

Pictured above is a group of science students performing an experiment to determine the affect electrolytes and nonelectroytes have on the boiling point and freezing points of a solution.

School Observes Annual American Education Week

By Clara Barnes

During American Education Week, Nov. 11-17, Dillard parents along with other parents and all public spirited Americans were welcomed in every school, hall, and classroom across the nation.

Using the theme, "Education Meets the Challenge of Change", members of various groups at Dillard discussed the following topics during the observance:

Effective Teachings - Music Department; Why An Education? -Dramatics Dept.; Where Should I Attend College? - Language Arts Dept.; and For A Better Education - Social Studies Dept. The purpose of the observance was:

To give teachers and citizens a specific time to rededicate themselves to the cause of education.

To impress upon students, teachers, and patrons the relationship of education and democracy.

To increase public understanding and appreciation of the public.

To secure the participation of all citizens in improving schools.

To enlist the co-operation of civic groups.

Guest speakers for the Observance were Mr. H. V. Brown, former principal of Dillard, Mrs. Gertie F. Wilds, Supervisor and Dr. N. H. Shope, Supt, of City Schools. A summary of the week's activities was given by principal J. H. Wooten. The dance group and the glee club gave special numbers.

Teachers Attend Coastal Plain District Meeting

Many teachers of the Goldsboro unit attended the 12th Annual Session of the Coastal Plains District of the North Carolina Teachers Association held at Williston Senior High School October 26.

Speaker for the first general assembly was the Honorable David N. Henderson, Congressman of Third District.

Speakers for Sectional Meetings were as follows:

Primary - Mrs. Elizabeth D. Koontz, teacher of Special Education, Salisbury, N. C. Grammar - Mrs. Mable B. Howard, speech therapist, New Hanover County; Principals and Supervisors - Dr. W. H. Wagoner, Superintendent New Hanover County and City Schools, Wilmington, N. C.; Library - Mrs. Doris L. Brown, Consultant, School Library Service, Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh, N. C. - Mathematics and Science - Mr. Harold W. Webb, Consultant, Science Education Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh, N. C. Language Arts - Mrs. Catherine H. Robinson, Assistant Professor of English, A. and T. College, and Dr. Charles A. Ray, Chairman of

Class Studies Electrolytes, Nonelectrolytes

The third period chemistry class under the direction of A. B. Parker, performed an experiment to determine the effect electrolytes and nonelectrolytes have on the boiling point and freezing point of a solution.

Students learned that an electrolyte is a substance whose water solution conducts an electric current. They discovered that one mole of a nonelectrolyte dissolved in 1000 grams of water lowers the freezing point of the water 1.86. This is known as the molal freezing point of water. One mole of an electrolyte dissolved in 1000 grams of water raises the boiling point of water 0.52c. This is known as the molal boiling point elevation of water.

Honored William Jones

Tiger football captain, William Jones has been chosen to play in the annual East and West Shrine Game on December 8, in Durham, N. C.

Jones, a torrid tackler, is the defensive signal caller for the Tigers. He is a 5 ft. 11 in., 185 lb. senior.

Students Attend N.C.A.S.C. Meet

Twenty-two Dillard students attended the 12th annual Convention of the North Carolina Association of Student Councils at Hillside High School in Durham Nov. 14-16.

The delegation was made up of students from member schools of all districts in North Carolina, and their sponsors.

The keynote speaker for the opening session was Dr. James M. Nabrit, Jr., president of Howard University.

At the second general session, Lula Smith, president of the association and a Dillard H. S. senior, spoke on "The Student Burgessses."

In Discussion Group 10, Harold Batiste, also a Dillard senior, led a discussion on "How Can the Student Council Improve Sportsmanship?" Mrs. D. W. Hardy, Dillard Counselor, was the consultant for this group.

Accompanying the group were Mrs. D. W. Hardy and Miss M. E. Isler.

The Convention theme was "The Era of Transition - A Challenge to the Student Council."

Seniors Set Plans For Program On February 7, 1963

To avoid the rush in planning mid-term activities, seniors have already set major plans for class motto unveiling exercises.

The main feature of the program will be an address by the class president, Lula Smith, followed by the unveiling of the class motto. The date is Feb. 7.

Class officers are: President, Lula Smith; Vice President, Thomasine Hardy; Rec. Secretary, Norma Cherry; Cor. Secretary, Minnie Baldwin; Treas., Thomas Dickerson; Business Manager, Earl Williams; Chaplain, Harvey Barnes; Parliamentarian, Carolyn Robinson.

CLASS HEARS LECTURE ON TRINIDAD

Mr. Kenneth Gill, a native of Trinidad, British West Indies spoke to the students in Mrs. T. N. McKoy's International History class recently.

Students heard much about the geography, resources and political structure of the island, Trinidad.

An interesting question and answer period followed the lecture.

Mr. Gill is the son of Mrs. M. E. Dubisette, wife of Dr. M. E. Dubisette of Goldsboro and was visiting them at this time.

DHS Participates In Workshop On Health Problems

To help students understand themselves and solve some of the problems that lead to frustrations, a workshop on the subject, "Understanding Yourself" was held at Dillard High School, October 23.

The keynote speaker was Dr. Edward L. Flemming, Jr., chief psychologist for the Florida State Board of Health. Dr. Flemming spoke on "The Way We Behave and the Reason We Act the Way We Do." He pointed out four basic needs: to live, to be important, to be loved, and the need for a change from one thing to another. He explained that when we cannot have these needs we become frustrated and that frustration can lead to mental illness. Dr. Flemming stressed the importance of facing problems instead of running away from them.

At the close of the opening lecture, six workshops with the following discussions were held: Group 1 - Is it a sin to want? Dr. John Magill, Clinical Psychologist, Wilson County Mental Health Clinic and Mrs. C. B. Stewart, Supervision of Kins-

Annual Christmas Program To Feature Carols

As the Yuletide season approaches, the glee club plans its annual Christmas program.

This year the group is working on rare and traditional carols. Among them are: "Jesu Bombino" by Pietro You and "The Sleigh" by Richard Kounty.

In masterpieces of Christmas Music for Choruses will be the chorales of Bach-Cantata No. 142, and "Uns Ist Ein Kind Geboren" which includes a solo for contralto, baritone and tenor.

Among the Christmas spirituals will be Langston Hughes' "The Ballad of the Brown King". This selection is based on "The Three Kings".

There will be at least one chorus from Handel's "Messiah".

Lula Smith, senior class president, will be the speaker for the annual class program, Feb. 7.

ton City Schools. Group 2 - Making the best of what you have. Mr. Frank Hedges, Psychiatric Social Worker, Wilson County Mental Health Clinic and Mrs. W. R. Tweedy, Guidance Counselor, Booker T. Washington High School.

Group 3 - How to overcome frustrations. Mrs. Dorothy Mack, Psychiatric Social Worker and Mr. A. D. Armstrong, Principal