ART LINEN AND GIFT SHOP ADDS ANTIQUE DEPARTMENT

The Art Linen and Gift Shop on Fourth Street, owned by A. Joseph, has opened its third consecutive season here with a wider variety of merchandise and gifts than in former years. This shop handles an assortment of the Churchill Weavers' products, made at Berea, Ky.

The antique department is new this year. In it are to be found many beautiful articles, such as old glass, pewter, china and a handsome old paisley shawl authentically stated to be 125 years old. The costume jewelry department is also new this year. Then there is an attractive assortment of English and Italian leather goods.

When visiting this shop one should not overlook the lovely things in the linens section.

Mrs. Herbert Rice and two children, Polly and Warren, of West Palm Beach, Fla., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hays and family, and other relatives here.
