

Mrs. E. L. Billstein of Greenwich, Conn., has arrived to spend the summer at her home on east Main Street. Her guests for the next several weeks are Mrs. Marvin Kemp and Miss Virginia Kemp of Lake Wales, Fla.

Prof. W. L. Lippincott, head of the Chemistry Department at Clemson College, who usually spends the summers at his Mirror Lake cottage here, is doing special study in Chemistry at Cornell University this summer.

Mrs. O. E. Young and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Smith with a party of friends visited Wayah Bald last Sunday to see the white azalea on the mountain top, which is now at the height of the blooming period. On their return they drove in to Cliffside Lake just outside of Highlands and found the drive from the Highway to the lake a veritable fairyland of mountain laurel.

Miss Carolyn Potts and Miss Marie Neely spent the week-end at Cullowhee the guests of Mrs. Annie Pierson and Miss Eva Potts, who are taking a summer course at the College.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Young is visiting Miss Nancy Dicks in New Orleans. Earlier in the month Miss Dicks was the guest of Miss Young at her home on the Walhalla Road.

Spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wiley is Mrs. Wiley's father, A. N. Rogers, of Greenville, S.C. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley have opened their fruit and vegetable store on Main Street.

Miss Alice Inman is again at the Oriental Arts & Crafts Gift Shop with her customary supply of yarns, also sweaters for men, women and children. Miss Inman is handling yarns at cost for relief knitting.

Mrs. Meta N. Hall, Miss Carolyn Hall, Mrs. W.R. Potts, Miss Peggy Potts, and Mack Neely attended the Rhododendron Festival in Asheville last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Miner and family of Clewiston, Fla., have taken an apartment with Miss Susan Rice for the remainder of the season. Mr. Miner is an insurance broker.

A. D. McKinney returned to his home in Birmingham, Ala., last Sunday. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Helen Thompson, who is expected to return to Highlands the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bascom and their daughter, Mrs. Louise Bascom Barrett, of New York City arrived Sunday to spend the summer at the Bascom home on Satulah Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beacham and their daughter, Miss Martha Beacham, of Atlanta are spending the season at their cottage in Shortoff.

The vacation church school, which was conducted at the Horse Cove Methodist church last week, closed Friday with a picnic that was enjoyed by all. Sixteen children were enrolled and eleven received credit.

POTTS BROS.
GROCERIES MEATS
A COMPLETE LINE OF
BIRDS EYE FROSTED FOODS
COAL ICE

HAVE YOU VISITED
ORIENTAL ARTS-MOUNTAIN CRAFTS
GIFT SHOP
IN THE HOME OF
MRS. J.E. ROOT
UNIQUE AND WELL SELECTED THINGS
YOU WILL FIND A WARM WELCOME

TRICEMONT
TERRACE
Top O' The Town

KINGS INN
WHERE WE MEET