 out over Bessemer City in game number two. The same Siler City team which was knocked from conference tourney competition by upstart Randleman a week earlier, continued their winning ways as they downed Stanley for the District 6 championship on Saturday. The Jordan-Matthews Phantoms advanced to the state playoffs at Winston-Salem, where they were defeated by Stedman in the opening round Wednesday night, 60-48. Central Tar Heel and Little 7 Conference teams participated in the affair at Cherryville.

HI Y

The Hi-Y club has had for its programs a number of speakers who have

TRACK UNDERWAY

Track practice got underway last week under the direction of Coach Alan White. Eighteen boys reported and are conditioning themselves for the first meet, scheduled for March 27 at West Montgomery against Rohanen.

The West track and field is not yet in shape but work was scheduled to start this week and it is expected to be ready in time. Events this year will include the 50, 100 and 220 yd. dashes, 440, 880, and mile runs, high jump, broad jump, shot put, discus throw, and various relays. Positions have not yet been determined.

Students & Safety--

The North Carolina student delegates to the Southern Safety Conference held in Jackson, Mississippi were all from Montgomery County. It was held March 3-5.

Delegates chosen were Marie Thompson, "Home Safety Discussion"; Clifton Hurley, "School Bus Transportation Safety"; Howard Cox, "Farm Safety Discussion"; Sam McCall, "School Safety Workshop"; Tammy Scarborough, "Recreational Safety Workshop"; Kerry Allen, "Recreational Safety"; Nolan Saunders, Moderator at the General Session Safety Discussion; Edward McCallum, "Outstanding Safety Projects in Montgomery County Schools"; Beth McCaskill, Panel Member of Home Safety Discussion; and Phillip Tucker, "Farm Safety."

S. H. Helton was Adult Advisor for Recreational Safety group.

FBLA

The F.B.L.A. held its March meeting on Monday night, March 11, in the business department.

Mrs. Phyllis Parks, a former business student at West told the club members about her work in an office.

Ten of the club members are planning to attend the state convention to be held in Durham from March 29-31. Tours and exhibits are scheduled and state officers will be elected during this time.

Congratulations to Coach White for being named Coach of the Year.
