

GRADE NEWS

SENIOR NEWS

The twelfth grade started the new year by first electing the class officers. President, Jane Jellen; Vice-President, Kimbo Cleveland; Secretary and Treasurer, Woodrow Wilson; Class Reporter, Elizabeth Rogers.

Today we ordered our graduation invitations and calling cards. This last year looks to be a very exciting and busy year for the Seniors.

Elizabeth Rogers

ELEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The juniors are anxiously waiting for their class rings which we ordered in early September. We expect them to come in late November or early December.

We have started practicing for our junior play which is to be given Friday, October 28. It is a three act mystery called "The Black Ghost."

The juniors have ordered some books to sell to raise some money. They are called "School Daze." If anyone wants to buy one you can see Joan Cleveland or Wanda Hopper. The price is 60¢.

Our class officers for this year are: President, Jessie Harbison; Vice-President, Joan Cleveland; Secretary, Ann Reese; and Treasurer, Wanda Hopper.

Melinda Reese

TENTH GRADE NEWS

Well, the sophomore class, as well as the rest of the school, started a new school year September 6, 1960.

The sophomore class has gained a new student. Her name is Sue Fowler.

Our class officers are as follows: President, Gayle Bryson; Vice-President, Billy Newton; Secretary, Virginia Edwards; Treasurer, Shirley Bety; and Class Reporter, Fran Vinson.

We hope everyone's start was as good as ours.

Fran Vinson

NINTH GRADE NEWS

We have elected our class officers. They are the following: President, Arnold Hedden; Vice-President, Ann Wax; Secretary and Treasurer, Margaret McCarty; and Reporter, Sandra Burriss.

We are sorry to say that Kathy Carpenter is going to leave us. She is going to Laurel, Florida. We hope she will come back soon.

A few of the ninth grade went to the Anderson County Fair. We had a good time!

Our King and Queen are Steve Brown and Kathy Carpenter.

Sandra Burriss

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

The first of the year was easy but now the work is getting harder. We have a science project of the Solar System well underway.

We have elected our King and Queen for the Halloween Carnival. They are Mae Bryson and Steve Wilson. We are getting ready to put up our halloween decorations.

Several of the students in our room attend 4-H. We are glad to have the President, Margaret Rogers; Secretary, Ann Wilson; and Song Leaders, Janie Baty and Lucille Crain in our room.

Some of the pupils have been absent due to accidents or illness. We are glad to have them back.

Mary Jo Vinson

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Since this is the year we elect a new president, the seventh grade had a political debate. It turned out that Kennedy won. However, this does not mean Kennedy will be our next president.

Also a tax debate was held between those who are for taxes and those who are against taxes.

(Con't on next page)