King's Inn is fast becoming the honeymoon center of Highlands. During the summer of 1939, twenty-nine brides and bridegrooms spent their honeymoon at the Inn, and so far this season thirteen have registered. Mr. and Mrs. King have adopted the lovely custom of presenting each bride with a copy of the famous King's Inn cookbook, never failing to receive a letter of appreciation for both the entertainment and book from the couples after their return home.

Another attractive two-story guest cottage has just been completed at King's Inn, and has been named "Balsam Cottage", because of the trees of the same name that surround it. There are six other very attractive cottages on the grounds, all named for the different wildflowers so abundant in this section. The new cottage has three large rooms on the first floor and a corresponding number of rooms upstairs, each with beautifully equipped bathrooms, and roomy closets.
