

Dillard Tigers Have 9-5-0 Record

By Michael Pulley

The Dillard High Cagers with a 9-5-0 record will seek revenge for an earlier 87-62 defeat when they meet Darden High again February 16, in Wilson.

The success of the Tigers can be explained best in the efforts of Larry Williams, Ronnie Ford, Chester Armstrong, Charles Gunter, Paul Vinson, Charles Barnes, Charles Howard and Coach R. L. Dowery.

Averages leading members of the varsity are Williams 21.7, games 9; Ford 8.7, games 8; Armstrong 7.8, games 8; Gunter 7.2, games 9; Vinson 5.0, games 7; Barnes 4.8, games 4.

Junior Varsity Stands 11-3-0

Junior Varsity Tigers have made a very impressive record so far with a 11-3-0 record.

Harold Jolly leads the field in point standing with a 15.3 average. Complete record of averages follows:

Harold Jolly 15.3; Ronnie Coley 11.0; Harold Smith 10.9; William Crawford 8.6; Fred Hicks 5.5; Sam Booth 5.2 and Jerry Raynor 3.1 average for the three games he has played.

Vocational Survey Show Plans Of Seniors

By Queen Esther Wiggs

A recent survey to determine the various vocations Dillard seniors plan to enter upon finishing college has been conducted by Queen E. Wiggs, a senior.

The survey shows that some of the seniors have definite plans for the future.

Thirteen seniors plan to join the Armed Forces upon graduation. The others in descending order as follows: Secretary-10; Social worker-7; Musicians-5; Elementary-4; Mathematicians-4; Brick Layer-4; Beauty Operator-3; Mechanical Engineer-3; Airline Stewardess-3; Nursing-3; Sociologists-3; Typists-3; Secondary teacher-3; Home Economics teacher-2; Psychiatrist-2; Designer-2; Interior Decorator-2; Physical Education teacher-2; Building Contractor-2; Barber-2; Electronical Engineer-1; Lawyer-1; Carpenter-1; Athletic Coach-1; Writer-1; Pharmacists-1; Bookkeeper-1; College teacher-1; and Physical Education teacher-1.

PATROL AT WORK

Students around Dillard who try to maintain order and discipline constitute the student patrol. They patrol the downstairs and upstairs halls and the cafeteria, and assist teachers in assembly programs in keeping order.

The captains of the squads are: Downstairs, Alben Barkley and Janie Garrett. The Cafeteria squad is headed by Clayton Harris and Edna Britt.

Other members of the patrol include: Edna Borden, Patricia Smith, Ann Best, Janice Alston, Inez Bryant, La Eula Davis, Marion Howell, Jerry Jones, Rossie Daniels, Linda Lewis, Lyde Lynn, Sherl Grey, Dees Stallings, Annie Benton, Anna Moore, Gilbert Johnson, Spruil, Charles Lane, Swinson, and Lola

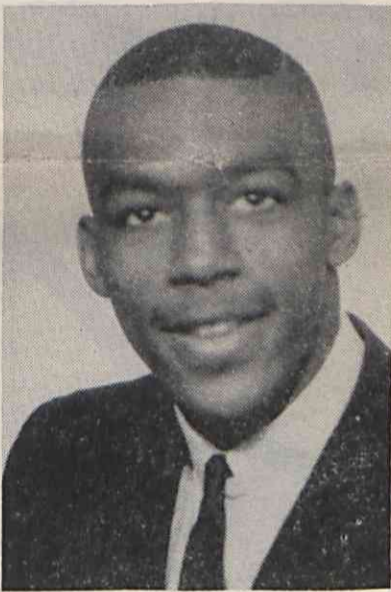

DILLARD TIGERS—Reading Left to Right: Chester Armstrong, Paul Vinson, Charles Barnes, Ronnie Ford, Thurman Bunch, James Dais, Coach R. L. Dowery, Larry Williams, Willie Greenfield, Alexander McKinnon, Willie Smith, Fletcher Worrells.

Operation Smokeless Begins At Dillard

The Student Council has made an all out campaign against smoking as one of its projects for the year. Posters have been placed in the halls. The posters are designed with such words as "Us Dillardites would rather fight than smoke."

The president of the Student Council has appointed a committee to set up plans for the operation. LaForest Ford heads this committee. Other committee members are Janet Whitfield, James Dixon and Ronald Dortch.

CHARLES HOWARD

Howard Selected To Play In Annual Shrine Bowl Game

By Michael Pulley

Charles Howard a Dillard senior, was voted the most outstanding player to represent Dillard in the annual Shrine Bowl between Eastern and Western All-stars played in Durham, December 5.

Howard, a senior and four year veteran, played as linebacker for the Eastern team. He has played such positions as halfback, linebacker, and end for Dillard and according to coach Elliot is the most versatile Tiger.

The Western team battered the East 28-12. The West also swapped the East in last year's game.

After graduation Charles plans to go to college and major in Physical Education. He also participates in basketball, baseball, and table tennis.

He was chosen as the All-Eastern player. This is something new for this year.

Commenting on Dillard's unsuccessful season of no wins and all losses, Howard said, "we just couldn't get together."

Howard is the son of Mr. and

Home Economics Dept. Presents Fashion Show

Many parents and friends witnessed the second annual fashion show presented by the home economics department January 21, as a feature of the Dillard P. T. A.

Garments were made and modeled by both girls and boys. The proud winners were: Doris Taylor - a two piece suit; Cynthia Blount - a shift; LeMira White - jumper and blouse; Home Economic I - Helen Lewis, two-piece dress; Agnes Batts, slack suit and Shirley Locklair, a dress. Home Economic II - Mable Lewis, three-piece suit; Sarah Spicer, a two-piece dress; and Sandra Durante, a shift, Home Economic III.

Representing the boys were: Douglas Harper, a jacket; Jimmy Stokes, a parker jacket and Melvin Horner, a vest.

Judges were Mrs. Thelma Branch, Home Economic teacher at Central and Miss Gwendolyn Crawford, a Dillard senior.

The fashion show was sponsored by Belk-Tyler Store and presented annually by the home economic department under the supervision of Mrs. Eliza S. Jones and Miss O. Douglas.

Mrs. Nathaniel Howard, Holley Street, Goldsboro, N. C.

Dillard Junior Crowned "Miss Cinderella"

Gwendolyn Josey, a Dillard Junior, was crowned "Miss Cinderella" for 1965 at the annual Cinderella Ball December 4.

Many young ladies from Carver High School and Central witnessed the crowning by Annette Dawson, last year's queen, and were introduced to society on this occasion.

The affair is sponsored annually by the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and was held this year in Dillard High School's gym.

Dillard students participating were: Jacqueline Brimage, Gloria Taylor, Margie Gills, Mary Thomas, Decoras Best, Judy Lewis, Betty Allen, Delia Sherrard, Brenda Packer, Queen E. Wiggs, Sally Jacobs, Doretha Daniels, Minnie Gogdill, Johnice Washington, Bertha Davis, Audrey Rogers, Sylvia Hines, Geraldine Renfrow, Daphne Artis, Dorrina Hodges, Thelma Barnes, Rossie Daniels, Mabeltine Britt, Roberta Barnes, Teresa Dawson, Ethelene Bryant, Sandra King, Gail, Linda Davis, Linda Best, Conatha Boyette, and Sandra Cox.

Second And Third Honor List Revealed

According to an official report the following students who have a majority of A's in scholarship, no C's, and A in conduct and perfect attendance were eligible for the honor list second and third reporting periods of this year:

Second Period—Freshmen

Janice Barkley, Catherine Washington, Jay Stallings, Doris Taylor, Bobby Bryant, Betty Joe Wooten, Brenda Crowder, Camelia Rhodes, Theodore MacFarland.

Sophomores

Raynette Green, Catherine Watson, Linda White, Linda Silver, Linda Gerald.

Juniors:

Daphne Artis, Patricia Foster.

Seniors:

Gloria E. Coley, LaForest Ford, Sandra Durante, Curtis Phillips, Letha White, Annette Dawson, Dorothy White, Esther Silver, Nettie Sheard, Bessie Scott, Lola Jones.

Third Period—Freshmen:

Janice Barkley, Doris Taylor, Catherine Washington, Camelia Rhodes, Brenda Crowder, Wanda Lofton, Alex Daniels, Alexander Waters.

Sophomores:

Catherine Watson, Charlene Simmons, Raynette Green, Brenda Edwards, Linda Gerald, Linda White, Linda Silver, Linda Brown.

Juniors:

Queen E. Wiggs, Daphne Artis, Janice Best.

Seniors:

LaForest Ford, Curtis Phillips, Sandra Durante, Letha White, Louvenia Moses, Doris Bowden, Esther Silver, Gloria E. Coley, Patricia Burden, Bessie Scott, Dorothy White, Nettie Sheard, Lola Jones, Gloria Hamilton, Gwendolyn Crawford.

Special Course Offered For Talented At Dillard High School

Ninety Dillard students, selected on the basis of scores received on tests, make up the new English Classes now offered at Dillard. There are 22 seniors, 15 juniors, 30 sophomores and 23 freshmen in the course.

The purpose of the course, which was first offered in North Carolina in 1961, is to enrich the

(Continued on Page 5)

GOLDSBORO'S HUB

Department Store

MEN'S STRETCH SOCKS

75% ORLON
25% NYLON

FIT SIZES 10 TO 13

ALL NEW COLORS

65c Pr.

105-107 EAST WALNUT STREET

PHONE RE 4-5436

GOLDSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

