youth Breakfast Committee, Youth Choir, and Hi-Y;

Jimmy Harwood: Student Council, basketball, track, band, Modern Music Masters, marshal, Junior-Senior Prom committee, homeroom officer, Monogram Club, MYF, Sunday school class officer, and Hi-Y;

Kitty Fisher: Boosters' Club, Junior Class secretary, Governor's School nominee, Junior-Senior Prom committee, Senior Banquet waitress, Christmas Dance committee, talent show, Full Moon Exchange Editor, concession stand, Youth Fellowship teacher, Church Committee, and violin soloist;

Betty Fesperman: Student Council, cheerleader, House and Grounds Committee chairman, Junior-Senior Prom committee, Senior Banquet waitress, Boosters' Club, talent show, Homecoming, Catholic Church choir, Bible School teacher, Tri-Hi-Y basketball and volleyball and Tri-Hi-Y treasurer;

Fossie Webb: Sophomore Class president, Student Council, basketball, Black Masque, student body vice-president, alternate cheerleader, talent show, Junior-Senior Prom Committee, WDNCSCC delegate, and Tri-Hi-Y;

Alice Hinson: Student Council, Biology Award, homeroom treasurer, 1967-1968 Full Moon News Editor, talent show committee, Junior-Senior Prom committee, Sunday school class president, Girls' Auxiliary vice-president, Baptist Training Union, Youth Choir secretary, Adult Church Choir, and Youth Week;

Pam Medling: Sophomore Class vice-president, homeroom president, cheerleader, student body secretary, Junior-Senior Banquet waitress, Assembly Committee, talent show, Christmas Dance committee, publicity committee for chocolate sale, WDNCSCC delegate, Church choir, Tri-Hi-Y basketball and volleyball, and European Travel Camp;

Beth Burris: 1967-1968 student body treasurer, Boosters' Club, homeroom president, Social Committee, Junior-Senior Prom committee, concession stand, SHF secretary, Youth Council, Service Committee, Committee of Twenty, American Field Service finalist, Stanly County Arts Guild and Tri-Hi-Y;

Johnny Little: Student Council, Junior Class vice-president, basketball, baseball, homeroom president, Monogram Club, chief marshal for 1967-1968, and Hi-Y;

Cynthia Noah: Student Council, basketball letterman, Monogram Club, Sunday school class president, and vice-president, Church Organization treasurer, and Tri-Hi-Y president.

These fourteen students from the Junior Class were tapped into the National Honor Society Thursday, April 13.