

164 Seniors To Receive Diplomas

Long, Harwood Achieve Top Class Honors

Linda Long has acquired the academic honor of Valedictorian, and Elicia Harwood, the academic honor of Salutatorian of the Class of 1967.

In addition to her high scholastic record, Linda has participated in many activities and received many honors. She serves as editor-in-chief of the Full Moon, Senior Class vice president, treasurer of the National Honor Society, marshal, and Student Council representative. She attended the National Science Foundation Summer School at Clemson and represented ASHS on the "Klassroom Kwiz." Her honors include the National Merit Letter of Commendation, a Governor's School nomination, and awards in biology, history, and chemistry. She was selected as Senior Class Beauty and a Senior Superlative. Linda will attend Lenoir Rhyne College.

Elicia also has a distinguished high school record. She is secretary of the National Honor Society, treasurer of the Youth for Democracy Club, Full Moon news editor, co-chairman of the Student Council social committee, and a Senior Superlative. She will be installed as Worthy Advisor, the highest office of Rainbow Girls in June. Elicia will attend Lenoir Rhyne College next fall.

Steve Brown To Attend Annapolis Naval Academy

Steve Brown recently received an appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He will enter the Academy June 27.

Congressman James T. Broyhill, who confirmed the appointment, praised Steve highly and expressed his pleasure concerning the appointment.

Beginning his efforts in his junior year, Steve made his formal application to Congressman Broyhill early this year.

Steve is a member of the National Honor Society, attended Boys' State last year, and lettered in football, wrestling, and track.

Linda Long consults the dictionary as she disputes Elicia Harwood's spelling.

Students Are Honored On Annual Awards Day

Outstanding Students were honored at the annual Awards Day activities Friday, May 19. Mr. Hawkins opened the program by recognizing Marian Cranford, Library Club, Billy Freeman, John McQuilkin, David Cranford, commercial department, audio-visual boys, Mike Frick, and Tom Adams.

Mark Mabry presented the Senior Class gift, a camera, to Coach Cain. DAR Good Citizen Awards were presented to Jane E. Lowder and David Hall. Cindy Hamilton received a Delta Kappa Gamma Teacher's scholarship.

Mr. Frazier presented the Biology Award to Susan Wolf, and Mr. Hatley presented the Physics Award to Oron Palmer.

Athletes Receive Awards
Mr. Frazier recognized the following outstanding athletes: Rip Furr, Ricky Russell, Beth Eddins, Robert Stonestreet, Steve Hicks, Benton Dry, Banks Garrison, Anne Ayers, Bruce Smith, and Gerald Whitley. Rip Furr was named recipient of the Dr. John Gaskin Award, and Beth Eddins, recipient of the Dr. Madge Gaskin Award. Mr. Cain presented Physical Fitness Awards to David Taylor and Rip Furr.

Joy Schreyer received the Booster of the Year Award from Mrs. Flowers. Senior cheerleaders receiving awards were Catherine Kelley, Louise Harrington, Linda Peck, and Beth Moose.

Mr. Fry presented Band Awards to Tommy Blalock and David Taylor. Senior majorettes who received awards were Gerrie Watson, Betty Trexler, Sharon Sides, Janice Huneycutt, and Kathy Davis. Martha Wilhoit and Mike Frick received Senior Choir Awards, and Steve Hicks received the Varsity Singers Award.

Mrs. Westerlund awarded the United States History medal to Jimmy Harwood.

Homemakers Receive Honors
Miss Brooks presented Home Economics Awards to Twinkle Treece Crump, and Martha Wilhoit. Brenda Biles received the Betty Crocker Award. FHA Awards were given to Sandra Yow, Patti Woodall, Sheri Brooks, Sally Davidson, and Ann Faulkenberry.

Mrs. Brown presented DECA awards to Sherry Burgess, Susan Earnhardt, Myra Rothwell, Merle Britt. Joe C. Brooks and Linda Robbins Almond received ICT awards, given by Mr. Bourne.

The commercial award was given to Patricia Holt by Mrs. Chrisco, and Mrs. Gehring hon-

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 5)

Dr. Edwards To Deliver Address In Commencement Exercises

One hundred and sixty-four seniors will receive diplomas in combined Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises at the Junior High School football stadium Tuesday, May 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Albert G. Edwards, pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh, will deliver the main address.

Mr. Charles Pickler, chairman of the Albemarle Board of Education, will present diplomas to the graduating seniors.

Marshals for the exercises are Johnny Little, chief; Jimmy Harwood, David Mills, John McQuilkin, David Whitley, Johnny Jones, Mary Kay Austin, and Linda Carpenter.

Jane Lowder Wins State World Peace Speaking Contest

Jane E. Lowder won first place in the High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program in state competition in the House Office Building in Washington, D. C., Wednesday, April 26. She received the $1,000 — 4 years Lotan A. Corriher Memorial Scholarship to be used at the college of her choice.

The awarding of the scholarship was the highlight of the four-day tour to New York and Washington. All local winners and sponsors, numbering 111, participated in the tour.

Randy Burton Relays News
Word of Jane's victory was received from Randy Burton by telephone from Congressman James T. Broyhill's office. Randy, ASHS second place winner, was also on the tour.

The local contest was in February, sponsored by the Youth for Democracy Club and by local civic clubs. Statewide the contest was sponsored by the American Freedom Association. The speech topic was "World Peace Through World Law — What Does It Mean? Do We Really Want It?"

Three state finalists were chosen from the local entries. These three presented their essays orally, and one winner was selected. Judges for the finals Wednesday were Congressmen L. H. Fountain, Horace Kornegay, and Nick Galifianakis; also Sanford C. Parsons, Assistant to the president of the United World Federalists, and Rev. Rodney Shaw.

The two other finalists were Paul Hodges, Mt. Airy, and Joel Jenkins, Surry County.

Jane Outlines World Peace Theory

In her presentation Jane outlined the theory of world law and the steps necessary for its attainment. She pointed out that community, state, and national laws do exist; however, no world law.

Advocating a stronger United Nations, she stated that the UN provides a forum where diplomats discuss world problems rather than take recourse to military action.

She concluded: "... world peace through world law is a great and necessary prospect."

Jane's essay will receive wide publicity throughout the state. She will appear on U. S. History, WUNC-TV, Channel 4, during May.

The trip for the local students was financed by local civic clubs and individuals. They joined other local winners in Greensboro for the bus trip to N. Y.—Washington.

Both Jane and Randy returned to Albemarle full of memories of a remarkable trip. Various highlights include attending the emergency session of the United Nations General Assembly, a session of Congress of the United States, and Radio City Music Hall. Ambassadors from Cyprus and Nigeria lectured the group at the UN. Dr. Frank Graham, modern "Father of UNC" was a surprise guest at one of the briefings. In addition, they dined in the Senate cafeteria and visited Arlington National Cemetery.

Jane was recently tapped into the National Honor Society and is a finalist in the AFS summer student exchange program. Next year she will serve as editorial editor of the Full Moon. She attended the National Student Council Convention in Tacoma, Washington, last summer, having served as secretary of Western District and North Carolina Student Council Congresses.

Seniors Look Toward Future

Many ASHS seniors will journey to various cities and colleges throughout the entire nation to continue their education this fall.

Attending N. C. State University next year will be Edwin Sides, Oron Palmer, Toby Hudson, Gerald Hatley, Joe Crumpler, Wayne Solomon, Bill Hart-sell, Phil Tucker, and Ricky Burleson.

East Carolina College will be the home of Louise Harrington, Linda Morrow, Janice McManus, Jane Sanges, and Lynn Howard.

Five Travel To U.N.C.

Traveling to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will be Beverly Tarlton, Michal Medling, Marian Cranford, Mike Lanier, and Jim DeTorre.

Mark Mabry, Beth Eddins, and Mac Morrow will attend Wake Forest College.

Pfeiffer College will receive Joe Beaman, Joy Vanderburg, Andy Cotton, Joy Schreyer, Paulette Balfrey, and Kenneth Williams.

Four students will study at Lenoir Rhyne this fall: Martha

Beam, Linda Long, Beth Moose, and Elicia Harwood.

Studying at Appalachian State Teachers College next year will be Tommy Blalock, Gerrie Watson, Ann Underwood, Frank Russell, Joe Frick, and Sally Davidson.

Diane Burleson, Jimmy McBryde, Patti Woodall, Bill Cotton, Kathy Davis, Ellen Reeves, Thomas Fields, Mark Cain, Rodney Bullock, Sharon Sides, Ann Faulkenberry, Annette Broome, Ralph Burleson, and Tim Furr will journey to Wingate Junior College.

17 To Enter Central Piedmont

Seventeen seniors will enter Central Piedmont: Sandra Yow, Peggy Schooley, Shannon Thompson, Roger Lowder, Brenda Biles, Gail Swearingen, Mike Anderson, Linda Peck, John Lowder, Billy Poplin, Penny Furr, Jim Thorpe, Terry Townsend, David Cranford, Donald Morgan, Danny Starnes, and Frankie Barbee.

Attending Western Carolina College will be Doug Brown,

Butch Bivens, Cindy Hamilton, and Jerry Whitley.

Anne Taylor and Betsy Miller will attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro this fall.

Alverson-Draughon Business College will receive Dianne Clark, Faye Vanhoy, Donnie Burgess, Filmore Furr, Janice Mauldin, Lynn Furr, Patsy McLester, and Merle Britt.

Traveling to Catawba College will be John Auten and Susan Earnhardt.

Coker College in South Carolina will be the home of Debbie Weemhoff and Linda Helms.

Keith Burris, Joe Mullis, and Jimmy Ingram will study at Pembroke State College this fall.

Gerald Whitley and Betty Trexler will attend Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk.

St. Andrews Presbyterian College will claim Alan Treece and Banks Garrison.

Gail Lowder and Sheri Brooks will journey to Charlotte to study

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 3)

Jane delivers her award-winning speech in Washington, D. C.