

The FULL MOON

Volume 59, No. 8

ALBEMARLE HIGH NEWSPAPER
311 Park Ridge Road
Albemarle NC 28001

982-3711

MAY 1994

Seniors Receive Money

by Shannon Homesley

As seniors are filling out applications and touring various colleges of their choice, college administrators are digging through stacks of transcripts and scholarship applications to find the right students to receive their scholarship awards. Many AHS students have already been notified of these achievements.

Eric Burleson has received a $20,000 Teaching Fellows Scholarship to Elon College. This allows him $5,000 a year, with Elon paying the difference of his tuition. After he graduates, he must teach for at least four years in North Carolina to pay back the scholarship. Robby Bailey has a full scholarship to the Air Force Academy. Hannah Oettinger has been awarded the Hanks Scholarship to Wake Forest University. This will pay almost 75% of her tuition and fees. Kristi Kirkpatrick and Melody Buiwe will both be receiving a Trustees scholarship for $12,000 to Wingate College. In addition, they received the McCurdy Scholarship to Wingate along with Tennelle Wilhelm, Michele Smith, Carla Cauble, Charm Miller and Kim Thomas. Leigh Anne Mauldin received a Nursing Fellows Scholarship to UNCC paying $5,000 a year. Scott Anderson will receive the C&A Scholarship to the school of his choice. Sarah Snodgrass received a Presidential Scholarship, the Alumni Scholarship, and a $125 math team scholarship to Pfeiffer College. Dayshe Harwood received the North Carolina Association of Rescue and Emergency Medical Services Scholarship. This allows her $3,000 a year, $12,000 in all to the college of her choice, Salem.

Eric, Scott and Hannah look forward to college and all that money!

Congratulations to these students and to all others who received or will receive scholarships in the future. Hard work really does pay off.

28 Juniors Inducted into National Honor Society

by Shannon Homesley

On March 28, twenty eight juniors were tapped in to the National Honor Society at AHS. These students have shown outstanding academic talent. To be inducted into the National Honor Society, students must have visible qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Nominated students were required to have a 3.5 GPA and were fully evaluated by teachers. The chosen twenty eight were not told of their achievement until they arrived at school that Monday morning. Everyone's parents received letters a week early so they could be at the school for the ceremony. The twenty-eight students inducted are Kellie Palmer, Heather Smith, Jeremy Clark, Anna Norwood, Dale Hopkins, Catherine Weber, Marcus Ingram, Aleshia Lowder, Aneshia Ridenhour, Deneshia Ridenhour, Will Lisk, Kevin Carter, Lee Timberlake, Michael Carrickhoff, Ellen Burleson, Kesha Lowder, Molly Tripp, Teresa Pleasant, Megan Hamilton, Michael Greene, Shannon Homesley, Nong Moua, Amy Morehead, Alyson Almond, Steve Bost, Andrew Burleson, Stephen Allen, and Marti Sullivan. These students will all be excellent representatives of the school. To prove their capabilities, their first activity will be serving as waiters/waitresses at the Academic Awards Banquet for seniors.

NHS members pose after their induction on March 28.

Third Nine Weeks Honor Roll Announced

The third nine weeks has ended and again AHS had a large honor roll turnout. 126 students got all A's or B's.

9th Grade

Tenaya Brown, Michael Bryan, Wesley Burris, Connie Edwards, Katie Ellis, Heather Freshly, Katherine Garrison, Beth Hathcock, Gary Her, Jennifer Holbrook, Erin Mauldin, James Monroe, Jason Smith, Danyel Bailey, Joshua Baldwin, Stacy Cosgrove, Kristi Dennis, David Efird, Allen Furr, Chris Handy, Ricky Hopkins, Allison Hudson, Melissa Jones, Jamie Kennedy, Hutch Kirkpatrick, Jennifer Lowder, Katie Mabry, Greg Nahrgang, Hollis Owens, Whit Parker, Kelly Rakes, Susan Rose, Angie Vanore, James Wallace, Marci Tucker, Michael Payne.

10th Grade

Stephen Anderson, Susan Byrd, Kelly Carter, Jason Hedrick, Grant Hopkins, Mary Jenkins, David Little, Eric Lowder, Amy Miskell, Mary Nance, Eloise Odom, Mary K. Sharpe, Ketan Vaidya, Kendra Whittington, April Bailey, Ced Baldwin, Matt Bowers, Annette Boysworth, Heather Braley, Stephanie Cooper, Michael Crowder, Shawna Euto, Renee Fink, Brico Flake, Brian Herring, Chris Kubik, Josh Lawson, Jennifer Lowder, Allison Pinion, Dustin Poplin, Mandy Poston, Lolita Rivers, Jamie Simmons, Stephen Smith, Thomas Taylor, Laura Beth Whitley.

11th Grade

Marcus Ingram, Aleshia Lowder, Anna Norwood, Teresa Pleasant, Catherine Weber, Misty Whitley, Stephen Allen, Steve Bost, Courtney Bowers, Andrew Burleson, Kevin Carter, Jeremy Clark, Megan Hamilton, Shannon Homesley, Debbie Kimrey, Will Lisk, Rebecca Montgomery, Amy Morehead, Jeff Nahrgang, Eric Niederer, Kellie Palmer, Aneshia Ridenhour, Deneshia Ridenhour, Heather Smith, Latoya Smith, Marti Sullivan, Sam Tuzenew.

12th Grade

Daniel Brown, Jessica Dennis, Kristi Kirkpatrick, Hannah Oettinger, Courtney Rogers, Molly Worth, Scott Anderson, Mary Jo Austin, Melody Buiwe, Jamie Dunn, Elissa Freshly, Kevin Garrison, Ella Lee, Leigh Anne Mauldin, Jamie Measmer, Brigitte Myers, Amanda Pelt, Erin Pettit, Jason Phibbs, Robert Seals, David Smith, Brett Speight, Emily Stonestreet, Marissa Tuzenew, Candice Vanore, Tennelle Wilhelm.

Four to Attend Governor's School

by Shannon Homesley

Marti, Nong, Marcus, and Steve are relaxing before their studious summer.

In March, Governor's School nominees went through trial and tribulation auditioning and writing essay questions. For four AHS students, the hard work paid off. The three academic nominees were all selected to attend Governor's School for six weeks this summer. Marcus Ingram will be studying and staying at Salem College in Winston Salem. Nong Moua and Steve Bost will be studying at St. Andrew's Presbyterian College in Laurinburg. Marti Sullivan was inducted for choral music. She will attend Governor's School at St. Andrew's Presbyterian College in Laurinburg. Congratulations to Marti, Steve, Nong, and Marcus. This honor is well deserved.

Seniors to Receive Awards

by Shannon Homesley

On May 26, AHS will hold its eighth Academic Awards Banquet. This banquet is in recognition of those who have achieved academic success throughout high school. Forty-one seniors will be honored. These students have to be either a member of the National Honor Society, a Presidential Academic Fitness Award winner, or a North Carolina Scholar.

The Academic Banquet will be held at 7:00 P.M. at Central United Methodist Church. First, there will be a catered dinner for students and parents. This will be followed by the awards ceremony. Some entertainment will follow, provided by the participants. The Junior National Honor Society will serve as waitresses and waiters for the seniors. Local businesses have graciously donated money for the banquet. Congratulations to all those who will receive honors and awards at the banquet.