

Flashback: The Fifties Come Alive

"Splish, splash, I was taking a bath . . ." Student Council is rolling back to the fifties next week, and taking the student body with them. Girls are searching for their cherry red lipstick and boys are digging up their Vitalis.

To kick off the week, the Council is selling lollypops at lunch and collecting wrappers for spirit points on Monday. Also on this day, a poster with baby pictures of all the representatives will be displayed and the first person who can guess the name of each will win a prize.

Tuesday, jump rope and other activities will be held in the auditorium for contestants competing for the titles of "Mr. Universe of ASHS" and "Ms.

Universe of ASHS." Spirit points for the class with the most boys with tattoos and girls wearing bobby socks will also be awarded this day.

The leather jackets and twin T-shirts will be dug out Wednesday as Gang Day arrives. This is for any group whose members want to dress alike.

During lunch on Wednesday, the Student Council will hold a fashion show in the lunch room as representatives model clothes of the fifties. This is to give students an idea of what to wear the next day.

Thursday will climax the week as all the students and teachers are invited to dress completely fifties. The Council will present a short assembly in which the best dressed students and teachers are announced.

Thursday night, there will be a disco dance in the gym. The dance will last from eight until twelve.

The Student Council will be taking candid pictures all week. They will be displayed the following week so that everyone can see themselves.

Student Council Representatives prepare for next week's activity by dressing in the styles of the fifties.

Talented Students Merit Nominations

Six students from Albemarle Senior High were recently nominated to try out for Governors School. These are Shelby Austin, Bill Baxter, Paula Carter, Melinda Gantt, Todd Overcash, and Virgil Waddell. They were nominated for their academic and/or artistic achievements.

Shelby Austin was selected for her academic achievements. If she gets to attend, she plans to study English or Spanish. "I want to get to go because I think it would be a great opportunity."

Bill Baxter was nominated for his artistic achievements in music. Bill is currently serving as drum major in the ASHS band. He intends to play the trombone in auditions. He also plays the bass baritone, and has been interested in music for over six years now. Bill commented, "I really hope I'll make it. I feel honored by the nomination."

Paula Carter was chosen to represent ASHS in art. She has shown great potential and talent in her work in Ms. Leviner's class in the school. "I would like to thank Ms. Leviner for all of the help she has given me."

Melinda Gantt was nominated for her artistic achievements in dance. She has been a pupil of dancing for eleven years, and is currently tutored by Mrs. Gary Piazza. Melinda said, "I honestly feel privileged to have been nominated."

Todd Overcash was picked for his academic achievements. He wants to go in math, which he particularly likes. Todd is currently a student in Mrs. Morgan's Algebra III Trig. class in which he maintains an "A" average. He stated, "I was surprised and glad that I was nominated."

Virgil Waddell was selected for his musical ability. Virgil plays the trombone in concert band here at school. He also plays the piano and the guitar on his own. "I am very happy and honored to be nominated."

Historians 'Dig' The Past

Several ASHS students will participate in the fourth annual Pfeiffer College High School History Bowl to be conducted Saturday, April 8. Interested juniors and seniors who have at least a "C" average and have taken U. S. History or any other history course were invited to participate. ASHS students did not attend last year but have done well in past History Bowls. Sixteen other high schools within commuting distance of Pfeiffer College will attend.

Each team has four student members, one alternate, and one faculty sponsor. The students involved this year are Henry Farmer, Rudy Gwaltney, Leigh Hartley, Melissa McKeithen, Todd Overcash, Laura Richardson, and Alan Sugg. The faculty advisor is Ms. Ward. They began practice Thursday, February 9 after school and will practice every Thursday until the contest.

Questions in the History Bowl will be restricted to American history, from exploration and discovery to the present. Each team will play two full rounds.

The school of the winning team will be given the opportunity to award partial Pfeiffer College Scholarships to selected students. The following scholarships will be awarded: first place, 500 dollars; second place, 350 dollars; and third place, 250 dollars. These scholarships are renewable for three years further study. A consolation competition for teams knocked out in the first round will determine the school to receive a 100 dollar scholarship.

The first place school will also receive a trophy to keep for twelve months. The trophy was won by South Stanly last year. Along with the trophy each team member will be given a certificate of participation.

Lorraine Watkins was crowned Miss Black Teenage Stanly County.

Teenager Receives Crown

Saturday afternoon, February 18, Lorraine Watkins was crowned "Miss Black Teenage Stanly County" in a pageant climaxing the observance of "Stanly County Black Culture Week '78". Lorraine is a junior at ASHS and the first girl to hold this title.

The judges of the contest were Mr. B. K. Williams, Ronald Wall, and Mrs. Muriel Wall. The contestants were judged on performance, expression, projection, and appearance. The total number of points given were 97.

Lorraine's presentation consisted of thoughts pertaining to overcoming sin and discrimination. She ended by singing "We Shall Overcome." Lorraine commented, "If we reach out and touch somebody's hand, we can make this world a better place to live in, and we can."
