

MISS HEISLER'S PAINTING ON EXHIBITION AT THE HOME OF MRS. ROOT

Miss Mary Heisler, Beaumont, Texas, artist, whose painting "Sally" won her the Rainwater scholarship award, which entitled her to a summer of painting in Highlands, has just completed a portrait of Mrs. Neil Conrad and one of Mr. Robert Maddox and is now working on one of Miss Clara Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Jones.

Some of Miss Heisler's works are on exhibition at the home of Mrs. J. E. Root, where she is a guest.

HICKORY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PRAISES HIGHLANDS CLIMATE

Mayor W. W. Edwards is in receipt of a letter from Mr. J. E. Coad, secretary of the Hickory (N.C.) chamber of commerce, written on his return home after he and his family had been guests at Hotel Edwards during the recent heat wave. This letter is so warm in its praise of Highlands that we are quoting a part of it here:

"The thermometer registered 95 degrees when we reached home last night and was still 80 degrees at mid-night. You can imagine our feeling after the night before at Highlands where, as you know, we slept under two blankets.

"You have a wonderful spot and if people only knew the real summer comfort awaiting them there your city would easily double in size. Mrs. Coad and I have fully made up our minds that Highlands is where we want our summer home. I believe I know a hundred men over the central South who would be just as crazy about the place as we are, if they knew what they could find there..."

BENEFIT GOLF MATCH PLAYED BEFORE LARGE GALLERY

Although weather conditions were much against the golf exhibition for the benefit of the Hudson library last Sunday afternoon, the match was played before a fine gallery. Crawford Rainwater and Charlie Yates defeated Bobby Jones and Scott Hudson, Jr., 2-1.

The returns from the sale of tickets were not in in time for this week's paper, but as the crowd was estimated at between 250 and 300 people, it is probably safe to say that the net amount for the library will be perhaps slightly more than $250.00.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Merrill of Asheville were week-end guests of Mrs. Merrill's sister, Mrs. Joe Reese, and Mr. Reese. On their return home they were accompanied by their small nephew, Louis Reese, who will visit them for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Warner of Miami, Fla., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Keener, at Shortoff.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. McAliley of Atlanta are visiting their daughter, Miss Louise Cramer at her summer home, Holiday House, at the Country Club.
