

Wines Continues in Pursuit of Morehead Scholarship

By ADRIENNE SOYER

ASHS is again fortunate to have an outstanding senior represent our school as a county finalist for the John Motley Morehead Scholarship to Chapel Hill. Andrew Wines of ASHS and Ruth Echols from North Stanly will compete on the district level for the prestigious award.

In preliminary competition, Mariel Baucom, David Radford, Billy Joe Thomas, and Andrew represented ASHS. Each of these seniors was interviewed by the local Morehead Committee composed of Chairman Bain Jones, Mr. David Grigg, Dr. Carl Bowen, Charles Brown, Sam Andrew, Patsy McNeill, Maurice Pickler, and Dr. Robert Gaither.

Candidates for the prestigious scholarship are chosen from high school students who exemplify academic excellence and also contribute to their community and high school in various activities.

Andrew is very active here at Senior High. He is currently a member of the National Honor Society and of the Foreign Language Club. Andrew also contributes to the Junior Civitans and enjoys basketball and soccer. Andrew will continue to compete for this scholarship in December in the District interviews. If he is once again selected to go further into this competition, he will then proceed to Chapel Hill for the state interview.

Furr to assist Morgan and Taylor

By KENDALL HOMESLEY

Another progressive change will be made at ASHS in the near future. Alongside assistant principal Tommy Taylor, a second assistant principal will begin work at ASHS early in December. On November 5, the Albemarle School Board decided to hire Mr. Reed Furr to fill the new position of assistant principal. Mr. Furr's office will probably be located at what is now Ms. Pollard's office.

Though Mr. Furr currently is working at Stanly Community College, he has in the past worked in the public school system, serving as teacher and assistant principal at Albemarle Junior High.

The new assistant principal, Reed Furr, will begin work at AHS in December.

Superintendent's Advisory Committee Chosen

By MELYNNE MORGAN

The Superintendent's Teacher and Student Advisory Council members for the 1987-88 school year were chosen on November 5. Representatives, including students and teachers from each city school, were chosen to maintain open lines of communication with the superintendent's office. Selected from ASHS were Cameron Speight, Chip Taylor, Keisha Wall, Robbie Adams, Coach Holcomb, and Mrs. Baucom. This committee, working in conjunction with Mr. Morgan, meets with Dr. Cummings periodically for luncheons followed by a period of problem-solving. Last year's committee worked effectively in directing attention to problem areas within the system, and the present committee will continue the progress begun last year.

Will Andrew have his name added to the list of Morehead Scholars from AHS?

Seniors & Juniors Plan End of Year Events

By MELYNNE MORGAN

Senior class officers have been busy finalizing plans for graduation on June 8. Meg MacDonald, anchorwoman for WSOC-TV News, will be featured speaker for the ceremony. Graduation materials, including caps, gowns, and announcements, have been ordered, and class sweatshirts should arrive by early December.

Junior class officers successfully completed their powder-puff extravaganza and are busy ordering props and decorations for this year's prom, an event of April 28. Another possible project for the juniors is a faculty-student volleyball game during late winter.

The true "beauties" of AHS strut their stuff at Powderpuff, a money-making project for the juniors.

Belated Welcome to Mrs. Grigg

By KENDALL HOMESLEY

Mrs. Peggy Grigg is the newest member of Albemarle High School's math department. Her schedule includes geometry, general math, and pre-algebra.

Mrs. Grigg attended high school at ASHS and was an extremely active student. She served as the first female student body president of ASHS. Upon graduating from high school, Mrs. Grigg attended UNCG.

Married to David L. Grigg, Mrs. Grigg has two sons, David, who graduated from ASHS in 1984, and Charles, who graduated in 1987. Having two sons, Mrs. Grigg has been active in the school system. Last year, Mrs. Grigg served as an accompanist to the chorus.

Because Mrs. Grigg has been a part of ASHS for a number of years, she really isn't considered "new" but already a part of our ASHS family.

Mrs. Grigg takes time out to help a student.

Student Council Sponsors Talent Show

By MELYNNE MORGAN

Talent has always been evident among Albemarle students, but now Student Council is giving the student body a chance to show themselves in their most ridiculous and exciting faces of talent. These courageous individuals will not only be competing against others, but will also be eligible for prizes according to their performance and originality. Auditions will start on November 23, and will continue to November 27 for those students who have paid the $15.00 entry fee. If you or your group are not selected to perform in the talent show on December 18, the full $15.00 will be refunded to you. There will be a panel of six judges, two from both the junior and senior classes and one from the freshman and sophomore classes.

There are great prizes and loads of fun awaiting you, so get involved with the 1987-88 Talent Show.
