It must have been some party out at the river after the play to cause two wrecks!!

And speaking of parties--how about the one at the river after the Junior-Senior?

How many letters are there in the alphabet, Fincher? ?

C. B., what's the matter? I heard that a white Corvair outran your Starfire!!

Did Mr. R. really take his class to the greenhouse?

Paulette, why couldn't you talk the Monday after the Junior-Senior?

M.D. and G.G., didn't you know it's not nice to go to parties when you're not invited?--especially when the party is at Blakes'!

Has Buck Mountain replaced the Indian Mound as the scene of Sunday night get-togethers?

Juniors, did you enjoy the "serenade" coming back from Raleigh? J.C. says, "Broadway, here I come!"

P.T. and B.H., why were you sent to the office?--shame on you!

J. H., why haven't you told anyone about your episode with the police at the Mt. Gilead school? ?

If you want a 12:30 a.m. horn-blowing contest in front of your house, just contact W.H. and E.H.--they're experts!!

Some people do write surprising--and incriminating!--things in one's annual, don't they? ?

Are the colored lights still going 'round and 'round, M.H.?

The activity bus discovered a "short cut" through Troy on the way back from the hosiery mill. It seems that everyone just couldn't keep up! !

Many -Ha -Ha

TWO MORE DAYS, WE'RE OUT! !
