

- Diane Stout--Junior-Senior Prom last year.
 Janice Thompson--Getting a pink slip in Mr. McEntire's second period study hall.
 Joann Dennis--The first day at West Montgomery.
 Joe Brown--All the things I did while cutting class at first-lunch period.
 Nancy Bruton--I remember my "love for chemistry."
 Alfred Cagle--When I met Joyce.
 Diane Callicutt--Last year's Junior-Senior.
 Joyce Callicutt--When I got my engagement ring.
 Carol Campbell--The Junior-Senior Prom of '62.
 Judy Corbett--Coach Brady's fourth-period study hall.
 Harvey Adams--The night of the Junior-Senior; after we left, went to Charlotte, and on the way back, stopping at the river where we found two boys lying on the ground.
 Howard Cox--Sitting out in the smoking area with a certain girl.
 Benny Crepps--Beating East two years in a row in football.
 Frank Crump--The party after the Junior-Senior.
 Judy Daniel--Becoming Home-Coming Queen.
 Carol Dennis--When I attended the Southern Safety Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.
 Liz Dickens--The surprising notes passed around in chemistry.
 Marion Dorsett--Twisting parties in Mrs. Ponder's project room last year.
 Sandra Garner--Junior-Senior, 1963; party afterwards.
 Larry Gentle--The day I saw West Montgomery High School.
 Loretta Gray--Coach Brady's fourth-period study hall.
 Jimmy Harris--The first basketball game we won last year.
 Nelda Harris--The Bus Drivers' Banquet.
 Larry Harris--Junior-Senior night.
 John Hodge--The period of anxiety just before a term paper was begun.
 John Inman--The fondest memory of a wonderful coach, teacher, and true friend. Men such as Gene Compton are not so easily forgotten.
 Ann Saunders--The play, "Rebel Without a Cause."
 Roger Ritter--Mr. Black and his fifth-period industrial arts class.
 Donnell Brock--Leaving T. H. S.
 James Harris--Fourth-period study hall my senior year.

HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y club has selected its officers for the coming year. They are as follows: President-Gene Pridgen, Vice President-Charles Bruton, Secretary-Ronnie Russell, Treasurer-Charles Eckerson, Chaplain-Bobby Dickens, Reporter-V. C. Bruton. These officers were installed Wednesday, May 22, after the Hi-Y wianer roast which was held at the river.

Twenty-six rising sophomores have been invited to join the club. Their membership is to become effective next year.

The Hi-Y Club has also donated fifteen dollars toward the shrubbery which has been planted in front of the school.

BANQUET

The second athletic banquet of West Montgomery was held in the school cafeteria. It was sponsored by the civic clubs of Mt. Gilead, Wadeville, and Troy.

After a very appetizing supper, the letters and awards were given. The letters were given to the football and basketball players.

The receivers of special awards were Girls' basketball: Loretta Gray and Barbara Holt, sportsmanship; Sarah Ingram, most valuable player; Sissie Moore, most improved; Boys' basketball: Red Harris, most valuable player; Don Layman, most improved; Ralph Reynolds, sportsmanship; Boys' Football: C.D. Thompson, most improved; Frank Crump, most valuable player and best lineman; John Harris, best back; Fincher Jarrell, sportsmanship.

After the presentation of awards, Coach Bill Hildabrand was featured speaker.

A fine is a tax you have to pay for doing wrong. A tax is a fine you have to pay for doing okay.