

YOU WERE THERE

What has been your most exciting experience at West?

- Judy Whitley: Making Mr. Ritchie's flag.
- Tommy Yarboro: When cops got after me on the way home.
- Carolyn Hurley: Basketball practice.
- John Sedberry: When "Bear" and I got caught smoking in the boiler room.
- Joyce Callicutt: Nothing has been exciting down here.
- Karen Andrews: When I got to dress out for the basketball game.
- Brenda Vuncannon: Being chosen as co-editor of the annual and meeting Douglas.
- Judy Daniels: Crowning our homecoming queen.
- Jane McRae: Being in Mr. Ritchie's room.
- Richard Long: Making the track team.
- Patsy Watts: The day I got my class ring.
- Jimmy Saunders: The last few seconds of the East vs. West football game.
- Gene Morris: I haven't had one yet.
- Carol Ann Newsom: State vs. South Carolina basketball game.
- Barbara Heflin: First day.
- Marilyn McMillan: Class rings.
- Ann Lefler: Meeting Horace.
- Johnny Norris: When I flunked Mr. Walton's first vocabulary test.
- Melba Harris: First time we got report cards.
- Johnny Kirk: Loosing my library book.
- Cheryl Thomas: When I went down to the woods with Helen, stepped into a hole, and got my sock wet.
- Barna Farrell: Finding out about Albemarle.
- Wanda Russell: I don't know what's exciting unless it's getting up in front of Mr. Ritchie's history class.
- Betty Sue Bruton: Loving Gary.
- Carolyn Haithcock: That fight Kay and I had.
- Mr. Snead: The chorus singing at East.
- Barbara Morton: When I met that girl from Lenoir.
- Donnie Freeman: Saying "hi" to Marie at lunch.
- Carol Ann Kay: When I met Billy.
- Laraine Safrit: I haven't had one yet.
- Roger Ritter: Junior - Senior Prom.
- Edgar Haywood: Failing a big French test. I made 28!
- Fred Roberts: Asheboro trip for homecoming queen.
- Charles Eckerson: First football game.
- P. R. Rankin: When Mrs. Ponder sat on a tack and didn't feel it.
- Baxter Kirk: Participating in the tool judging contest.