by Ashley Flake

A FEAST FOR $5.00

by Beverly Poplin and Allison Horton

Aquarius (Jan 20-Feb 18)

You will be the life of the party this month! However, do not party too much. You must still put family and school in front of everything, especially your social life. Your best friend will need your advice this month. You will start a new community project and your parents will praise you by expanding your curfew.

Lucky Numbers: 11 & 5

Pisces (Feb 19-Mar 20)

You will begin to miss the guy that you met over summer vacation, but you will be revived when he writes. You will be filled with energy this month and your parents will encourage you to burn some of that energy by doing something constructive around the house. You will suddenly feel the need to spice things up and calling your crush may be just the right thing.

Lucky Numbers: 4 & 17

Aries (Mar 21-Apr 19)

Hanging out with your friends will be most important this month. You will sporadically date your crush, although he just cannot seem to let go of his friends. It is past time to move on from him anyway. Your new job will pay off and you will reward yourself by taking time out to go on a major shopping spree.

Lucky Numbers: 8 & 12

Taurus (Apr 20-May 20)

Your parents will be especially hard on you this month, but don't let them get to you. Continue to spend time with your friends. Money will flow heavily this month. However, do not blow it all at one time. Spend it wisely!!!

Lucky Numbers: 16 & 2

Gemini (May 21-Jun 21)

When a friend moves away, you will realize how great she is. You will gain confidence when suddenly two guys show interest and you will be torn between the two of them. Think hard and make the right decision, but don't stress too much about this ordeal. You will be committed to saving money this month.

Lucky Numbers: 15 & 9

Cancer (Jun 22-Jul 22)

When a friend stops speaking to you for no apparent reason, relax, because she will come to her senses. You will soon realize that the guy you have been obsessing over is not worth your time. Move on to bigger and better things.

Lucky Numbers: 17 & 24

Leo (Jul 23-Aug 22)

You will be overcome with guys this month and choosing the right one will be difficult. Taking advice from friends will aid in your decision. When an old friend comes into town, you will spend a wild weekend together. Be careful and don't be too much of a rebel!

Lucky Numbers: 13 & 6

Virgo (Aug 23-Sep 22)

You will flirt like crazy, but no one will be able to win your heart. When you finally settle down, do not forget your friends. Remember... boy-friends come and go, but friends are forever. You will be low on cash this month, encouraging you to finally break down and get a job.

Lucky Numbers: 1 & 22

Libra (Sep 23-Oct 23)

Spending time with family and friends will be important this month as you get over that guy that you have been dating. It is time for a change - go out with the girls and scope out a new man. Take time away from work for a little while.

Lucky Numbers: 10 & 7

Scorpio (Oct 24-Nov 22)

Your parents may be a little harsh this month, but don't stress. You will soon realize that they are only trying to help. Think positive - your dream date may come true when a new guy in school has eyes for you. Do not get carried away in his charm and be careful about the decisions that you make.

Lucky Numbers: 3 & 19

Sagittarius (Nov 23-Dec 21)

Your ship will come in this month and money will flow heavily. Things will be smooth with your parents. Trust in a friend's advice this month and do not get mad at her advice. This time she really knows what she is talking about.

Lucky Numbers: 34 & 12

Capricorn (Dec 22-Jan 19)

Be especially thankful this month and remember that November is the month of giving. Concentrate on exercise and watch your diet. Pay close attention to your studies and your workload will be lighter. You may have doubts about a decision that you have recently made but stick with it anyway, you made the right choice.

Lucky Numbers: 23 & 30

Sarah Phillipy hopes her horoscope proves to be true this month.

Just Ask Jennifer: Love 411

by Jennifer Coleman

- Q. I like my best friend's brother, but she's dead set against it. Every time we talk I get chills and I try to ignore them. What can I do?
- A. That depends on why she's so against it. Maybe she's seen you treat guys like dirt, or maybe she knows he's a hit-and-run honey. Your friend might think she'd be left out. If she's close with her brother, she may not want to be replaced as his best girl bud. Just tell her how you really feel, and once she sees you won't be bailing on her, she may even offer to hook you up.
- Q. My guy spends hours e-mailing this English girl he met online. That seems to be all that he does. Am I crazy to be so jealous?
- A. Crazy? No way. But you probably don't have much to worry about. Even if he is into her, remember that their connection is virtual; you're the real deal. Just explain how you wish you two could connect like him and the English girl. Once he realizes he can trust you, he should start bonding with you more.
- Q. Help! Whenever I like a girl, I can never get the guts to admit it - even to my friends! Fear of rejection? Probably. How can I overcome this?
- A. You don't have to tell your whole group of friends whom you like, but I think you've gotta tell at least one friend. Why? Besides the fact that crushes are more fun if you talk about them, it's always a good idea to enlist someone to be your co-conspirator. He can help you come up with approach strategies, give you reality checks, and even send advance word - like mentioning to her friends that you think she's a hottie or whatever.
- Q. I'm decent looking, smart, and I have tons of friends, but I'm 16 and have never had a real boyfriend. What's wrong with me?
- A. Nothing at all! You just haven't collided with your boyfriend-to-be yet. If you hear that one more time, you'll upchuck right? But it happens to be true! Sounds like you're under the (false) impression that everyone but you has a love life like Julia from Party of Five. We wish! You seem to know you're awesome, even though you're momentarily minus a male - and you're right. Remember that and you'll snag a stellar sweetie just as soon as you meet one smart enough to fall for you.
