ANNUAL

The annual copy is complete and has been mailed.

There is no definite date for the return of the annuals, but they should be ready by the first of April at the latest.

The sponsors say everyone on the staff has cooperated well and has done an excellent job with his assignment. It is hoped that the students will be pleased with the book because a great amount of hard work and many long hours have gone into its creation.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The Future Teachers of America met on December 13, 1962, in the projection room. Miss Thomas talked on North Carolina Teacher Scholarship Loans, Disability Loans, and other available loans. She discussed who is eligible for these scholarships and how they can be acquired.

The Future Teachers of America plans to help with Cancer Day in March.

BETA CLUB

The project committee of the Beta Club is considering several projects for West. Some of the projects considered are covering the gym floor for dances, a sign for the entrance of West Montgomery, a small scholarship for someone at West, and a flagpole for our school. Chairman of the project committee is Marsha Armstrong and members of the committee are Fincher Jarrell and Ann Saunders.

The convention committee will choose the talent act for the State Beta Club convention, which will be held in Ashville, April 5 and 6. Larry Saunders is chairman of the convention committee, and members of the committee are Linda Saunders, Patricia McLoud, and Roger Sanders.

Nancy Helen Bruton is chairman of the program committee, and members are Marion Dorsett and Ellen Highsmith.

FHA

The F. H. A. Club sponsored a tea for the teachers of West Montgomery. Students who are enrolled in home economics classes were also invited to attend.

The club has been selling cakes during the basketball games and has also been working in the concession stand.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club members have bought jackets and sweaters with the money which they received from the Homecoming game. They have also sponsored two basketball games.

LIBRARY CLUB

The members of the Library Club were unusually busy during January. Inventory of books was made during the time that students were taking exams.

Books were read on the shelves according to the arrangement of shelf list cards. Spring cleaning was also done. Table tops were waxed and cleaned.

The library assistants are ready again to serve the student body during the second semester.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club met Thursday, January 31. It is going to present the play Rebel Without A Cause. Anyone who wishes to, can help with the play. When the books arrive, tryouts will be held. Anyone can audition for a part. The play which will be given in May has a royalty fee of $35.00. Mrs. Leah Levin has planned to help with the production.

In the movie, Rebel Without A Cause, the stars were Natalie Wood and James Dean.

F. B. L. A.

On February 7, members attended a lecture on business letter writing given by Professor A. Bernard Shelley of the English Department of North Carolina State College. This was a feature of the Annual Sales Meeting program sponsored by Russell Hosiery Mills, Inc., of Star, N. C. Members of the Business Department of West Montgomery were invited to attend.

The members of the F. B. L. A. have put up new bulletin boards in the business department.
