

Faces In Focus

Dianna Spence and Mike Frick are serving as Faces In Focus for the month of April.

An active member of the FTA, the Booster's Club, and the Science Club, Dianna gives up much of her spare time to help on various committees and projects. She also works on the Crossroads staff and was chosen Most Talkative by the Senior Class.

Chairman of the Radio Club, Mike has served as co-captain of the wrestling team. He can usually be found in the auditorium helping with stage lights and other equipment. Voted Most Influential, Mike is also a member of Audio Visual staff.

Congratulations to these two seniors who have given so much of themselves to the school.

Future Teachers Present Coveted Calvin Awards

The first annual presentation of the Coveted Calvin Awards highlighted Teacher Appreciation Week, April 22-26, sponsored by the FTA.

Acting as master of ceremonies, Mr. McGee introduced chapter president Jane Nicholds who explained the purpose of the Future Teachers of America and described the nature of the awards.

Deese Nominated For "High Noon"

The first nominee for the Best Teacher award was Mrs. Mildred Deese for "High Noon," or "How to Beat Mrs. Myers to Lunch." Mrs. Deese ran to look at the clock and made sure that Mrs. Myers' class had not left yet.

Mr. McGee presented the Sound Effects award to Mrs. Nancy Gamewell for "In the Heat of the Day," or "My Man Eating Fan." Also nominated was Mr. Bill Cain for "The Sound and the Fury," and Mr. Tommy Hauss for "The Music Man."

Mrs. Anne Kepley received the Behind the Scenes award for "A Hard Day's Night." Also nominated for this movie was Mrs. Amy Wolf. Receiving the third nomination was Mrs. Willie Fry for "Get Yourself A College, Girl."

The next nominee for the Best Teacher award was Mr. R. C. Hatley for "The Longest Day," or "Why Did You Cover the Clock, Mr. Hatley?" In this scene Mr. Hatley covered up the clock. Chaos resulted because the students had different times.

Bogle Wins with Wardrobe The award for Best Wardrobe Design went to Mrs. Jo Bogle for "Guess Who's Coming to Gym." Also nominated was Miss Betty Brooks for "Breakfast at Tiffany's," and Miss Gaye Holsinger for "Sex and the Single Girl."

Nominees for the Best Supporting Teacher were Diane Hudson, Sharron Holt, Cindy Kobulnicky, and Steve Phillippe. "The Graduate" copped the award for Miss Kobulnicky.

A scene from "Who's Afraid of Nell Westerlund?" showed her frightening couples in the hall.

The Best Director award went to Mrs. Sibyl Brown for "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." Other nominees were Mr. Ken Frazier for "I, the Audiovisual Man," and Mr. Titus Waddell for "The Berlin Wall," or "How I Lay Bricks."

Myers Is Best Producer

Mrs. Joyce Myers took the Best Producer award with "Doctor, You've Got to Be Kidding." Also nominated were Mrs. Jean Morgan for "Second Time Around," and Mr. Bill Merritt for "And Baby Makes Three."

Following "The Great Escape," in which Mrs. Alma Crowell listened to phony excuses, Mrs. Mildred Deese received the Best Teacher award for "High Noon."

Jane Nicholds presented the Honorary award to Miss Chicora Caughman in recognition of her many contributions.
