FEBRUARY

February is a month that has several great days in it. First we find Lincoln's birthday. We honor this great president and he shall long be remembered by any American for his great works.

Second we find Valentines Day. Romance booms when all those nice valentines are sent and friendships are renewed.

Another great American was born in February, Yes, George Washington, our first president and the "father of our nation." As Lincoln, Washington too will be long remembered.

In February we find that "weather determiner" the groundhog. Will he see his shadow? We wonder, but spring can't come too quickly for us.

February is our shortest month, but one of the most desirable of the year.

WORDS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

"No businessman in the United States can afford to ignore the dangerous possibilities ahead if the present crisis in our school is not met and solved.

"Our country has progressed and prospered in direct ratio to the growth and strength of our American educational system. There is no doubt that we can slip backward with alarming speed if the deterioration which has taken place in that system these past few years continues unchecked.
