

HONOR ROLL

WE HEARD THEM THIS WAY

"Closer Together" love these crowded halls.
 "Thunder Road" school driveway.
 "Let Me In" don't make me ride that last bus again.
 "Pocket Full of Miracles" requirements for passing.
 "You Got to Make a Fool of Somebody" but why always me.
 "What's the Reason" you failed me with a 69.
 "Portrait of My Love" biology worms.
 "Smokey Places" teacher's lounge.
 "Perculator" put to good use the night before term papers were due.
 "Baby, It's You" at least it better be, 'cause if Mr. Green catches me out of home room, I'll be in detention hall.
 "I'm Blue" been out in the snow too long.
 "Crying in the Rain" translation: sleeting in the snow.
 "Shout" if you crave detention for a week.
 "Irresistable You" until you made me wash walls.
 "Multiplication" of germs--1, 2, 3, everybody sneeze.
 "Come September" the senior 'll graduate.
 "That's My Pa" says Mike Douglas.
 "Her Royal Majesty" the girl who made 99 on her French exam (no offense Marion).
 "Cottonfields" I thought we planted grass.
 "Moon River" the gym by night.
 "Ya Ya" French class.
 "See You in My Dreams" correction: nightmares.
 "Do-Re-Me" the chorus.
 "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" let's take the long way to school this morning.
 "Fool No. 1" first person at school on Monday morning.
 "Fool's Hall of Fame" detention hall.
 "Anybody But Me" please, flu bug.
 "My Boomerang Won't Come Bach" and they won't let me walk on the grass
 "Jamie" don't worry, Mr. Walton. We won't tell anyone that's your nickname.

COLLEGE BOARDS

The seniors from West Montgomery who took the College Boards on December 2, at Albemarle, have received their scores. Placing high on the test were Brenda Morton, Johnny Ingran, and Sue Ingran. On January 12, twenty seniors took the same test. Their scores haven't been returned. Twenty-four juniors and several seniors will be given the college boards on March 3. Up com-

The young man was trying to impress the beautiful girl.

"Those soft lovely hands" he whispered. "And those beautiful eyes...Where did you get those eyes?"

"They came with my head," answered the girl.

If you wish to be loved, love.--Seneca.
