

the United States in 1937.

Hon. George P. Harris, president of the Carolina Bank and Trust Co., will deliver an address to-night at the American Banker's Association which meets in Albemarle tonight. His subject will be: "How Carolina Got Ahead."

Mr. Paul W. Smith, chief mechanic of the American Air Corporation, will start Monday in a tour of the world in Derigible No. 843.

Hon. Henry L. Snuggs, one of the ablest authorities on international affairs, was appointed Chief Executive of the council of the Nnited Nations.

Mr. Winfred Gaddy, editor in chief of the World Wide News, has obtained seventy-five thousand new subscriptions in his recent campaign for new subscribers.

New Lnodon is arranging for the reception of the world famous actor and actress, Mr. Carl Winecoff and Miss Annie Dry, who will honor this city with their presence next week.

It was learned today that the world renowned chemist, Evelyn Hall, has discovered a treatment by which tuberculosis can be cured in sixty days. Misses Mary G. McLaughlin and Ardie Casper, head nurses of the State Sanitorium, reported that patients have been completely cured in two weeks by this treatment.

Miss Mary Anderson, candidate for sheriff of Stanly County, will speak in the court house this evening on "The needs of Stanly."

The reports of the health inspector show that the cafeteria, "Irene," managed by Miss Irene Skidmore is the best in the South.

The students of the A. H. S., who boarded with Miss Ethel Snuggs this session, presented her with a set of silver.

Let Miss Ruth Pickler, reader entertain you tonight. Admission $1.00.

The proceeds will go to the Radium Fund of the laboratory of the A. H. S.

Martin Augustus Boger—there was an unusual sputtering, the voice stopped. One of my vacum tubes had burned out. I replaced it as quickly as possible but only to hear "This is Mercruy signing off," Good night."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (By Evelyne Hall).

We, the Senior Class of the Albemarle High School, being very dignified and of sane minds, and fully realizing that our departure will be greatly lamented, in order to atone for causing this grief, do hereby order and request that all the remnants of our occupancy, both good and bad, be bequeathed to those hereinafter mentioned as legacies to them and their assignees to eternity.

Item I

To the Junior Class we do hereby will and bequeath:

Our dignity and many Senior privileges—including the liberty of corroding jawbreakers and masticating chewing gum.

Item II

To the members of the Faculty we do hereby leave:

All our smiles, sweet dispositions, patience, good humor, slowness to anger, and non-scowling brows.

Item III

To our dear Alma Mater we do hereby devise and bequeath:

Our loyalty in endless duration and our sincere pledge to strive earnestly towards making it a better, bigger, and more renowned institution.

Item IV

To our Friends and Parents do we hereby will:

Our appreciation for aiding us in reaching this glad hour.

Item V

To the athletes we do hereby bestow all our "pep", fighting ability, perseverance, and "stick-to-it-iveness."

Item VI

To the following mentioned individuals we, as distinct members of the Senior Class, do hereby bequeath, devise, bestow and will:

1. To Mary Davis, Henry Snuggs Latin pony.
2. To Geneva Poplin, Annie Drye's "gift of gab."
3. To Ralph Feagin, Winfred Gaddy's position as Business Manager of The Midget.
4. To Juanita Huneycutt, Mary Anderson's ability of "ragging" the piano.
5. To Charles McSwain, Evelyne Hall's rapidity.
6. To Boyd Hatley, Paul Smith leaves his spare time.
7. To Lewis Klutz and Marvin Huneycutt, Gus Boger and Mary Anderson's aged feud.
8. To Ed Widenhouse, Gus Boger's radio ability.
- To Miss Pridgen, Ruth Pickler's Latin pony.
10. To Pauline Little, Ardis Casper's quiet nature.

In witness whereof, we, the Senior Class of '22, the testators, have to this, our Last Will and Testament, subscribed our names and set our seal this 26th day of June, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty two Anno Domini.

Signed:

Winfred Gaddy, Gus Boger, Carl Winecoff, Evelyne Hall, George Harris, Annie Drye, Ardis Casper, Ruth Pickler, Henry Snuggs, Irene Skidmore, Mary G. McLaughlin, Paul Smith, Mary Anderson.

Ernest May, Hazel McIver, Ed Hinson, Witnesses.

When you graduate from the harmful, half-sweetened drinks into the CHERO-COLA class, you will be in high gear. All the stores have it. Go in and wrap your stomach around a bottle.

"THERE'S NONE SO GOOD."