Shore.. The pull-over sweater possesses a round, collarless neckline and fitted, three-quarter length sleeves. Near the double-knit neckline, Ann dons a circle pin. The matchmate skirt has hip pleats and is made of pure wool. It is both pretty and practical. Ann's total charm is one of fashion loveliness.

Dressed in cardigan wool sweater, V. C. Bruton is a handsome figure. The sophomore's sweater is made by Gantner and is a blend of gray and blue. He matches the attractive sweater with a pull-over wash n' wear shirt. The red, gold, blue, green, and purple striped shirt is a handsome array of color. It has a button collar and tab. Green, wool trousers matched with a green belt adds to the ensemble. As a final tribute, the fashionable young man dons a Hi-Y pin. V.C. is a popular, well-dressed student.

Susan Rankin is a chic, freshman Miss dressed in red. Her costume includes a wrap-around red skirt and matching wesket. The skirt and wesket are made of the popular fall material--corduroy. Loose fitting and waist-length, the wesket is paired with a white blouse. Susan's blouse has full-length sleeves and a button-down collar. On the neat collar she wears figurine pins. The vivacious blond's costume is a lovely example of the incoming styles for this winter.

A member of the varsity basketball team, Ralph Reynolds is also a well-dressed young gentleman. The 6'2" freshman wears a handsome bulky knit sweater of wool. It is a blend of gray and green. The sweater has side pockets and fitted cuffs. Ralph adds a green plaid shirt to match his sweater. The neat shirt had a button-down collar and button tab. Dark green trousers add to the handsome uniform. In completion of his outfit, Ralph wears a dark green belt.

The predominant colors for December appear to be red and green. A perfect combination for the Yuletide season!

A THOUGHT

I love the Christmas-tide,
and yet,

I notice this, each year
I live;

I always like the gifts I get,

But how I love the gifts
I give!
