

Special Honors Climax Year

Civic organizations and school departments presented awards privately to many students this year.

For excelling in many school activities, and especially in the area of art, Doug Hahn won the coveted Student of the Year Award from the Student Council.

The student body selected Miss Chicora Caughman as Teacher of the Year. Miss Caughman is the first recipient of such an award.

David Carpenter, active in school activities and in his civitan duties, capped the Civitan Citizenship Award.

The Good Citizen and Good Citizenships Awards, given by the DAR organization, went to Susan Andrew and Jeff Gaskin, respectively.

Mr. Waddell presented the Bricklaying Award to Avesta Lilly.

Becky Jo Clark, recognized for vocal talent, received the Varsity Singers Award.

Betty Watson received the Business Education Award and the Crisco Award.

Carolyn Nance captured the Sterling Silver Homemaking Award. Recognizing the most outstanding senior homemaking student, Sally Dickson Associated, Inc. gives this award.

Susan Chandler was notified as the recipient of the Betty Crocker Homemaking Award. Given by General Mills, this award is given to the senior girl who achieved the highest score on the "Nation's Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow." Susan ranked in the top 25 in N.C. and in the top 99 per cent in the nation.

The Rosalind Brooks Award was presented to Bobbie Swaringen. The recipient had to be a senior who had excelled in interest, skills, and knowledge in the area of Home Economics. This award was established by Miss Betty Brooks, former Home Economics teacher at ASHS, in memory of her mother, Mrs. Rosalind Brooks.

Jackie Lowder and Lorraine Thompson, juniors, received the awards for the most outstanding Home Economics II Students of the Year.

Reid Squires, Jeff Gaskin, and Harold Overcash will travel to Boys' State this summer. These students are chosen by the Lions Club, Rotary Club, and the American Legion.

Beth Kelley is the delegate to the Civitan Youth Conference in Hendersonville, N. C.

Many students have received scholarships to continue education in their fields of interest.

Chris Smart received the Women's Club Scholarship. Carolyn Hill is a winner of the North Albemarle PTSA Scholarship of one hundred dollars.

Winner of the President's Scholarship to Mars Hill is Mike Wyatt. Debra Madaris and Libby

Adams won the Honor's Commendation Scholarships of one hundred dollars to attend Lenoir Rhyne.

Gail Harrington won approximately one hundred dollars on the Health Careers Scholarship.

Perry Eury and Steve Blalock were two of the four boys in the state to receive a scholarship to the 21st annual North Carolina High School Radio-Television Institute, which will pay all their expenses to the two week summer program.

Doug Hahn, Student of the Year, and Miss Caughman, Teacher of the Year, sport senior hats.

Albemarle Senior High

May 26, 1971

Class of '71

The End of The Line?

The line for diplomas will be 218 figures strong this year, 107 girls and 111 boys. The formation starts Monday, May 31, at 8:00 p.m. at the Albemarle Junior High School stadium. The exercises will take place in the Senior High auditorium, in case of rain.

The Reverend Roger Tucker of Central United Methodist Church will introduce the evening's speaker, Dr. Jack Early, former president of Pfeiffer College, who resides in Washington, D. C. and works with the American Banking Association to secure funds for private colleges.

Banking Association to secure funds for private colleges.

The Reverend Shep Russell of First Presbyterian Church will pronounce the invocation and benediction.

The Class of '71 will receive their diplomas from Mr. Charles Pickler, Albemarle Board of Education Chairman. Shep Russell, Student Council President; David Carpenter, Senior Class President; Steve Blalock, Valedictorian; and Charles Burris, Salutatorian, who will sit on stage, will be the first to receive diplomas.

A group of selected seniors will present "The Halls of Ivy", the traditional graduation song. The band will play for the processional and recessional. The audience will participate in the singing of two hymns.

The eight newly elected marshals will conduct the ceremony.

Steve Blalock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Blalock, attained the honor of Valedictorian of the Class of '71. Steve serves as NHS president and assistant editor of the Crossroads. He is a member of Modern Music Masters, Science Club, Radio Explorer Post (WZKY), Law Explorers Post, and Young Republican Club.

He served as Student Lion for the month of November. Steve has received awards in history and biology. He was Morehead and Outstanding Teenagers of America nominee. Steve also attended Governor's School.

Steve is a member of West Albemarle Baptist Church and attends Congregational Christian Church fellowship.

Charles Burris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burris, is class Salutatorian. Charles is a member of the NHS, Modern Music Masters, and Law Explorers Post. He is Science Club president. Charles served as Christmas float committee and as mini-course content chairman.

Charles is a member of Anderson Grove Baptist Church.

The class selected "We leave only a memory, for life remains ever ahead, and ever ahead we shall go. We have laid a foundation. Now we go to build the tower," as its motto. The violet is their flower.
