HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

SPOOKS! THRILLS! EXCITEMENT! ENTERTAINMENT FOR ALL

All who want entertainment join us at the Halloween Carnival, Oct. 27, at Highlands High School.

The Carnival is being sponsored by the Tenth Grade and surplus money will be given to the Lunch Room.

Spooks, if you like spooks just try the Chamber of Horrors. Thrills if you like thrills, too.

Bingo and other games will be held in one of the rooms. Prizes will be given.

Now if you don't like these excursions and you are feeling very romantic which wouldn't seem very strange on a wonderful night like Halloween, just try the Tunnel of Love with your most charming escort.

The kiddes will enjoy the Carnival too, because we have fixed a special playroom for them. In it there will be all sorts of games; one loved by all- bobbing apples.

And of course it wouldn't be any good without the best sport of all- The Cake Walk. Now, Boys, if you want test your girl friend's ability to cook just come on and walk with her and you might get her cake.

After you have been through the Chamber Of Horrors, and the Tunnel Of Love. You might need refreshing so try the delicious candies in the next room.

Then there will be a bigger event than any mentioned before. The crowning of THE KING AND QUEEN OF HALLOWEEN. It will be a surprise to all, who they are, come and see for yourself.

The prices will all be reasonable so you want miss the little amount of money put into this BIG ENTERTAINMENT! So come and bring your whole family along with your best girl friend, Gran'ma, or either your best neighbor.
