

Sponsors Compete For Homecoming Honors

Friday night, October 16 during half-time of the Albemarle-Concord football clash, a queen will be crowned to reign over the '70 Homecoming Court.

Homecoming 1970 features 35 selectives and Walt Disney's Wonderful World of Color.

Senior sponsors who are competing for the crown are Janis Holder, sponsoring Bill Detorre, senior; Patti Hopkins, Duke Furr, junior; Ellen Kelley, Hal Brown, senior; Teresa Price, Roger Hudson, senior; Cathy Smart, Jay Dustin, senior; Chris Smart, Reid Squires, junior; and, Becky Smith, Terry Burris, junior.

Junior girls are Mary Ann Crisco, sponsoring Tony Morton, junior; Ginny Deese, Doug Owens, junior; Ann Harris, Carlton McLawhorn, senior; Cathy Frye, Terry Eudy, junior; Beth Kelley, Danny Burgess, senior, manager; Alicia Thomas, Keith Crump, junior; Peggy Wagoner, Donnie Eddins, junior, and, Peggy Youngblood, Blair Lambert, senior.

Seniors Seek Scholarships

Keith Nash and Marva Morgan are nominees for the Hearst Foundation Scholarships.

This is the U. S. Senate Youth Program, sponsored by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation and the U. S. Senate.

Keith and Marva took a test devised and sent to them by the Hearst Foundation in Raleigh.

Twenty semi-finalists will be chosen throughout the state. These semi-finalists will go to Raleigh for interviews. Two finalists will be chosen from the state to compete for the $1,000 scholarship.

The two final contestants of each state will travel to Washington for a week to sit in on Sophomore sponsors are Brenda Burris, Lew Smith, sophomore; Patti Hairyes, Myron Harrington, sophomore; Jo Ann Harbers, John Harrington, junior; Toni Lambeth, Bill Love, senior; Janet Miller, Curtis Paschold, sophomore; Susan Motyka, Johnny Huneycutt, junior, manager; Kathie Neel, Ricky Parker, junior; Debbie Newton, John Earnhardt, senior; Cindy Rummage, Richard Hoffman, sophomore; Beverly Sanges, David Emmons, senior; Debbie Schooley, Harold Overcash, junior; Robin Wall, Melvin Hooker, junior; June Fisher, Jeff Redwine, sophomore; Pam Watkins, Kent Cooke, senior; and, Kim Woodruff, Jeff Gaskin, junior.

The girls will parade through a castle to later pause in front of Walt Disney's famous cartoon characters who will be drawn on cardboard stands.

David Carpenter, senior class president, will crown the queen, who is selected by the football team, and present her with a dozen red roses and a banner.

Each member of the court, two girls from each class, will receive a long-stemmed red rose and a banner. The Boosters' Club elects these winners.

Escorts for the evening will be John Howard, Tony Oettinger, Rocky Starnes, and Phil Whitley.

Flower girl will be Janice Cranford. Michael Scarboro will be the crown bearer for the occasion.

a session of the Senate to make a study of Democratic process.

Emphasis of this scholarship is on understanding our government and how it works.

The $1,000 can be used at any college. The only requirement is that the student must agree, before he accepts the award, to take two full year courses in U. S. government or some U. S. subject.

S
E
N
I
O
R

S
P
O
N
S
O
R
S

Spec-Talo-Scope IV

Spec-Talo-Scope fever is again infecting the juniors. Anyone can enter this dynamic race for riches and fame. The only requirement for competing is that you attend a school in Stanly County. To get an entry blank just go by room 113 or room 206 and ask for one.

Spec-Talo-Scope will be presented in the ASHS auditorium, Friday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Auditions are Thursday, October 22 and Thursday, October 29 after school.

DECA Drives Ahead

"To develop an understanding of vocational education; to create the desire to keep abreast of current developments in business and industry; to create and nurture an understanding of a free competitive enterprise; to develop leadership and citizenship,"—these are aims and objectives of the DECA club.

Following is a list of student participants and the businesses that are helping to make the D.E. program successful this year: Ronnie Bureson, Firestone; Charles Crumpler, W. T. Grant, Mac Loftin, K & L Drug, David Smith, Moose's; Ivey Smith, Mauldin Specialty; Steve Davis, Harwood Florist; Donnie Eddins, Starnes' Jewelry; Dwight Funderburk, McLellan's; Ronald Greene, Food Town; Paul Hudson, Cooper Specialty.

Kim Tobias, Tobias Gun Shop; Debbie Corne, Do-Nut Dinnette; Vanessa Funderburk, Unemployed; Kathie Johnston, Belks; Jane Knotts, Eckerd's; Joan Knotts, Kentucky Fried Chicken; Debbie Lowder, Cabarrus Bank; Diane Morrison, McLellan's; Martha Owens, Belk Quenby Mall; Aquadella Rivers, McLellan's; Mandy Smith, W. T. Grant; Frances Starnes, Chestnut Oaks Welding and Repair Shop; Nancy Furr, Thrift Finance and Cato's; Karen Holt, Service Distributing.

Robbie Lowder, Do-Nut Dinette, Janice Miles, Albemarle Music Store; Debbie Parker, Super Dollar; Elaine Parker Super Dollar; Sue Parker, Harris-Teeter; Darlene Sells, Phillips Drug; Jackie Starnes, Food Town; Peggy Wagoner, Home Savings & Loan Association.

Sophomores Select Leaders

David Adams will lead the sophomores this school year. Other class officers are Janet Miller, vice-president; Patti Hairyes, secretary; and Beverly Sanges, treasurer.

Sophomores elected their class officers Monday, September 14. Each candidate turned in a petition, signed by 25 sophomores.

Running for president were David Adams, Elaine Coble, and Deborah Kerr. Candidates for vice-president were Katie Cauble, Janet Miller, and Vicki Schreppel.

Sarah Burris and Patti Hairyes competed for secretary. Nona Pease and Beverly Sanges ran for treasurer.

Sophomores held their initial class meeting Friday, September 25, sixth period.

Council Honors Black Reps.

Marva Morgan, Dwight Funderburk, and Darryl Ellis are serving as black representatives to Student Council this year.

Elected by each class, Marva is a senior, while Funderburk and Ellis represent the junior and sophomore classes, respectively.

Provision for black representatives is made in the student body constitution. The amendment will be reviewed for renewal or revision during the 1971-72 school year by the principal and the Student Council.

This is the third year blacks have served as members of student council.

Teachers Make New Friends

Senior High's faculty includes eleven new faces this year. These new teachers come from many different backgrounds and teach many different subjects.

Mrs. Susan Almond joins the English staff this year. A graduate of the Baptist College in Charleston, South Carolina, she attended Wingate and UNC at Charlotte majoring in English.

As a teacher, Mrs. Almond's ambition is to help young people. She is interested in the development of an active drama club.

A native of Chatham County, Mrs. Almond lived in Montana, South Carolina, and presently resides with her husband and eight month old girl in Norwood.

Miss Nannette Broadwell, girls' physical education teacher, graduated from East Carolina University, where she majored in health and physical education. Her favorite hobbies are volleyball, basketball, and coin collecting.

After instructing a session of chemistry this past summer, Mr. Jim Burkhart decided to remain at ASHS for his first year of teaching.

Upon graduating from Central Davidson High School, he furthered his education at Pfeiffer College. Mr. Burkhart obtained his B.S. degree after four years with physics as his major and math as his minor.

Chemistry and physics constitute the two areas he instructs daily for five class periods. When asked his reason for teaching, he stated, "I enjoy teaching because I enjoy the students."

Mr. Steve Griffin, a 1963 graduate of ASHS, is teacher of the exceptional students. He attended Appalachian State University, majoring in social studies.

Mr. Griffin taught three years in Charlotte before returning to Albemarle. He noted that Senior High has changed a lot and remarked on how well-kept the school is.

He resides on Pee Dee Avenue, along with his wife. He enjoys hunting, water skiing, and gun collecting.

Mrs. Betty Hatley, pre-Algebra and Algebra II teacher, attended Wake Forest University.

She has previously taught in eastern North Carolina, Badin, and at North Stanly High School. Mrs. Hatley has been a teacher for six years and finds Senior High as friendly as her past teaching posts.

Mrs. Diane Hudson, former teacher at Junior High, is a native of Oakboro. She attended West Stanly and graduated from Pfeiffer as an English major.

Mrs. Hudson stated that she likes reading and movies. She says the school is wonderful and she really enjoys teaching here.

Mrs. Hudson is married and has one child, Kelly.

Miss Sharon McKenzie has the responsibility of teaching five U. S. History classes this year.

An alumna of Pfeiffer College, Miss McKenzie majored in social studies with minors in education and sociology.

A native of Gastonia, Miss McKenzie attended Ashley High School.

Mr. Chuck Smith is teaching for his first full year in the Biology department. Mr. Smith is a member of the 1970 graduating class of Pfeiffer College where he majored in Biology.

(continued on page 6)