THE FULL MOON

Super Defender of Justice Man

by Tyler Baldwin and Stephen Efird

After his close brush with death last month, SDOJM decided to take a break from crimefighting and was hanging out at his beach house villa in France. He was lounging on the couch watching Richard Simmons' Fun With Buns Vol. 12. All of a sudden, he heard a high-pitched squealing noise. Immediately, he suited up and went to check it out. His investigation ended when he spotted a truckload of Pakistani Freedom Fighters teetering over the edges of a ravine. SDOJM instinctively flew beneath the truck and heaved it to safety. As he set it down, he began to realize something. The Freedom Fighters weren't like any he'd ever seen, and the truck wasn't a truck at all. It had transformed into a subatomic missile that was aimed at his hometown of Fishington. It was a trap!

The Pakistanis were actually loyal followers of the horrendous Ed. They began to recite their spine-tingling motto: "We die for Ed. Also, when we die for him, we will know that we died in glory. With this bomb, our goal is to destroy the upright SDOJM and all those whom he protects. We hate him, and we hope to see his entrails spread to the far corners of the earth." Like a line of poetry, they repeated this over and over again. He scanned the situation and spotted the cordless detonator that controlled the horrible explosive device. SDOJM then instantaneously snapped the antenna of the detonator and carelessly tossed the bomb into the sun. He had forgotten, however, that the bomb was still armed. It exploded in mid-air with destructive force and blasted SDOJM, unconscious, into space.

Next month, read The Adventures of Super Defender of Man to find out what will become of our dynamic hero. Will he perish, or simply float around in an endless void for all eternity SDOJM shows his courage by protecting the innocent.

All For Love

by Stephanie Efird

What is the sweetest thing your boyfriend has ever done? Bought you flowers? Made you dinner? Carried your books? We asked some of AHS's sweethearts and this is what they had to say.

Jennifer Coleman and Brian "STREAK" Stoker-He brought me flowers and a teddy bear when I had my tonsils taken out. (two years)
Jason Pinion and Kelly Farlow-I gave her flowers for no reason. (two months)

Jo Lynn Gill and Whit Parker-For Valentine's Day, he fixed me a candlelight Italian dinner. (two years)

Ben Lisk and Mandi Hathcock(7th grade)-When we looked deep into each other's eyes, and with passion we slow danced to Richard Marx. (seven months)

Jennifer Hounshell and Will Joines-One day, last year, I was having a really bad day, and Will wrote me a letter that said "Jennifer, Just thinking of you. Love, Will." (one year and one month)

Stephanie Holt and Rufus Lefler-Everything he says and does. (three months)

Kendra Edwards and Chris Broyles-One night we were at my house watching a movie and I lay in his lap while he played with my hair until I fell asleep. (less than a month)

Carrie Winecoff and Brian Burnside-After SAT, he put flowers in my car and made me lunch. (one month)

Stephanie Efird and Sean Kelley-He's sweet to me every minute of the day, but one of the many things that stands out is when he drove an hour to bring me peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and barbecue chips for my lunch break this summer. (eight months)

Jodie Dennis and Bryan Anderson-When I was sick, he fixed me a candlelit dinner and sang me to sleep. (ten months)

Brooke Doby and Edward Stokes-He gave me a flower and wrote me a poem a week after we started dating. (three months)

Candice Craig and EJ Wall-He wrote I love Candice on his chest and walked around. (four months)

Andrica Lilly and Derek Crump-He walked me home in the cold weather. (three weeks)

Kelly Gill and Robby Johnston-He put roses in my locker just to cheer me up. (two months)

Desiree Watkins and Montez Lewis-I gave her money to buy something special. (three months)
Ryan Robinson and Kennetta Calhoun-I went to her job with a dozen roses and a teddy bear.
Beverly Poplin and Jeff Nahrgang-Last Christmas he took me to Charlotte and gave me a ring just before dessert. (one year and nine months)
Travis Gaster and Anne Lyerly-We do sweet things all the time. It not any special occasion when we do something sweet for each other. (four years)

Allison Horton and Dustin Lisk-When I found out Grandpa died, he talked to me and stayed with me. He brought me candy to cheer me up, and the next day he picked me up for school. (two months)

Wilson Beaver and Jessica Barringer-For our seven-month anniversary, I gave her a monogrammed fourteen-karat gold signet ring. (nine months)

Here's some ideas for you bachelors hoping to snag the heart of your dearest damsel. As for you guys who are already specialized in the art of sweetness, keep it up.

Jennifer is thrilled about receiving a gift from her romantic man Streak.

NAME THAT NUMBER

by Greg Hathcock

Have you ever got those weird numbers in your beeper that are really a message but you can't figure it out? Have you ever seen those companies with 800 numbers that list their number as 1-800-Gateway (or other word) so you can remember how to call them? Well, recently I was on the Internet and found a site under "What's Cool" that solves all your problems for you. I started typing different letter and number combinations. Every phone number has some word combinations, and every word can be made into a number. Did you know that there are 111 combinations for the New London "463" prefix, including goddess (463-3377). However, Norwood's "474" prefix only has 36 words, but one of them is grinning (474-6646). The most words I found to exist came with the "272" number that I typed in the search. Exactly 149 words are made from phone numbers with this prefix. Here are a few of my favorite numbers to match up.

Example: GLWhite (our principal) = 459-4483

Match up the number with the word!

English	285-5364
Gridiron	887-5397
Bulldog	627-8283
Chillin'	742-2783
Tarheel	364-5474
Turkeys	422-4363
Hacienda	986-6437
NCState	474-3476
Rib-a-que	227-2783
Bar-b-que	982-2446
Zucchini	244-5546
Hotdogs	468-3647
Yummier	827-4335

Was it hard? How many did you figure out? Try using this website sometime. It is called PhoneSpell. Try making up your own phone messages. They are really fun!!!
